Remaking Ourselves, Enterprise and Society G.P. Rao, 2016-04-08 Decision makers interested in going beyond their own personal and professional interests and involving themselves in humanising their organization community and society should read Remaking Ourselves Enterprise and Society This book is about adherence to human values at an institutional level and its starting point is the belief that human beings have basic goodness which in turn is reflected in the desire to be of help to others and to do good Professor Rao introduces the Indian concept of Spandan Heartbeat Spandan is operationalized through a process of diagnosis discovery and development enabling organizations to achieve an optimal balance between what are defined as transactional transformational and terminal human values This leads to management and organizations developing sensitivity to the needs of others which they come to understand When such sensitivity becomes integral to its work ethic and culture an organization is able to temper its commitment to task with humanity and it becomes functionally humane Experience suggests not surprisingly that organizations that can achieve this optimal balance between results and relations achieve higher employee commitment and productivity and increased accommodative spirit that better equips them to deal with difficult times This exciting addition to Gower's Transformation and Innovation Series will enlighten business leaders governmental and non governmental policy makers management educators organization developers and researchers system we'd soon be sunk literally. We need to know where and how to navigate to keep ourselves safe as we pursue our individual life journeys. Wisdom for Living is an invaluable resource and guide for strengthening, developing, and accessing your own inherent wisdom nature. Each of us comes hard-wired with the equipment needed to navigate the rough waters of life. This equipment is our intuition or gut feelings, available to all. Yet like the GPS in a car or phone, we need to learn to access, use, and trust it. These short essays suggest how you can find wisdom in a variety of people, places, and things. You are encouraged to keep a wisdom journal (WJ) in which you respond to a motivating question at the end of each essay. In this way, you will create a personal handbook for guiding your life while using your inner guidance to deal with challenges.
