Alternative Approaches in Macroeconomics Philip Arestis, 2018-02-07 This book honours Professor John McCombie's retirement by exploring a variety of themes theories and debates in non orthodox macroeconomics With contributions from leading scholars the book covers diverse ground in economic thought policy empirical work and modelling It demonstrates ongoing presumptions and asks probing questions of topical questions from the increase of income equality to the international variation of productivity investment This collection will appeal to academics and students with an interest in the history of macroeconomic thinking Index of Economic Articles in Journals and Collective Volumes American Economic Association, 2003 Spatial Economic Science Aura Reggiani, 2012-12-06 With the dawn of the twenty first century comes the awareness that current rapid political economic social and technological transformations will affect our of living by producing new forms of information communications common way market work style and leisure In this context human behaviour will certainly change its fixed parameters It is likely that the relationships between internal structures and external influences between individual components and collective behaviour as well as between multi scale networks and interrelated dynamics will show spatio temporal patterns which will be difficult to predict by means of our usual tools As a consequence academic research is increasingly being required to play an active role in addressing new ways of understanding and forecasting the sets of interacting structures ranging from the technical to the organizational and from the social to the economic and political levels while at the same time incorporating concerns about the new economy environment society information and technology It is now evident that social science especially spatial and economic science needs innovative paths together with continuous cross fertilization among the many disciplines involved In order to investigate these intriguing perspectives we seem to have embarked on an era of methodological reflections rather than developing strong theoretical foundations This volume aims to provide an overview of these new insights and frontiers for theoretical methodological studies and research applications in the space economy Index of Economic Articles in Journals and Collective Volumes , 2003 Enacting Regional Dynamics and Entrepreneurship Bengt Johannisson, Åsa Lindholm Dahlstrand, 2013-09-13 In present digital times the focus is on globalization and the dynamics and complexities that it creates However in spite of being dominated by technology the world remains populated by human beings practising a localized everyday life This contrast should challenge every researcher who is concerned with business and societal development and how that is contingent upon the institutional and cultural national context In this book Swedish researchers reflect upon entrepreneurship as a possible mediator between local and global economic and social concerns Using as a point of departure the tensions between a functional footloose rationale and a territorial rationale tied to place the authors provide different aspects on regional development in a globalised world A shared concern is the importance of recognizing the many appearances of entrepreneurship that brings it beyond being an innovative force in the market The book thus presents different strategies and tactics for pursuing localized economic development and it also critically reviews adopted public support programmes and measures of the local business climate The conclusive message is that only by bridging the functional and territorial views will it be possible to sustain and possibly enhance economic and social life in local places as well as in our shared world This book was originally published as a special issue of European Planning Studies Drivers of Innovation, Entrepreneurship and Regional Dynamics Karima Kourtiti, Peter Nijkamp, Roger R. Stough, 2011-06-10 The need for informed and effective insights into key concepts and models of regional development and growth from an endogenous growth perspective has risen over the past decade These recent advances address in particular local and regional assets and characteristics comprising inter alia creativity knowledge innovation forces and entrepreneurship Access to and exploitation of these modern forms of human and social capital are of paramount importance for the dynamic regional economic environment in a city or region This volume offers an overview and critical treatment of the spatial economic roots opportunities and impacts of new growth strategies mainly from an evidence based perspective In the various contributions to this volume relevant findings and strategic options are interpreted and discussed from both an analytical and a policy perspective to help cultivate creativity human capital development and innovation as well as entrepreneurial activity with a view to exploit the drivers of economic development in order to strengthen the competitive edge of cities and regions

Dynamic Capabilities Between Firm Organisation and Local Systems of Production Riccardo Leoncini, Sandro Montresor, 2007-12-21 This book offers an analysis of how firms manage to reconfigure their pool of resources to deal with the turbulent environments in which they are embedded thus tackling the issue of how dynamic capabilities must be defined and conceptualized Asia-Pacific Transitions D. Andersson, J. Poon, 2001-01-19 Modern focus on the Asia Pacific has centred on its rapid transformation in the span of a mere two decades Since the 1997 economic crisis however attention has now turned to transition issues as the region faces the challenge of global structural transformation that has and will affect the direction of the region's long term development Drawing from a range of contributors from several disciplines this book seeks to capture some of the multifaceted dimensions of these transitions as the region adjusts to new global realities

The Impact of U.S.-Mexican Economic Integration on National and Subsector Competitiveness Ellen T. Fitzpatrick, 1999 Journal of Economic Literature, 2007 The Snowbelt Leo Granberg, 1998 Collection of articles presenting socio economic view of Barents Region Focuses on various problems in development of region and presents results of case studies and discussions of its challenges from global perspective Part one deals with historical evolution of region part two examines new role of environment part three focuses on economic transition process in Russia and final part discusses outcomes of regionalisation and future prospects Handbook of Computable General Equilibrium Modeling Peter B. Dixon, Dale Jorgenson, 2013-01-08 Top scholars synthesize and analyze scholarship on this widely used tool of policy analysis in 27 articles setting forth its accomplishments difficulties and means of implementation Though CGE modeling does not play a prominent role in top U S graduate schools it is employed universally in the development of economic policy This collection is particularly important because it presents a history of modeling applications and examines competing points of view Presents coherent summaries of CGE theories that inform major model types Covers the construction of CGE databases model solving and computer assisted interpretation of results Shows how CGE modeling has made a contribution to economic policy

Comparative Political Economy of East and South Asia R. Mascarenhas,1999-02-17 In this study of the Comparative Political Economy of East and South Asia the author adopts an interdisciplinary perspective on Third World development thus recognising the importance of the interrelationships between the economy and the society and emphasising the need to direct attention to political institutional and historical factors Productivity, Efficiency, and Economic Growth in the Asia-Pacific Region Jeong-Dong Lee,Almas Heshmati,2008-09-20 Productivity growth is a keyword for sustainable economic growth in a knowledge based society There has been significant methodological development in the literature on productivity and efficiency analysis e g SFA Stochastic Frontier Analysis and DEA Data Envelopment Analysis All these methodological developments should be matched with applications in order to provide practical implications for private and public decision makers This volume provides a collection of up to date and new applications of productivity and efficiency analysis In particular the case studies cover various economic issues in the Asia Pacific region The authors analyze the performance of manufacturing firms banks venture capital broadcasting firms as well as the issues of efficiency in the education sector regional development and defense industry These case studies will shed light on the potential contribution of productivity and efficiency analysis to the enhancement of economic performance The Geography of Competition John R. Miron,2010-03-16 This book provides a comprehensive up to date and expert synthesis of location theory What are the impacts of a firm s geographic location on the locations of customers suppliers and competitors in a market economy How when and why does this result in the clustering of firms in space When and how is society made better or worse off as a result This book uses dozens of locational models to address aspects of these three questions Classical location problems considered include Greenhut Manne Hitchcock Koopmans and Weber Launhardt The book reinterprets competitive location theory focusing on the linkages between Walrasian price equilibrium and the localization of firms It also demonstrates that competitive location theory offers diverse ideas about the nature of market equilibrium in geographic space and its implications for a broad range of public policies including free trade industrial policy regional development and investment in infrastructure With an extensive bibliography and fresh interdisciplinary approach the book will be an invaluable reference for academics and researchers with an interest in regional science economic geography and urban planning as well as policy advisors urban planners and consultants Reshaping Economic Geography in East Asia Yukon Huang,Alessandro Magnoli Bocchi,2008-10-15 This companion volume to the World Development Report 2009 comprises twenty papers authored by noted Asian scholars These studies highlight how throughout East Asia spatial considerations have influenced Government policies at the national regional and local levels Key themes include how countries have dealt with 1 agglomeration economies urbanization and regional disparities 2 improving connectivity with infrastructure investments and 3 eliminating barriers across and within countries to favor the movement of labor goods and services Achievements vary widely across countries while some succeeded in enhancing competitiveness and improving social outcomes others are experiencing increasing inequalities and failures to spur growth in disadvantaged areas The book highlights many examples of how the new economic geography is reshaping development objectives from initiatives to foster growth via enhanced agglomeration and improved local connectivity to the world economy to special decentralization programs that channel resources to lagging regions This volume will be of great interest to readers working in the areas of economic policy poverty reduction and urban rural development strategies and transport led infrastructure policy

Innovations and Traditions for Sustainable Development Walter Leal Filho, Eugene V. Krasnov, Dara V. Gaeva, 2021-10-16 This book highlights the vital necessity for combining sustainable development processes from different areas with applications in areas such as science education and production sectors These sectors have previously been separated by linguistic and technological barriers Breaking down these barriers will allow an interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary flow of information leading to greater efficiency and towards a more real resilient and sustainable economy development This book fills in the gap in respect of publications addressing aspects of innovation and sustainable development and focuses on a range of areas such as I Gradual transition to innovative development II Continuity of technology in education science and industry III Convergency directions interdisciplinary relations in scientific research IV Digital technologies for sustainable development V Global trends and regional aspects of innovation and traditions in environmental management VI International legal regulations and environmental and economic relations among business communities The publication fosters the global efforts towards taking better advantage of the many opportunities which innovation in specific areas may offer

Regional Worlds: Advancing the Geography of Regions Martin Jones, Anssi Paasi, 2017-10-02 A key concern in the debate and empirical research on the geography of regions is the evolution of the conceptualizations and practical uses of the idea of region This idea prioritises both the intellectual and the practical development of regional studies This book drives the discussion further It stresses the complex forms of agency advocacy involved in the production and reproduction of regional spaces and space of regionalism as well as the importance of geohistory and context The book moves beyond the territorial relational divide that has characterized debates on regions and regional borders since the 1990s The contributors answer key questions from different conceptual and concrete contextual angles and to motivate readers to reflect on the perpetual significance of regional concepts and how they are mobilized by various actors to maintain or transform the contested spatialities of societal power relations This book was based on a special issue of Regional Studies
