Love Human And Divine The Heart Of Christian Ethics:

Love, Human and Divine Edward Collins Vacek, 1994-04-01 Although the two great commandments to love God and to love our neighbors as ourselves are central to Christianity few theologians or spiritual writers have undertaken an extensive account of the meaning and forms of these loves Most accounts in fact make love of God and love of self either impossible or immoral Integrating these two commandments Edward Vacek SJ develops an original account of love as the theological foundation for Christian ethics Vacek criticizes common understandings of agape eros and philia examining the arguments of Aquinas Nygren Outka Rahner Scheler and other theologians and philosophers He defines love as an emotional affirmative participation in the beloved's real and ideal goodness and he extends this definition to the love between God and self Vacek proposes that the heart of Christian moral life is loving cooperation with God in a mutually perfecting friendship Love and Christian Ethics Frederick V. Simmons, 2016-12-15 At the heart of Christian ethics is the biblical commandment to love God and to love one's neighbor as oneself But what is the meaning of love Scholars have wrestled with this question since the recording of the Christian gospels and in recent decades teachers and students of Christian ethics have engaged in vigorous debates about appropriate interpretations and implications of this critical norm In Love and Christian Ethics nearly two dozen leading experts analyze and assess the meaning of love from a wide range of perspectives Chapters are organized into three areas influential sources and exponents of Western Christian thought about the ethical significance of love perennial theoretical questions attending that consideration and the implications of Christian love for important social realities Contributors bring a richness of thought and experience to deliver unprecedentedly broad and rigorous analysis of this central tenet of Christian ethics and faith William Werpehowski provides an afterword on future trajectories for this research Love and Christian Ethics is sure to become a benchmark resource in the field Journal of Moral Theology, Volume 8, Issue 2 Jason King, M. The Intentional Life Series Ramesh P. Richard, 2004-05-01 This set includes all three books of the Intentional Life Series: Soul Passion, Soul Mission, and Soul Vision. Throughout the ages, humanity has pursued the meaning of life. However, most of us live decidedly arbitrary lives, muddling through from day to day. In the Intentional Life Series, Dr. Ramesh Richard, who has been called the layman's Ravi Zacharias, articulates how a meaningful life must be a truly intentional life comprised of passion, mission, and vision. He believes that in order for us to embody our true selves and become what we were designed to be, we must reevaluate that passion, mission, and vision and conform them to God's will. In Soul Passion, Richard argues that even though many of us know there must be something more to life, we stumble about with undirected goals and undiscovered passion. He motivates readers to ask themselves what their passion is, where they have placed their heart, love, trust, and sufficiency. Discovering your soul passion is the foundation for living a biblically well-built and profitable life. In Soul Mission, Richard explores what it means to have a mission for your life that is in response to God's universal purpose. Readers will find themselves deeply challenged to evaluate why they're here and find assistance with developing their own soul mission. In Soul Vision, Richard closes the trilogy by orienting his readers to the future through guidance from the Divine Visionary. Multireligious Reflections on Friendship Laura Duhan-Kaplan, Anne-Marie Ellithorpe, Hussam S.

Timani, 2023-05-22 Multireligious Reflections on Friendship Becoming Ourselves in Community presents a multi-religious discussion of spiritual and ethical formation through friendship. Contributors discuss the positive effects of friendship and some of the culturally diverse ways that friendships develop. Friends help us co-exist in diverse societies, live sustainably in our ecosystems, heal from trauma, develop inner virtues, engage wisely in social action, and connect with the divine. While friendship is a core human value, cultural traditions have used different tools to build friendships. For example, Indigenous communities emphasize reciprocity on the land; Jewish traditions encourage respect for study partners; Buddhist teachers suggest discernment in befriending; Christian texts speak of bringing God's love into community. The fifteen scholars contributing to this book draw on the teachings of six different global traditions Indigenous Hindu Jewish Buddhist Islamic and Christian Each scholar applies the tools of their tradition reciprocity respect discernment love and more to discuss how we might become our best selves in community The Nature of Love Thomas Jay Oord,2010-04-01 God is love

Consequently shouldn't love exist at the center of Christian theology When love is at the center theology is understood differently than it has typically been understood Some theologians have placed faith at the center others God's sovereignty still others the Church but Dr Oord places the emphasis on love God's love for us revealed in Christ in the Church and in creation and our love for God and others as ourselves must be afforded its rightful place Beginning with the foundation of love is what differentiates the Christian faith from others a loving God Dr Oord defines love as To love is to act intentionally in sympathetic empathetic response to God and others to promote overall well being Is this not what has defined Christians throughout history The Love of God John C. Peckham,2015-07-28 Theology has constantly wrestled with the nature of God's love and what it means for how God relates to the world In this comprehensive canonical theology of divine love John C Peckham argues for an account that avoids the errors of both voluntarist and experientialist theologies and faithfully represents the full biblical witness Love, Technology and Theology Scott A. Midson,2020-06-25 This volume explores love in the context of today's technologies It is difficult to separate love from romanticist ideals of authenticity intimacy and depth of relationship These ideals resonate with theological models of love that highlight the way God benevolently created the world and continues to love it Technologies which are designed in response to our desires do not necessarily enjoy this romanticist resonance and yet they are now remodelling the world Are technologies then antithetical to love In this volume leading theologians have brought together themes of theology technology and love for the first time exploring different areas where notions of love and technology are problematized In a world where algorithms and artificial intelligences interact with us and shape our lives in ever more intricate and even intimate ways we might feel attachments to and through machines that suggest sentiments of love while also changing how we think about love Does love always have to be reciprocal How can we enact love and care for others with technologies Whose desires do technologies serve consumers corporations creatures This volume offers a systematic review of the challenges of living in a technologically saturated world by means of critical application of as well as reflection on theological discussions about love In God's Image Peter A. Comensoli,2018-04-24

In God's Image Recognizing the Profoundly Impaired as Persons is a bold Catholic argument in defense of the profoundly impaired While a range of theological voices can now be heard speaking up on behalf of those who live their lives at the extremes of the human condition few voices have been explicitly Catholic Comensoli draws on the irreplaceable contribution of St Thomas Aquinas to forge an engagement with one of the leading thinkers in the theology of the disabled Professor Hans Reinders While recognizing the crucial contribution that Reinders has made Comensoli situates our perception of the cognitively impaired within the horizon of God's own image refusing a reduction of the substantialist position the Catholic tradition has always valued This is linked to the fresh and countercultural community life pioneered by Jean Vanier founder of the L Arche communities For Comensoli the profoundly impaired are persons whose personhood cannot be recognized outside of the condition of their impairment and through which God s Image is perceived in all its paradoxical implications
