buildings of Reims to the great temples of Speed at Monza and Spa Francorchamps three race venues from Formula 1's debut season in 1950. At Monza the lethal concrete banking has made way for a flat out road track with chicanes while Spa has cut the dangerous Burnenville corner and moved its pit buildings and startline. Reims stopped hosting races in the 1960s and the infamous Muzon corner now lies under a farmer's field. Other legendary circuits such as the Nürburgring's Green Hell are pictured before they became too dangerous to race on along with Pescara an F1 race through the Abruzzo Hills given special permission to run by the Italian government after the Mille Miglia tragedy of 1957. Compare the old Österreichring before it was cut down to size as the Red Bull Ring and see Silverstone complete with the hangar that gave rise to the Hangar Straight. In the United States there is the original Long Beach circuit Watkins Glen with its flamboyant race starter the Las Vegas grand prix that lasted only two years along with F1's ill fated Indianapolis adventure.
