Eyes Behind the Lines: US Army Long-Range Reconnaissance and Surveillance Units James F. Gebhardt, 2005 Eyes Behind the Lines US Army Long Range Reconnaissance and Surveillance Units is the 10th study in the Combat Studies Institute CSI Global War on Terrorism GWOT Occasional Paper series This work is an outgrowth of concerns identified by the authors of On Point The United States Army in Operation IRAQI FREEDOM Specifically these authors called into question the use of long range surveillance LRS assets by commanders during that campaign and suggested an assessment ought to be made about their continuing utility and means of employment This revision contains some important additional information the author received after this book was originally published Major Retired James Gebhardt of CSI researched and wrote this Occasional Paper with that end in view In this study Gebhardt surveys the US Army's historical experience with LRRP and LRS units from the 1960s Cold War and Vietnam War through their resurgence in the 1980s and use in Operations JUST CAUSE and DESERT STORM to the advent of the GWOT The paper's analytical framework examines each era of LRS units in terms of doctrine organization training materiel leadership and personnel In doing so the author makes a strong case for continuing the LRS capability in the Army's force structure The variety of environments and enemies likely to be faced by the military in the GWOT continues to demand the unique human intelligence abilities of trained and organized LRS units As the Army leads the Armed Forces of the United States in combating terrorists where they live the lessons found in this survey remain timely and relevant      Infantry Division Long Range Reconnaissance Patrol John W. Military Review ,1987      Marine Rifle Company/platoon United States. Marine Corps,1965      Reflections Revisited Reuben H. Siverling,2017-01-09 As described by Reverend J Lowell Harrup pastor of Northland Cathedral Kansas City Missouri This book focuses on army rangers in particular the Fourth Infantry Divisions LRRPs or the rangers of the Seventy Fifth Regiment the official as well as the spiritual successor to the fabled Merrills Marauders the long range deep penetration units of World War II Their stories need to be told not for individual aggrandizement though they certainly earned that but so their history will be more than a political polemic The Vietnam conflict was terrible but our troops carried on the tradition of our military from the beginning of this nation I have come to know many of them including a number of highly decorated heroes of that conflict Among those I put in that category is Reuben Siverling a close friend and Christian brother whose story is in this book These stories are not enhanced they need no enhancement They are in fact the attempt to reduce in words the experiences that were lived in units of time distorted by the surreality of war extreme environments separation from families and constant death and dying all around The complete story of each cannot be told books are not big enough But these are told so that history will stand unrevised     Department of the Army Pamphlet ,1965     FLIGHT, CAMERA, ACTION! The History of U.S. Naval Aviation Photography and Photo-Reconnaissance Douglas E. Campbell,2014-07-11 The first U S Navy aerial photographs were taken in 1913 in support of fleet exercises off Guantanamo Cuba Following WWI a Navy Photographic expedition went north making the first aerial mapping photos of the Alaskan territory WWII found Navy shuttermen in the Pacific theatre performing pre and post attack reconnaissance along with hitting the beach to record the war as it unfolded Shortly after Navy photographic units were in the Pacific to record early atomic bomb tests The Navy s aerial photo reconnaissance mission both at the front end with the weaponless aircrews and the output of thousands of images and photo interpretation continued to develop through the mid 20th century The last aerial photo plane in the Navy s inventory was retired after flying to the Smithsonian s Air and Space Museum Annex at Dulles International Airport in Fairfax County Virginia The 74 year odyssey of Navy and Marine Corps aerial reconnaissance photography was finished     Ranger Training and Ranger Operations United States.
