He roams and stalks through out the city wearing his perfect disguise as a helpless old man. He enlists Abdul and quickly expands his reach to the local college youth. For every pair of heads found he has two girls in store facing the same morbid and grotesque fate. Abdul the ex child soldier is a ticking time bomb. A chance encounter for the worse. While looking for a place to hang alongside route 22 he runs into the deadliest dirtiest and nastiest serial killers the East Coast has ever known. In the same city an apparently innocent girl. Her secretly promiscuous college life spins out of control and looking for strangers in dark alleys and in strange homes becomes an insatiable drive. She begins to have encounters with older men in strange filthy bar settings while dating multiple students on campus. It is a rush that had been brewing in her from a tender age. It is an unbelievable rush. Homicide Detective Hollenbeck's only hope is to understand the method to the killer's depravity. It's also a great hiding place for Riley and her Swiftriver friends from so-called enemies back in the United States, but for how long? Adjusting to a new culture is difficult. Every chore is tiring, school is miles away and there's always the threat of a lurking lion that can ruin everything. But after spending time with the children and Christian women in her friend Sunday's remote village, Riley finds herself growing stronger and praying for God to use her to spread the good news Her prayers are answered in exciting and startling ways when she meets an orphaned girl seeking answers at a children s home but also when an error in judgment causes her to stumble into a surprise meeting with the enemy
