Sentimental Fabulations, Contemporary Chinese Films Rey Chow, 2007-03-27 What is the sentimental How can we understand it by way of the visual and narrative modes of signification specific to cinema and through the manners of social interaction and collective imagining specific to a particular culture in transition What can the sentimental tell us about the precarious foundations of human coexistence in this age of globalization Rey Chow explores these questions through nine contemporary Chinese directors Chen Kaige Wong Kar wai Zhang Yimou Ann Hui Peter Chan Wayne Wang Ang Lee Li Yang and Tsai Ming liang whose accomplishments have become historic events in world cinema Approaching their works from multiple perspectives including the question of origins nostalgia the everyday feminine psychic interiority commodification biopolitics migration education homosexuality kinship and incest and concluding with an account of the Chinese films epistemic affinity with the Hollywood blockbuster Brokeback Mountain Chow proposes that the sentimental is a discursive constellation traversing affect time identity and social mores a constellation whose contours tends to morph under different historical circumstances and in different genres and media In contemporary Chinese films she argues the sentimental consistently takes the form not of revolution but of compromise not of radical departure but of moderation endurance and accommodation By naming these films sentimental fabulations screen artifacts of cultural becoming with irreducible aesthetic conceptual and speculative logics of their own Chow presents Chinese cinema first and foremost as an invitation to the pleasures and challenges of critical thinking

China on Screen Chris Berry, Mary Ann Farquhar, 2006 In China on Screen Chris Berry and Mary Farquhar leaders in the field of Chinese film studies explore more than one hundred years of Chinese cinema and nation Providing new perspectives on key movements themes and filmmakers Berry and Farquhar analyze the films of a variety of directors and actors including Chen Kaige Zhang Yimou Hou Hsiao Hsien Bruce Lee Jackie Chan Maggie Cheung Gong Li Wong Kar wai and Ang Lee They argue for the abandonment of national cinema as an analytic tool and propose cinema and the national as a more productive framework With this approach they show how movies from China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora construct and contest different ideas of Chinese nation as empire republic or ethnicity and complicated by gender class style transnationalism and more Among the issues and themes covered are the tension between operatic and realist modes male and female star images transnational production and circulation of Chinese films the image of the good foreigner all related to different ways of imagining nation Comprehensive and provocative China on Screen is a crucial work of film analysis

Visuality and Identity Shu-mei Shih, 2007-06-19 Shu mei Shih inaugurates the field of Sinophone studies in this vanguard excursion into sophisticated cultural criticism situated at the intersections of Chinese studies Asian American studies diaspora studies and transnational studies Arguing that the visual has become the primary means of mediating identities under global capitalism Shih examines the production and circulation of images across what she terms the Sinophone Pacific which comprises Sinitic language speaking communities such as the People's Republic of China Taiwan Hong Kong and Chinese America This groundbreaking work argues that the dispersal of the so called Chinese peoples across the world needs to be reconceptualized in terms of vibrant or vanishing communities of Sinitic language cultures rather than of ethnicity and nationality

Gentleman Jigger Richard Bruce Nugent, 2024-10-01 Gentleman Jigger stands as a landmark novel celebrated for its candid exploration of Black sexuality set against the dynamic backdrop of the Harlem Renaissance The story follows Stuartt a defiantly queer artist who navigates the complexities of racial and sexual identity in a period of profound cultural upheaval

Originating from a distinguished light skinned Black family in Washington D C Stuartt immerses himself into the burgeoning arts scene of Harlem where he aligns with the Niggeratti a group of young rebellious artists and writers This collective boldly challenges their elders conviction that their creative endeavors should be dedicated solely to the advancement of racial equality When their rebellion fizzles and they go their separate ways Stuartt moves downtown to Greenwich Village where where he fully indulges in his desires intertwines with underworld figures and achieves unexpected fame and fortune It is also a world that until his Hollywood debut assumes that he is white Part fictionalized autobiography part social satire Gentleman Jigger opens up a whole new dimension not only of the Harlem Renaissance but also of the racial and sexual politics of the Jazz Age

Q & A Queer And Asian David L. Eng,Alice Y. Hom,1998-08-24 What does it mean to be queer and Asian American at the turn of the century The writers activists essayists and artists who contribute to this volume consider how Asian American racial identity and queer sexuality interconnect in mutually shaping and complicating ways Their collective aim in the words of the editors is to articulate a new conception of Asian American racial identity its heterogeneity hybridity and multiplicity concepts that after all underpinned the Asian American moniker from its very inception Q A approaches matters of identity from a variety of points of view and academic disciplines in order to explore the multiple crossings of race and ethnicity with sexuality and gender Drawing together the work of visual artists fiction writers community organizers scholars and participants in roundtable discussions the collection gathers an array of voices and experiences that represent the emerging communities of a queer Asian America Collectively these contributors contend that Asian American studies needs to be more attentive to issues of sexuality and that queer studies needs to be more attentive to other aspects of difference especially race and ethnicity Vigorously rejecting the notion that a symmetrical relationship between race and homosexuality would weaken lesbian gay and queer movements the editors refuse to believe that a desirably queer world is one in which we remain perpetual aliens queer houseguests in a queer nation those places The book also features media from other positions within the Chinese diaspora including Chinese America and work produced on China by non Chinese Highlighting questions of the circulation of images people and commodities the book explores the important interconnections involving questions of race ethnicity gender and sexuality on global screens Beginning and ending with Tian anmen and world image culture a portrait emerges of momentous change and persistent challenges facing media artists and filmmakers working within Greater China Situating Sexualities Fran Martin,2003-05-01 This is the first book in English to analyse the stunning rise to prominence of cultures of dissident sexuality in Taiwan during the 1990s Positioned at the crossroads of queer theory and postcolonial cultural studies this book intervenes in current debates on sexuality and globalization to argue that the current emergence of public dissident sexualities in non Western locations like Taiwan cannot be reduced to the effects of homogenizing Westernization Instead Situating Sexualities approaches the queer sexualities represented in recent Taiwanese fiction film and public culture as dynamic formations that combine local knowledge with globalizing discourses on gay and lesbian identity to produce sexualities that are multiple shifting and inherently hybrid Equally the book pushes out the limits of queer to challenge the Eurocentrism of much queer theory to date Consistently critical of essentializing accounts of Chinese culture the book nevertheless highlights some of the important ways in which Taiwanese formations of dissident sexuality differ from the familiar Euro American formations Bibliographic Guide to Theatre Arts New York Public Library.
