a comic book action movie Hulk 2003 and an American western Brokeback Mountain 2005 The Philosophy of Ang Lee draws from both Eastern and Western philosophical traditions to examine the director's works The first section focuses on Taoist Confucian and Buddhist themes in his Chinese language films and the second examines Western philosophies in his English language films but the volume ultimately explores how Lee negotiates all of these traditions strategically selecting from each in order to creatively address key issues With interest in this filmmaker and his work increasing around the release of his 3 D magical adventure The Life of Pi 2012 The Philosophy of Ang Lee serves as a timely investigation of the groundbreaking auteur and the many complex philosophical themes that he explores through the medium of motion pictures Film Study

Frank Manchel,1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Tropix ,1967 The Erotic Margin Irvin Cemil Schick,1999 Gender and sexuality have long held an important place in western attitudes towards the people and regions of the world from the titillating accounts of harem life in the Middle East to the terrifying captivity narratives of North America The Erotic Margin is a first attempt to pull together this large disparate and often contradictory literature and view it as a corpus Schick argues that such images served to construct spatial difference and thereby helped Europe represent its own place in the world during an age of rapid geographical expansion Informed by the recent literature on human geography as well as feminist and postcolonial theory The Erotic Margin turns to sexual anthropology as well as travel literature in which from the eighteenth century on both traveler and destination were portrayed in unmistakably gendered and sexualized terms Reviewing examples ranging from the New World to India the Near East to black Africa and the South Sea islands to the Barbary Coast the book reflects on why foreign women were variously portrayed as alluring or threatening foreign men as effeminate weaklings or dangerous rapists and foreign lands as sexual idylls or hearts of darkness Continuum
