Lost Kingdoms of the Maya Gene S. Stuart, George E. Stuart, 1993 Includes index LOST KINGDOMS OF CENTRAL AMERICA Norah Romney, 2021-02-12 Thousands of years ago people settled in the part of the world called Mesoamerica This region consists of southern Mexico and most of Central America as it stretches between what is now called the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Ocean Although many different countries now exist within this space it was the original home to just one civilisation the Olmec As time advanced other well known groups became dominant in the area These were primarily the Aztecs and the Mayan All these early civilizations that existed from approximately 1200 BCE to 900 CE were steeped with culture tradition commerce and conflict They also offer many mysteries and enigmas to modern understanding These are the things that make people wonder about how the civilisations arose gained such power and why they disappeared Travel back in time to the first days to discover the questions that still exist in the minds of archaeologists historians and others who strive to understand the ancient mysteries of Mesoamerica Mayans, Aztecs & Incas Thematic Unit Linda J. Larsen, 1996-04 This unit designed for use with intermediate and junior high school students centers on the Mayan Aztec and Incan civilizations in Central and South America and contains literature selections poetry writing ideas curriculum connections to other subjects group projects and more The literary works included are The corn grows ripe by Dorothy Rhoads Aztecs the fall of the Aztec capital by Richard Platt Secret of the Andes Ann Nolan Clark Kingdom of Ten Thousand Things Gary Geddes, 2012-02-07 From war torn Afghanistan through the snow capped Himalayas and across the burning sands of the Taklamakan desert to a rapidly modernizing China and on to the Central American jungles it seems an impossible journey but one that Gary Geddes eagerly undertook in order to retrace the voyage of the legendary 5th century Buddhist monk Huishen Geddes was long fascinated with stories of Huishen s life and travels this Afghan holy man fled Kabul for China and may have crossed the Pacific to North America 1 000 years before Columbus The length and breadth of this expedition and its difficulty would have been amazing enough on its own but Geddes s trip takes on an added dimension and poignancy due to its timing he reaches Afghanistan one month before September 11 2001 and arrives in China as the tragic events unfold Along the way Geddes encounters Afghan refugees Pakistani dissidents Tibetan monks Buddhist scholars a KFC outlet in Luoyang mysterious cairns in Haida Gwaii and ghostly remains in Mexico As the Silk Road morphs into superhighways ancient sculptures turn into military targets Geddes glimpses in the collision of past and present history important clues for imagining a workable future A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson Adam Barkman, Antonio Sanna, 2024-02-02 The twelve essays in A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson offer various interpretations of Mel Gibson s work treating this prolific but controversial figure not only as a filmmaker but as a historian religious thinker and social philosopher From The Man Without a Face and Braveheart to The Passion of the Christ Apocalypto and Hacksaw Ridge this interdisciplinary collection mines Gibson s life and oeuvre for insight into existential problems Aristotelian virtues the politics

Agency in Ancient Writing Joshua

Englehardt, 2012-12-15 Individual agents are frequently evident in early writing and notational systems yet these systems have rarely been subjected to the concept of agency as it is traceable in archeology Agency in Ancient Writing addresses this oversight allowing archeologists to identify and discuss real observable actors and actions in the archaeological record Embracing myriad ways in which agency can be interpreted ancient writing systems from Mesoamerica Mesopotamia Egypt Crete China and Greece are examined from a textual perspective as both archaeological objects and nascent historical documents This allows for distinction among intentions consequences meanings and motivations increasing understanding and aiding interpretation of the subjectivity of social actors Chapters focusing on acts of writing and public recitation overlap with those addressing the materiality of texts interweaving archaeology epigraphy and the study of visual symbol systems Agency in Ancient Writing leads to a more thorough and meaningful discussion of agency as an archaeological concept and will be of interest to anyone interested in ancient texts including archaeologists historians linguists epigraphers and art historians as well as scholars studying agency and structuration theory volume is the second in a series of catalogues that will treat objects in the Bliss Pre Columbian Collection The majority of the Olmec objects in the collection are made of jade the most precious material for the peoples of ancient Mesoamerica from early times through the sixteenth century Various items such as masks statuettes jewelry and replicas of weapons and tools were used for ceremonial purposes and served as offerings Karl Taube brings his expertise on the lifeways and beliefs of ancient Mesoamerican peoples to his study of the Olmec objects in the Bliss collection His understanding of jade covers a broad range of knowledge from chemical compositions to geological sources to craft technology to the symbolic power of the green stone Throughout the book the author emphasizes the role of jade as a powerful symbol of water fertility and particularly of the maize plant which was the fundamental source of life and sustenance for the Olmec The shiny green of the stone was analogous to the green growth of maize This fundamental concept was elaborated in specific religious beliefs many of which were continued and elaborated by later Mesoamerican peoples such as the Maya Karl Taube employs his substantial knowledge of Pre Columbian cultures to explore and explicate Olmec symbolism in this catalogue
