Essays on James Clarence Mangan S. Sturgeon, 2015-12-31 This is the first collection of essays to focus on the extraordinary literary achievement of James Clarence Mangan 1803 1849 increasingly recognized as one of the most important Irish writers of the nineteenth century It features contributions by acclaimed contemporary writers including Paul Muldoon and Ciaran Carson

Busted in New York and Other Essays Darryl Pinckney, 2019-11-12 A collection of essays that blend the personal and the social from the celebrated literary critic and novelist In these twenty five essays Darryl Pinckney has given us a view of our recent racial history that blends the social and the personal and wonders how we arrived at our current moment Pinckney reminds us that white supremacy isn't back it never went away It is this impulse to see historically that is at the core of Busted in New York and Other Essays which traces the lineage of black intellectual history from Booker T Washington through the Harlem Renaissance to the Black Panther Party and the turbulent sixties to today's Afro pessimists and celebrated and neglected thinkers in between These are capacious essays whose topics range from the grassroots of protest in Ferguson Missouri to the eighteenth century Guadeloupean composer Joseph Bologne from an unsparing portrait of Louis Farrakhan to the enduring legacy of James Baldwin the unexpected story of black people experiencing Russia Barry Jenkins's Moonlight and the painter Kara Walker The essays themselves are a kind of record many of them written in real time as Pinckney witnesses the Million Man March feels and experiences the highs and lows of Obama's first presidential campaign explores the literary black diaspora and reflects on the surprising and severe lesson he learned firsthand about the changing urban fabric of New York As Zadie Smith writes in her introduction to the book How lucky we are to have Darryl Pinckney who without rancor without insult has all these years been taking down our various songs examining them with love and care and bringing them back from the past like a Sankofa bird for our present examination These days Sankofas like Darryl are rare Treasure him

Hermann Hesse's Fictions of the Self Eugene L. Stelzig, 2014-07-14 This masterful synthesis of criticism and biography surveys all of Hermann Hesse's major works and many of his minor ones in relation to the intricate psychological design of his entire life history Eugene Stelzig examines what it means to be an autobiographical writer by considering Hesse's fictions of the self as an exemplary instance of the relationship between life and art and between biography and autobiography In a graceful and inviting style he frees this major confessional writer from the confines of German culture and the status of cult figure of the 1960s and situates him in the tradition of world literature and in a variety of literary psychological philosophical and religious contexts Three introductory chapters on autobiography and Hesse set the stage for a chronological study Then follows a penetrating analysis of the balance between biographical fact and confessional fantasy in Hesse's long career from the failed autobiography of his first literary success Beneath the Wheel through the protracted midlife crisis of the grotesque Steppenwolf period to the visionary autobiography of his magisterial fictional finale The Glass Bead Game Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Life Writing and Space Eveline Kilian,Hope Wolf,2017-05-15 How does our ability desire or failure to locate ourselves within space and with respect to certain places effect the construction and narration of our identities Approaching recordings and interpretations of selves memories and experiences through the lens of theories of space and place this book brings the recent spatial turn in the Humanities to bear upon the work of life writing It shows how concepts of subjectivity draw on spatial ideas and metaphors and how the grounding and uprooting of the self is understood in terms of place The different chapters investigate ways in which selves are reimagined through relocation and the traversing of spaces and texts Many are concerned with the politics of space how racial social and sexual topographies are navigated in life writing Some examine how focusing on space rather than time impacts upon auto biographical form The book blends sustained theoretical reflections with textual analyses and also includes experimental contributions that explore independencies between spaces and selves by combining criticism with autobiography Together they testify that life writing can hardly be thought of without its connection to space

"Lincoln's Humor" and Other Essays Benjamin P. Thomas, 2024-04-22 This volume gathers the best previously unpublished and uncollected writings on Abraham Lincoln and Lincoln scholarship by one of his great biographers Benjamin P. Thomas A skilled historian and a masterful storyteller himself Thomas was widely regarded as the greatest Lincoln historian of his generation With these essays he combines historical depth with narrative grace in delineating Lincoln's qualities as a humorist lawyer and politician From colorful tall tales to clever barbs aimed at political opponents Lincoln clothed a shrewd wit in a homespun backwoods vernacular He used humor to defuse tension illuminate a point put others at ease and sometimes for sheer fun From an early reliance on broad humor and ridicule in speeches and on the stump Lincoln's style shifted in 1854 to a more serious vein in which humor came primarily to elucidate an argument If I did not laugh occasionally I should die he is said to have told his cabinet and you need this medicine as much as I do Thomas brings his deep knowledge of Lincoln to essays on the great man's tumultuous career in Congress his work as a lawyer his experiences in the Courts and his opinions of the South A gracious survey of Lincoln's early biographers particularly Ida Tarbell stands alongside an appreciation of Harry Edward Pratt a key figure in the early days of the Abraham Lincoln Association Thomas also assesses Lincoln's use of language and the ongoing significance of the Gettysburg Address This diverse collection is enhanced by an introduction by Michael Burlingame himself a leading biographer of Lincoln Burlingame provides a balanced portrait of Thomas and his circuitous path toward writing history Marcel Proust William C. Carter, 2013-04-16 Reissued with a new preface to commemorate the first publication of A la recherche du temps perdu one hundred years ago Marcel Proust portrays in abundant detail the extraordinary life and times of one of the greatest literary voices of the twentieth century An impeccably researched and well paced narrative that brings vividly and credibly to life not only the writer himself but also the changing world he knew Roger Pearson New York Times Book Review William C Carter is Proust s definitive biographer Harold Bloom Named a Notable Book of 2000 by the New York Times Book Review Listener and BBC Television Review ,1984-10 Other I Robert Lecker, 1988 This is the first full length study of the short stories and novels by Clark Blaise It follows his development as a deeply self conscious writer who becomes involved in the dualities of the world around him dualities that are reflected in the structure of his fiction and in the narrative strategies he employs to convey an image of himself Lecker frames his discussion with an opening chapter that provides a detailed discussion of Blaise s aesthetic stance Subsequent chapters focus on Blaise s first two short story collections and on readings of Blaise s two novels The study includes an original chronology by Clark Blaise which provides a creative rendering of the important dates and turning points in his life and literary career The Encyclopedia Americana: Egypt-falsetto ,2000 Glimpses into My Own Black Box George W. Stocking, Jr., 2010-11-18 George W Stocking Jr has spent a professional lifetime exploring the history of anthropology and his findings have shaped anthropologists understanding of their field for two generations Through his meticulous research Stocking has shown how such forces as politics race institutional affiliations and personal relationships have influenced the discipline from its beginnings In this autobiography he turns his attention to a subject closer to home but no less challenging Looking into his own black box he dissects his upbringing his politics even his motivations in writing about himself The result is a book systematically at times brutally self questioning An interesting question Stocking says is one that arouses just the right amount of anxiety But that very anxiety may be the ultimate source of Stocking s remarkable intellectual energy and output In the first two sections of the book he traces the intersecting vectors of his professional and personal lives The book concludes with a coda Octogenarian Afterthoughts that offers glimpses of his life after retirement when advancing age cancer and depression changed the tenor of his reflections about both his life and his work This book is the twelfth and final volume of the influential History of Anthropology series

Nearing Eighty Carolyn Schwartz, 2016-01-30 A simple autobiography that records so far a few of the authors joys disappointments insecurities triumphs and turning points that collectively became the nuts and bolts of her life and which she wrote with the sole intent that it would inform intrigue and perhaps inspire some of her future descendants to become writers themselves An old fashioned reminiscence and an affectionate evocation of the authors ongoing satisfaction with her life
