Regional Economic Development in the Balkan Region Teoman Duman, Erkan Ilgün, Merdžana Obralić, 2016-01-14
This edited volume brings together original scientific studies on current economic and developmental issues in the Balkan region and is composed of papers by 25 authors from seven different countries The Balkan region has gained significant interest in recent years due to its location and strategic position representing a doorway to Europe and the region's stability and progress have direct consequences on various European countries Because of this strategic position there is currently much debate regarding a potential partnership of the Balkan states with the European Union This book offers insights into the current economic and developmental status of the countries in this region offering a series of chapters that analyse the area from a variety of perspectives It begins with a discussion on the recent history of the region especially with reference to the former Yugoslavia and its break up after the turbulence experienced in 1990s Other sections are complementary to each other in that they offer comparisons of the Balkan states in their economic progress at the micro and macro levels Topics such as European integration policies and effects economic transition regional trade tax incentive policy regional capital markets regional development agencies and systems remittances and foreign aid contributions import export policies fiscal policies analysis of regional microfinance and the tourism sectors are explored in detail throughout the book Intellectual Property and Innovation Management in Small Firms Robert Blackburn, 2007 This text focuses on intellectual property management in small and medium sized enterprises from both a national and international perspective and considers the question in the context of innovation and knowledge management Chinese Regions in Change Hong Yu, 2015-02-20 This book offers extensive and quality research on and original insights into China's internal regional dynamics It provides a focused analysis of the internal dynamics and regional economic diversity of China covering the eastern central and western regions through case study data analysis and review of state initiated policy measures The book also identifies and analyses existing and potential challenges facing China's regions in their pursuit of sustainable development Different regions in China have attempted to achieve fast economic growth and move up the industrial value chain through industrial restructuring and upgrading inter regional industrial transfer urbanization or seeking central government s endorsement of new regional policies The book examines the difference and similarities among local government policies to boost regional industrial and economic growth and assesses their implications and effectiveness The author had conducted detailed studies in this field in order to bridge the existing research gap and the book will help to give rise to useful and illuminating discussion

Multiple Criteria Decision Analysis in Regional Planning Fumiko Seo,Masatoshi Sakawa,2012-12-06
This book is devoted to presenting theoretical fundamentals for the methods of multiple criteria decision making MCDM in the social sciences with particular intent to their applicability to real world decision making The main characteristics of the complex problems facing humans in the world today are multidimensional and have multiple objectives they are large scale and have noncommensurate and conflicting objectives such as economic environmental societal technical and aesthetic ones The authors intend to establish basic concepts for treating these complex problems and to present methodological discussions for MCDM with some applications to administrative or regional planning MCDM is composed of two phases analytical and judgmental In this book we intend to consolidate these two phases and to present integrated methodologies for manipulating them with particular interest in managerial decision making which has not yet been properly treated in spite of its urgent necessity Although a number of books in MCDM fields have already been published in recent years most of them have mainly treated one aspect of MCDM Our work specifically intends to treat the methodology in unified systems and to construct a conceptual structure with special regards to the intrinsic properties of MCDM and its economic meanings from the social scientific point of view
