,1909 Conservation Directory ,1976 Latin American Popular Culture since Independence William H. Beezley, Linda A. Curcio-Nagy, 2011-11-16 This unique reader offers an engaging collection of essays that highlight the diversity of Latin America's cultural expressions from independence to the present. Leading historians explore funerals, dance, and music; letters and literature; spectacles and monuments; and world's fairs and food. These themes and events highlight the ways in which a wide range of individuals with copious at times contradictory motives attempted to forge identity, turn the world upside down, mock their betters, forget their troubles through dance, express love in letters, and altogether enjoy life. The authors analyze case studies from Argentina, Brazil, the Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Mexico, Nicaragua, Peru, and Trinidad Tobago, tracing how their examples resonate in the rest of the region. They show how people could and did find opportunities to escape if only occasionally their daily drudgery, making lives for themselves of greater variety than the constant quest for dominance, drive for profits, or knee-jerk resistance to the social or economic order so often described in cultural studies. Instead, this rich text introduces the complexity of motives behind and the diversity of expressions of popular culture in Latin America. Contributions by Sal Acosta, Thomas L. Laudato Si Anthony Kelly, 2016-09-20 Pope Francis' Laudato Si is a game-changing document for the life of the Church and the ecological health of this planet. A Catholic vision is deficient if it does not include the earth and its life forms. Loving one's neighbour must include loving the planetary neighbourhood in which all live. For its part, the integral ecology on which the Pope insists must include the dimensions of mind and heart, science and art, faith and the whole spiritual life of culture. Here the great theological themes animating the Catholic vision play their part as ever-renewable resources: the Creator and the gift of creation; the incarnation of the Word amongst us; the inexhaustible life of the Trinity itself; the Eucharist as communion with Christ in the here and now of earthly life; just as Sister Death must be given her place for the sake of ecological and eschatological realism. Integral ecology and Catholic vision are two sides of the conversion of
