Barry Langford, 2010-08-31 At the end of World War II Hollywood basked in unprecedented prosperity Since then numerous challenges and crises have changed the American film industry in ways beyond imagination in 1945 Nonetheless at the start of a new century Hollywood s worldwide dominance is intact indeed in today s global economy the products of the American entertainment industry of which movies are now only one part are more ubiquitous than ever How does today s Hollywood absorbed into transnational media conglomerates like NewsCorp Sony and Viacom differ from the legendary studios of Hollywood s Golden Age What are the dominant frameworks and conventions the historical contexts and the governing attitudes through which films are made marketed and consumed today How have these changed across the last seven decades And how have these evolving contexts helped shape the form the style and the content of Hollywood movies from Singin in the Rain to Pirates of the Caribbean Barry Langford explains and interrogates the concept of post classical Hollywood cinema its coherence its historical justification and how it can help or hinder our understanding of Hollywood from the forties to the present Integrating film history discussion of movies social and political dimensions and analysis of Hollywood s distinctive methods of storytelling Post Classical Hollywood charts key critical debates alongside the histories they interpret while offering its own account of the post classical Wide ranging yet concise challenging and insightful Post Classical Hollywood offers a new perspective on the most enduringly fascinating artform of our age
