Love for Love, a Comedy in Five Acts. The Mourning Bride, a Tragedy, in Five Acts William Congreve, Elizabeth Inchbald, 1808

The Power of Love and Democracy in the Philosophies of Martin Luther King, Jr. and Cornel West Timothy L. Lake, 2025-09-18 This book locates an ethic of love as central to the democratic philosophies of Martin Luther King Jr and Cornel West While much has been written about King s moral vision social activism and theology there has been no book length treatment of the implications of his thinking to democratic theory Additionally Cornel West is the leading African American public intellectual of our time but the range of his cultural criticism and academic scholarship obscures his intellectual and social projects This project synthesizes West s vast corpus and places him within the modern African American intellectual tradition he shares with Du Bois King Maulana Karenga the creator of Kwanza and others Deeply grounded in the African American intellectual and philosophical traditions in which King and West are rooted as well as the Western mainstream political philosophical traditions in which they were educated this book offers a penetrating interpretation and comparative analysis of their thought on the ideals of democracy and of their critiques of American democracy It also reflects on the nature and values of democracy exploring how love is inseparable from justice in a democratic society Muriel, the sea-king's daughter; and other poems Frederic Edward Weatherly,1870 The End of Divine Truthiness: Love, Power, and God Paul Joseph Greene,2017-08-01 In The End of Divine Truthiness Paul Joseph Greene confronts stark realities of terrifying theologies that make a mockery out of divine love With urgent resolve Greene answers Martin Luther King Jr s pointed challenge to overcome reckless and abusive power without love and sentimental and anemic love without power Too many theologies cast God either as the tyrant whose loveless power lifts up the mighty or the victim whose powerless love sends the poor away empty Wielding Stephen Colbert s word truthiness as a scalpel Greene slices out one perilous theology after another to restore the wholesome truth that God is love Supported by three world religions Buddhism Christianity and Taoism he discovers a remarkably harmonious and revolutionary divine power that is fully aligned with divine love To reunify love and power here in the world as King challenges it is time to abandon ideologies of divine power that devastate divine love and promote atrocities Greene s call for the end of divine truthiness heralds a new day for the God whose love is power and whose power is love The Words and Music of Carole King James E.
