Shakespeare, Love and Language David Schalkwyk, 2018-01-25 What is the nature of romantic love and erotic desire in Shakespeare's work? In this erudite and yet accessible study David Schalkwyk addresses this question by exploring the historical contexts, theory and philosophy of love. Close readings of Shakespeare's plays and poems are delivered through the lens of historical texts from Plato to Montaigne and modern writers including Jacques Lacan, Jean-Luc Marion, Ludwig Wittgenstein, Jacques Derrida, Alain Badiou and Stanley Cavell. Through these studies it is argued that Shakespeare has no single or overarching concept of love and that in Shakespeare's work love is not an emotion. Rather it is a form of action and disposition to be expressed and negotiated linguistically.

Cancer's Gifts with Love & Hope Robert V. Heffernan, 2013-05-17. Imagine being diagnosed with a disease as seemingly minor as melanoma that quickly progresses to stage four cancer, where the chances of survival drop to less than 10% in five years. And the options are only surgery, a handful of tough FDA-approved treatments, and a risky experimental therapy hundreds of miles from home. Usually, we think of cancer as an ugly, terrifying disease. But Bob Heffernan's amazing journey against all odds tells an uplifting story of perseverance, hope, and positivity that will inspire all cancer patients. He found that alongside fear and suffering, cancer provides numerous gifts that nourish the human soul. It's a story about how we can find goodness and beauty in even the most terrible challenge life throws at us. Enduring Love Kamrynn Bellary, 2023-01-15.
