To Judge and To Justify Steve Fuller,2024-10-28 This book argues that judging and justifying are the two skills that specifically require academic training In the current times where the value of a university degree is increasingly questioned it s important to emphasize the significance of these skills This volume addresses that universities are not necessarily stressing these skills preferring instead to focus on the delivery of content and the provision of credentials Its main focus is on articulating the positive case for the university s focus on judging and explaining as its core transferable skills It involves examining the historical and philosophical case for this claim canvassing arguments made and the example set by Plato Francis Bacon Immanuel Kant William Whewell Ludwig Wittgenstein Paul Feyerabend Richard Rorty John Rawls and Robert Nozick as well as considering how they might be realized in today s world This book extends the arguments in Fuller s recent book Back to the University s Future The Second Coming of Humboldt Springer 2023 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977 R.R.
