Gilman-Opalsky,2020-12-01 Exploring the meanings and powers of love from ancient Greece to the present day Richard Gilman Opalsky argues that what is called love by the best thinkers who have approached the subject is in fact the beating heart of communism understood as a way of living not as a form of government Along the way he reveals with clarity that the capitalist way of assigning value to things is incapable of appreciating what humans value most Capitalism cannot value the experiences and relationships that make our lives worth living and can only destroy love by turning it into a commodity The Communism of Love follows the struggles of love in different contexts of race class gender and sexuality and shows how the aspiration for love is as close as we may get to a universal communist aspiration Love on Every Breath Lama Palden

Lacan on Love Bruce Fink,2015-12-09 Quintessentially fascinating love intrigues and perplexes us and drives much of what we do in life As wary as we may be of its illusions and disappointments many of us fall blindly into its traps and become ensnared time and again Deliriously mad excitement turns to disenchantment if not deadening repetition and we wonder how we shall ever break out of this vicious cycle Can psychoanalysis with ample assistance from philosophers poets novelists and songwriters give us a new perspective on the wellsprings and course of love Can it help us fathom how and why we are often looking for love in all the wrong places and are fundamentally confused about what love really is In this lively and wide ranging exploration of love throughout the ages Fink argues that it can Taking within his compass a vast array of traditions from Antiquity to the courtly love poets Christian love and Romanticism and providing an in depth examination of Freud and Lacan on love and libido Fink unpacks Lacan s paradoxical claim that love is giving what you don t have He shows how the emptiness or lack we feel within ourselves gets covered over or entwined in love and how it is possible and indeed vital to give something to another that we feel we ourselves don t have This first ever commentary on Lacan s Seminar VIII Transference provides readers with a clear and systematic introduction to Lacan s views on love It will be of great value to students and scholars of psychology and of the humanities generally and to analysts of all persuasions Joy, Guilt, Anger, Love Giovanni Frazzetto,2014-02-25 Neuroscientist Giovanni Frazzetto enters the restless realm of human emotion through the portals of physiology genetics history art and philosophy Anger guilt anxiety grief empathy joy and love are anatomized in turn enlivened with research on everything from the role of monoamine oxidase A in anger to the engagement of opioid receptors as we thrill to music And who knew that surrealist Salvador Dali created an art installation in the shape of a giant caterpillar to explore the process of sedation Nature Is science ever enough to explain why we feel the way we feel In this engaging account renowned neuroscientist Giovanni Frazzetto blends cutting edge scientific research with personal stories to reveal how our brains generate our emotions He demonstrates that while modern science has expanded our knowledge investigating art literature and philosophy is equally crucial to unraveling the brain's secrets What can a brain scan or our reaction to a Caravaggio painting reveal about the deep seat of guilt Can ancient remedies fight sadness more effectively than antidepressants What can writing poetry tell us about how joy works Structured in seven chapters encompassing common human emotions anger guilt anxiety grief empathy joy and love Joy Guilt Anger Love offers a way of thinking about science and art that will help us to more fully understand ourselves and how we feel Release the Pain, Embrace the Joy
