Practice to Deceive Ann Rule, 2014-10-21 From the New York Times 1 bestselling author comes a riveting true crime mystery set on a sleepy island in the Pacific Northwest a man is murdered and the long list of suspects includes an aging beauty queen and her boyfriend One wintery night on quiet Whidbey Island off the coast of Washington Russ Douglas spent Christmas with his estranged wife Brenna She agreed to let him visit his children even though they were headed for divorce He left Brenna Douglas s home in Langley on the morning of December 26 2003 to run some errands But

hours passed and Russ didn't return home as he'd promised his children he would. Nor did he come back during the night. On the afternoon of December 27 a couple walking down a rural road noticed a vehicle in the driveway of a cabin. Since many of the places were vacant during the winter neighbors kept an eye out for strangers. Curious they walked up the cabin's driveway to check inside. They saw a man in the front seat dead from a single gunshot wound to the head. They immediately put in a call to the Island County Sheriff's Office. The dead man was easily identified; it was Russell Douglas. But what came next in this homicide case surprised law enforcement and captured the attention of the entire town when the suspects included an aging beauty queen, her guitar teacher lover, and Russell's widow Brenna, owner of the local beauty salon. With her trademark aplomb Ann Rule unravels the fascinating story of a murder, a small town, and a number of potential killers.

Luminescence, Volume 2 C. K. Barrett, Fred Barrett, 2017-08-09 What is found in this series unveils an entirely different side of C. K. Barrett, a side one might never have known about if one had knowledge only of his famous commentaries and monographs. Herein lies a goodly selection of Kingsley's sermons preached largely in small and medium-sized Methodist churches in the Northeast of England, though often elsewhere in England and around the world. Fred Barrett was not the scholar his son was, but on close inspection one can most definitely see the impact of the father on the son when it came to preaching. It seems right to include as many sermons from both of these men as we can in this series. One thing sorely lacking in much preaching these days is in-depth engagement with both the biblical text and one's tradition and theology. The sermons in these volumes demonstrate what such preaching can look like. While the first volume presented sermons on the Gospels and Acts, this second volume covers the rest of the New Testament and extensive portions of the Old Testament.

The Friday Afternoon Club Griffin Dunne, 2025-06-10 The instant New York Times bestseller. Named a Best Book of the Year by TIME, NPR, People, Town & Country, and Air Mail. Warm and perceptive, New York Times Griffin Dunne knows how to tell a story. Washington Post: Dunne is a prospector for the incandescent detail. Los Angeles Times: What a remarkable and moving story filled with twists and turns, the most famous of faces, and a complex family.

revealed with loving candor I was blown away by Griffin Dunne's life and his ability to capture so much of it in these beautifully written pages. Anderson Cooper Griffin Dunne's memoir of growing up among larger than life characters in Hollywood and Manhattan finds wicked humor and glimmers of light in even the most painful of circumstances. At eight Sean Connery saved him from drowning. At thirteen desperate to hook up with Janis Joplin he attended his aunt Joan Didion and uncle John Gregory Dunne's legendary LA launch party for Tom Wolfe's The Electric Kool Aid Acid Test. At sixteen he got kicked out of boarding school ending his institutional education for good. In his early twenties he shared an apartment in Manhattan's Hotel Des Artistes with his best friend and soulmate Carrie Fisher while she was filming some sci fi movie called Star Wars and he was a struggling actor working as a popcorn concessionaire at Radio City Music Hall. A few years later he produced and starred in the now iconic film After Hours directed by Martin Scorsese. In the midst of it all Griffin's twenty two year old sister Dominique a rising star in Hollywood was brutally strangled to death by her ex boyfriend leading to one of the most infamous public trials of the 1980s. The outcome was a travesty of justice that marked the beginning of their father Dominick Dunne's career as a crime reporter for Vanity Fair and a victims rights activist. And yet for all its boldface cast of characters and jaw dropping scenes The Friday Afternoon Club is no mere celebrity memoir. It is down to its bones a family story that embraces the poignant absurdities and best and worst efforts of its loveable infuriating funny and moving characters its author most of all.

From Clients to Crooks Leslie Sorrell, 2017-08-01 A former GOP political consultant exposes the corruption greed and dirty tricks that control our country in this tell all memoir. Leslie Sorrell started a successful and influential political consulting firm in Texas working with many of the state's Republican congressman. Her goal was to save the country by helping good people get into office and stay there. But over time she discovered the true character of these supposedly good people. Those experiences introduced Leslie to the real world of politics the side media fails to cover. Challenging a congressman in a primary election violates the political insider code but Leslie did it anyway. She decided to work for congressional hopeful Grant Stinchfield pitting herself against her own former client Republican congressman Kenny Marchant a man she had learned not to trust. Before the campaign was over Leslie found herself stripped of every political ideal she ever had. And while she lost the race she knows the real losers in American politics are the American people. But the first step toward taking our country back is exposing the truth.

Reconstructing American Historical Cinema J.E. Smyth,2006-10-27 In Reconstructing American Historical Cinema From Cimarron to Citizen Kane J E Smyth dramatically departs from the traditional understanding of the relationship between film and history

By looking at production records scripts and contemporary reviews Smyth argues that certain classical Hollywood filmmakers were actively engaged in a self conscious and often critical filmic writing of national history Her volume is a major reassessment of American historiography and cinematic historians from the advent of sound to the beginning of wartime film production in 1942 Focusing on key films such as Cimarron 1931 The Public Enemy 1931 Scarface 1932 Ramona 1936 A Star Is Born 1937 Jezebel 1938 Young Mr Lincoln 1939 Gone with the Wind 1939 Stagecoach 1939 and Citizen Kane 1941 Smyth explores historical cinema s connections to popular and academic historiography historical fiction and journalism providing a rich context for the industry s commitment to American history Rather than emphasizing the divide between American historical cinema and historical writing Smyth explores the continuities between Hollywood films and history written during the first four decades of the twentieth century from Carl Becker s famous Everyman His Own Historian to Howard Hughes s Scarface to Margaret Mitchell and David O Selznick s Gone with the Wind Hollywood s popular and often controversial cycle of historical films from 1931 to 1942 confronted issues as diverse as frontier racism and women s experiences in the nineteenth century South the decline of American society following the First World War the rise of Al Capone and the tragic history of Hollywood s silent era Looking at rarely discussed archival material Smyth focuses on classical Hollywood filmmakers adaptation and scripting of traditional historical discourse and their critical revision of nineteenth and twentieth century American history Reconstructing American Historical Cinema uncovers Hollywood s diverse and conflicted attitudes toward American history This text is a fundamental challenge the prevailing scholarship in film history and cultural studies
