during the Roman period by a leading scholar Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert is a two volume set collecting H l ne Cuvigny's most important articles on Egypt's Eastern Desert during the Roman period The excavations she directed uncovered a wealth of material including tens of thousands of texts written on pottery fragments ostraca Some are administrative texts but many more are correspondence both official and private written by and to the people mostly but not all men who lived and worked in these remote and harsh environments supported by an elaborate network of defense administration and supply that tied the entire region together The contents of Rome in Egypt's Eastern Desert have all been published earlier in peer reviewed venues but most appear here for the first time in English All of the contributions have been checked or translated by the editor and brought up to date with respect to bibliography and some have been significantly rewritten by the author in order to take account of the enormous amount of new material discovered since the original publications A full index makes this body of work far more accessible than it was before This book assembles into one collection thirty years of detailed study of this material conjuring in vivid detail the lived experience of those who inhabited these forts often through their own expressive language and the realia of desert geography military life sex religion quarry operations and imperial administration in the Roman world
