Reincarnation A Mystics Path

Susan Howatch

Reincarnation A Mystics Path:

Reincarnation Robert Allan Stewart, 2003 Through past life recall Stewart shares with us the sheer excitement of a cavalry charge and the shock of sudden death He relates his astounding first successes with mystic techniques and where those techniques led him He first sets the stage for these remarkable experiences by outlining a history of reincarnation belief and the scientific evidence for reincarnation He explains how reincarnation is part of a world heritage of belief that goes back to our prehistoric beginnings and has been a part of every human society we know about including our own He then leads us through his own personal quest how he learned certain mystic techniques and how we too can experiment with them safely The climax is his relation of his past life memories for the memories we recall most easily are the most intense experiences of our previous lives Within those memories are often facts that can be taken to libraries museums and archives where Stewart has found public records that eerily verify specific facts including names and dates

The Chela and the Path El Morya, 1976-01 The Chela and the Path contains personal instruction from El Morya for all spiritual seekers and chelas students of a spiritual teacher With the incomparable skill of a Zen master El Morya teaches us to become who we are to see beneath the surface of daily life He teaches of the divine light above and the divine light below and the many layers of awareness that surround the soul This book is foundational for those who would not only know their true potential but fulfill it

Mystical Paths Susan Howatch, 2010-12-08 No writing today can equal Susan Howatch's ability to write compelling novels that combine theology and psychology in a complex fast moving plot offering beautifully delineated characters and the suspense of a mystery thriller The denouement will leave readers breathless Publishers Weekly Nicholas Darrow is a strong willed and independent minded man full of the energy and assurance of his age and his moment in time he is twenty five in 1968 A magnet for attention and attraction Nicholas is already beset by a troubled past and expert at ignoring the grip it has on his life But as he follows his father into the Anglican priesthood his fascination with his own psychic powers results near tragedy It will only be by facing the truth about his relationship with his father that Nicholas can find his way out of the seemingly impenetrable darkness that engulfs him Told with all the drama intelligence and emotional depth we have come to expect from Susan Howatch Mystical Paths is a breathtaking novel about the powerful often painful but finally indestructible ties between parent and child And like its four highly praised predecessors in the Church of England series it is a novel that celebrates the redeeming power of self knowledge and faith Intelligent compelling and fascinating The Cleveland Plain Dealer

Reincarnation and the Law of Karma William Walker Atkinson, 1908 By Reincarnation we mean the repeated incarnation or embodiment in flesh of the soul or immaterial part of man s nature The term Metempsychosis is frequently employed in the same sense the definition of the latter term being The passage of the soul as an immortal essence at the death of the body into another living body The term Transmigration of Souls is sometimes employed the term being used in the sense of passing from one body into another But the term Transmigration is often used in connection with the belief of certain undeveloped races who held that the soul of men sometimes passed into the bodies of the lower animals as a punishment for their sins committed during the human life But this belief is held in disrepute by the adherents of Reincarnation or Metempsychosis and has no connection with their philosophy or beliefs the ideas having sprung from an entirely different source and having nothing in common There are many forms of belief many degrees of doctrine regarding Reincarnation as we shall see as we proceed but there is a fundamental and basic principle underlying all of the various shades of opinion and divisions of the schools This fundamental belief may be expressed as the doctrine that there is in man an immaterial Something called the soul spirit inner self or many other names which does not perish at the death or disintegration of the body but which persists as an entity and after a shorter or longer interval of rest reincarnates or is re born into a new body that of an unborn infant from whence it proceeds to live a new life in the body more or less unconscious of its past existences but containing within itself the essence or results of its past lives which experiences go to make up its new character or personality It is usually held that the rebirth is governed by the law of attraction under one name or another and which law operates in accordance with strict justice in the direction of attracting the reincarnating soul to a body and conditions in accordance with the tendencies of the past life the parents also attracting to them a soul bound to them by some ties in the past the law being universal uniform and equitable to all concerned in the matter This is a general statement of the doctrine as it is generally held by the most intelligent of its adherents
