Retreat From Apartheid New Zealands Sporting Contacts With South Africa:

Retreat from Apartheid Richard Thompson, 1975 Sport and the New Zealanders Greg Ryan, Geoff

Watson, 2018-08-09 A history of New Zealanders and the sports that we have made our own from the Maori world to today's professional athletes in the pubs during the furious session between 5pm and closing time an hour later the friend of a relative of a horse trainer is a veritable patriarch No matador in Madrid no tenor in Turin could be sure of such flattering attention As Brittenden suggested sport has played a central part in the social and cultural history of Aotearoa New Zealand throughout its history This book tells the story of sport in New Zealand for the first time from the Maori world to today's professional athletes Through rugby and netball bodybuilding and surf lifesaving the book introduces readers to the history of the codes the organisations and the players It takes us into the stands and on to the sidelines to examine the meaning of sport to its participants its followers and to the communities to which they belonged Why did rugby become much more important than soccer in New Zealand What role have Maori played in our sporting life Do we really punch above our weight in international sport Does sport still define our national identity Viewing New Zealand sport as activity and as imagination Sport and the New Zealanders is a major history of a central strand of New Zealand life British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa Matthew P. Llewellyn, Toby C. Rider, 2024-11-25 The transnational anti apartheid sport boycott of South Africa represented the most prominent extended and controversial anti racism campaign in the history of sport Spearheaded by prominent British religious and anti colonial figures and exiled South Africans emboldened by communist and Global South support and legitimised by supranational political bodies such as the United Nations the Organisation of African Unity and the Commonwealth the sport boycott helped propel anti apartheid out of relative obscurity and struck at the very heart of a cultural practice that served an explicitly ideological function in Afrikaner society Britain held a dichotomous even paradoxical role as both prosecutor and defender of white South Africa This book utilises sport as a critical lens for understanding the dynamics and dichotomies of British attitudes towards the apartheid regime Debates over whether to continue or to cut sporting links with apartheid South Africa proved bitterly divisive The considerable weight the subject carried and the degree to which it saturated British political and social discourse for four decades speaks to its impact and importance British Sporting Relations with Apartheid South Africa represents the first archival based historical examination of Britain's sporting relations with South Africa throughout the apartheid era 1948 1994 Situating the analysis within the shifting multiracial and multicultural landscapes of postcolonial Britain and within global political cultural sporting and ideological debates the authors trace the origins and evolution of the transnational sport boycott and examine what inspired Britons to energise anti apartheid sport campaigns and in contrast what drove many others to vehemently oppose them at every turn Sport in Aotearoa New Zealand Damion Sturm, Roslyn Kerr, 2021-12-28 This fascinating book investigates the sporting traditions successes systems terrains and contemporary issues that underpin sport in New Zealand also known by its M ori name of Aotearoa The book unpacks some of the cliches around the place prominence and impact of sport and recreation in Aotearoa New Zealand in order to better understand the country s sporting history cultures institutions and systems as well as the relationship between sport and different sections of society in the country Exploring traditional sports such as rugby and cricket indigenous M ori sport outdoor recreation and contemporary lifestyle and adventure sports such as marching and parkour the book examines the contested and conflicting societal geographical and managerial issues facing contemporary Aotearoa New Zealand sport Essential reading for anybody with a particular interest in sport in Aotearoa New Zealand this book is also illuminating reading for anybody working in the sociology of sport sport development sport management sport history or the wider history politics and culture of Aotearoa New Zealand or the South Pacific Sport in Australasian Society J A Mangan, John Nauright, 2013-01-11 As Sydney prepares to host the 2000 Olympic games this study assesses the cultural impact of sport on the Australasian countries Here as in other parts of the world sport is taken as an assertion of both individual and group identity a demonstration of modernity and a source of personal local and regional esteem This collection explores the political social and aesthetic influence of modern sport attitudes to the body and the evolution of specific Australasian visions of sport Feminist Sport Studies Pirkko Markula, 2005-08-18 Uses personal narratives to highlight the development of feminist sport studies Sports Ethics in America Donald G. Jones, 1992-04-30 A significant topic in American society sports ethics has also been the subject of an increasing number of scholarly studies during the past two decades Moreover a growing number of courses on sports are being offered at colleges and universities In Sports Ethics in America Donald G Jones provides a valuable reference tool for teaching and research in a variety of sports related disciplines The book is a comprehensive multidisciplinary bibliography with some 2 800 entries Entries include both scholarly works and works written by journalists during the two decades from 1970 to 1990 The volume is divided into five major sections 1 General Works and Philosophy 2 The Team Players and Coaches 3 The Game Competition and Contestants 4 Sport and Society and 5 Reference Works Each entry includes a brief listing of the subjects covered in the work The volume also includes a full subject index and an author index Rethinking the Rise and Fall of Apartheid Adrian Guelke, 2017-03-16 Providing a much needed antidote to recent revisionist attempts to rehabilitate apartheid this major new text by a leading authority offers a considered and substantive reassessment of the nature endurance and significance of apartheid in South Africa as well as the reasons for its dramatic collapse Paying particular attention to the international dimension as well as the domestic the author assesses the impact of anti apartheid protest of changing attitudes of Western governments to the apartheid regime and the evolution of South African government policies to the outside world Sport and Apartheid South Africa Michelle M. Sikes, Toby C. Rider, Matthew P. Llewellyn, 2021-11-29 As athletes of today grapple with how to use their public platforms to fight for activist causes Sport and Apartheid South Africa Histories of Politics Power and Protest examines a set of longer histories of sport race and activism The book seeks to uncover and understand new historical aspects of apartheid and sport challenge myths and rethink dominant narratives It examines the subject of racially segregated sport in South Africa from national and transnational perspectives asking questions about how athletes and administrators transnational anti apartheid groups and activists and politicians around the world interpreted and internalized racial segregation in South Africa By connecting the local to the global this book illuminates the ways in which apartheid sport animated national and international debates ranging from racism and human rights to Cold War politics and post colonialism Sport and Apartheid South Africa is a significant new contribution to the study of race and politics in sport and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of History Politics International Relations Sociology and Political Geography The chapters in this book were originally published in The International Journal of the History of Sport Sport, Culture and Advertising Steven J. Jackson, David L. Andrews, 2004-11-10 Sport has a close relationship with advertising both where advertisers sponsor sports as well as where sport and fitness lends its perceived positive imagery to a wide range of consumer goods Sport Culture Advertising explores the themes of
