California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Dear Regina Monica Carol Miller, 2022-07-15 Dear Regina offers a remarkable window into the early years of one of America's best known literary figures While at the University of Iowa Writer's Workshop from 1945 to 1948 Flannery O'Connor wrote to her mother Regina Cline O'Connor who she addressed by her first name nearly every day and sometimes more than once a day The complete correspondence of more than six hundred letters is housed at the Stuart A Rose Manuscript Archives and Rare Book Library at Emory University From that number Miller selects 486 letters to show us a young adult learning to adjust to life on her own for the first time In these letters O'Connor shares details about living in a boardinghouse and subsisting on canned food and hot plate dinners and she asks for advice about a wide range of topics including how to assuage her relatives concerns about her well being and how to buy whiskey to use for cough medicine These letters which are being published for the first time with the unprecedented permission of the Mary Flannery O'Connor Charitable Trust also offer readers important insights into O'Connor's intellectually formative years when her ideas about writing race class and interpersonal relationships were developing and changing Her preoccupation with money employment and other practical matters reveals a side of O'Connor that we do not often see in her previously published letters Most importantly the letters show us her relationship with her mother in a much more intimate positive light than we have seen before The importance of this aspect of the letters cannot be overstated given that so much literary analysis conflates her and Regina with the sour deformed daughters and self-righteous mothers that critic Louise Westling sees so often in O'Connor's work The Cape Law Journal, 1889 South African Law Journal, 1889 "We Were the Salt of the Earth!" Victor Howard, 1985 The Regina Riot which erupted in that city's Market Square on July 1 1935 was the climax of a strike by relief camp workers which had begun in British Columbia on April 4 After lingering two months in Vancouver the participants struck out east by freight train on to Ottawa where they intended to tell the Government of Canada that the situation of the unemployed had become intolerable The origins of the Strike the Trek and the Riot the character of those events are what this book is all about It is a narrative composed from federal provincial and municipal records from news reports from interviews with participants from sworn testimony from photographs from maps from sawn off baseball bats It is the story of an event which figured prominently at the same instant in the history of the Canadian worker in the history of the Canadian radical in the histories of two Canadian cities and in the history of R B Bennett's Depression years government Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division, As One Who Serves James M.
