

Short Prayer to Release Someone in Jail

“Lord of Grace, I pray that You may free the convict from the things that have enslaved their mind and spirit.

Holy Spirit, intercede right now that Your beloved child may be released. Let them walk out of the prison walls and never enter them again.

In the mighty Name of Jesus, I pray, Amen.”

Release To Those In Prison:

Prison Admissions and Releases, 1981 Prison Admissions and Releases, 1981 Lawrence A. Greenfeld, Stephanie Minor-Harper, 1984 National Corrections Reporting Program, 1988, 1992 National Corrections Reporting Program, 1989 Release to Those in Prison William Klassen, 1977 House of Commons - Justice Committee: Older Prisoners - HC 89 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Justice Committee, 2013-09-12 The number of older prisoners is now very high and is likely to remain so partly caused by the increase in convictions for historic sexual offences The growth of the older prison population and the severity of the needs of that population warrant a national strategy in order to provide for them effectively Older and disabled prisoners should no longer be held in institutions which cannot meet their basic needs nor should they be released back into the community without adequate support There are some excellent prison officers and charity workers who are providing essential social care but an ad hoc system means that too often older prisoners have to rely on the goodwill of officers and their fellow inmates to fulfill the most basic of care needs The responsibility to adapt the prison environment so that it suits less able prisoners lies with a prison's senior management team and the National Offender Management Service NOMS NOMS should conduct a comprehensive analysis of prisons physical compliance with disability discrimination and age equality laws The Committee does not believe there is a need for the expansion of segregated older prisoner units or wings However NOMS should ensure all prisons have an older prisoner policy that provides age and ability specific regimes Furthermore older prisoners who are released after a long period of incarceration must have a resettlement and care plan At present older prisoners are frequently released to no fixed abode undermining all work that has been made towards resettlement Prisoners, 1938, 1939 Recidivism of Prisoners Released in 1983 Allen J. Report of Proceedings of the ... Annual Convention of the American Federation of Labor American Federation of Labor. Convention,1919 The English Prison Health System After a Decade of Austerity, 2010-2020 Nasrul Ismail,2022-11-21 Austerity has reconfigured and scaled back the governance and delivery of public services and negatively affected society s most vulnerable groups This book opens up the closed world of English prisons to examine its impact on prison health governance and healthcare delivery It argues that austerity has been a decade long large scale political experiment that has caused debt to balloon eroded the prison health system and perpetuated a cycle of punishment resulting in sicker prisoners In short austerity has violated prisoners human rights Drawing on interviews and data from existing longitudinal and economic analyses the book demonstrates how austerity has resulted in high rates of recidivism diminished what remains of the welfare state and increased inequality and punitiveness Despite a decade of failure there is a marked political reluctance to dispense with austerity and the governmental juggernaut continues to produce the same result As the spectre of recession increases caused in part by Brexit and COVID 19 these failures are ever more perilous This book blends the interdisciplinary perspectives of criminology public health sociology law social policy politics and economics to enable greater understanding of the impact of austerity on health governance prison healthcare the prison workforce and prisoners health and safety It challenges current policy practice and thinking and is a must read for anyone who wants to reflect on how the political economic structure can affect the governance and delivery of healthcare services in marginalised settings beyond prisons and indeed beyond England
