   Region Building in the Pacific Gavin Boyd,1982   Comparative Regional Systems Werner J. Feld,Gavin Boyd,2016-06-06 Comparative Regional Systems West and East Europe North America the Middle East and Developing Countries is a comparative study of regional systems namely West and East Europe North America the Middle East and developing countries This book examines the patterned and unpatterned forms of international activity through which states relate to the most important entities in world politics their neighbors The cooperative and conflictual behavior in international politics occurring within regional contexts is discussed with emphasis on the sources and forms of this behavior as well as the issues that contribute to it and those that it creates This monograph is comprised of 15 chapters and opens with an analysis of clusters of variables that form linked patterns within each international region paying particular attention to the developmental issues that appear to be posed in the various regions of world politics The following chapters focus on social psychological factors in regional politics regional patterns of economic cooperation political change in regional systems patterns of transregional relations and interactions between regional organizations in various parts of the world and the global system that may affect either the operation of the latter or influence actions and functions of the former The final chapter examines the problems and pitfalls of regional integration theories along with their inability to scientifically predict the pathways of regional development This text is designed to assist students professionals and the general public interested in international relations   Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1982   The Foundation of Japanese Power William R. Nester,2016-09-16 Recent events in Tianamen Square have made such books abruptly important though in some aspects outdated This one examines reforms in higher education from before the republic to March 1988 and focuses on educational and economic relations with groups outside China and the effect the reforms may   Asia-Pacific Diplomacy Lawrence T. Woods,2011-11-01 The emergence of Asia Pacific regionalism as witnessed by the increasing influence of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation forum and the annual ASEAN Post Ministerial Conference highlights one of the major trends in late twentieth century geopolitics and international relations Asia Pacific Diplomacy traces the evolution of the Pacific economic cooperation movement by examining the diplomatic contributions of three international nongovernmental organizations INGOs the scholarly Pacific Trade and Development Conference PAFTAD the business oriented Pacific Basin Economic Council PBEC and the multipartite academic business and government Pacific Economic Cooperation Council PECC Lawrence Woods also provides a historical perspective by assessing the work of the Institute of Pacific Relations forerunner of the INGOs This book makes an important contribution to the study of international political and economic institutions It argues that as the regional cooperation movement expands at the governmental level an understanding of the nongovernmental roots of that movement is required if the diplomatic contributions of the INGOs are to be retained
