From Carnac to Callanish Aubrey Burl,Dr Aubrey Burl,1993-01-01 This book discusses the lines of standing stones that until now have been the neglected wonders of prehistoric Europe rows that were foci of rituals in Britain Ireland and Brittany for over two thousand years Places such as Carnac in Brittany and Callanish in the Hebrides are visited by many visitors each year but before now there has been no book that seriously explains the history significance and background to these impressive sites Aubrey Burl shows that the settings vary from pairs of isolated stones in the far south west of Ireland to networks of long lines in Scotland Dartmoor and Brittany and describes the types in a sequence of architectural chapters that stress the increasing social and commercial connections between regions hundred of miles apart He uses information from a wide variety of sources excavation reports megalithic art astronomical analyses and legends to provide explanations of why the rows were erected when and what they may have been used for Early Tenth Century Java from the Inscriptions

Antoinette M. Barrett Jones,2022-07-04 This book relates in particular to the Javanese inscriptions of the period A D 901 929 a time of special interest because of the transfer of royal government from Central to East Java With the aid of inscriptions from this period as well as before and after it is possible to draw tentative conclusions which seek the explanation for this shift not so much in the area of political but of socio economic history This is the first study to pay attention to the role of socio economic factors in early Javanese history By examining the Old Javanese inscriptions in detail it is possible to produce valuable information on trade merchandise and merchants on the administrative system as it affected the change in the country side the sima and the wat k and on the many officials who were involved in the carrying out the king s orders as the affected the change in tax status of a foundation The book contains full lists of various categories of items from the inscriptions which provide a basis for the renewed study of Old Javanese epigraphic materials Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine ,1831 Blackwood's Magazine ,1831 The Pictish Child Jane Yolen,2002-04 Hardcover published in 1999
