Love And Its Meaning In The World Selected Lectures And Writings:

Love and Its Meaning in the World Rudolf Steiner, 1998 Although Steiner did not often speak or write about love explicitly love is at the very heart of his whole body of work and the foundation of his hopes for humankind and the Earth Steiner teaches that without love nothing is possible with love however we can do everything Love is always love of the not yet To love is to create it is to selflessly enter the current of time that flows toward us from the future Reality true knowledge of reality is impossible without love Only through love can we truly know as we are know can we encounter the world and its beings in a living way Without love knowledge becomes manipulation domination control the world becomes a space of dead things But when we know through love we enter into a pattern of dynamic potentially redemptive relations and the world becomes a living world of beings working for the good This collection gathers all of Rudolf Steiner's main lectures and writings related to love From earthly love to the nature and function of spiritual love these pieces are essential reading for anyone concerned with the future of humanity and the Earth Love and Its Meaning in the World is essential reading for anyone who'd like to gain a deeper understanding of our true mission as human beings and the purpose of evolution on Earth Chapters include The Division of the Sexes Lucifer and Christ The Mission of Reverence The Buddha's Teaching of Compassion and Love Faith Love and Hope Love without spiritual love nothing spiritual can arise in evolution When we practice love cultivate love creative forces pour into the world For human beings love is the most important fruit of experience in the sensory world Once we really understand the nature of love or compassion we will find that love is the way spirit expresses its truth in the world of the senses We may even say that in love the spiritual world awakens in the physical The more truly a soul inhabits the spiritual worlds the more it experiences lovelessness and lack of compassion as a denial of spirit itself Rudolf Steiner Homemaking and Personal Development Veronika Van Duin, 2013-09-10 What decides why things go well one day and badly another The events are the same the homemaker is the same yet on one occasion nothing works out for her and on another everything seems miraculously to fall into place Is there a special ingredient within us that we can tap into and cultivate to generate the longed for equilibrium Veronika van Duin began her career as a homemaker forty years ago Setting out with love enthusiasm and idealism she soon discovered that she had no idea of the magnitude of the task feeling herself to be very very wanting As she writes I felt guilty pressurised and inadequate much of the time I became increasingly conscious of my personal shortcomings I also felt very alone and sometimes lonely too It is from such humbling feelings that van Duin writes offering support and hope for fellow homemakers She reveals the discoveries that have provided her and many others she has taught in workshops and courses with the basic life tools for overcoming personal hindrances In this wonderfully uplifting book van Duin gives exercises for restoring balance maintaining equilibrium discovering understanding creating joy validating feeling maintaining vitality and drive developing insight finding freedom and much more American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing, 1999-03 van Schaik,

Revising Augustine's insight that when we love a place we dwell there in the heart Carlson also pointedly resists lines of thought that seek to transcend loss and its grief by loving all things within the realm of the eternal Through masterful readings of Heidegger Derrida Marion Nancy Emerson and Nietzsche Carlson shows that the fragility and sorrow of mortal existence in its transience do not in fact contradict love but instead empower love to create a world The Spectator, 1925
