Other Peoples Houses:

Other People's Houses Lore Segal, 1994 A brilliant novel in the form of a memoir Other People's Houses Lore Groszmann Segal, 1986 Other People's Houses , 2026-03-17 Other People's Houses Lore Segal, 2014-09-09 With a foreword by Cynthia Ozick this semiautobiographical novel of a Jewish girl forced away from home in the face of Nazi persecution is an extraordinary tale of fortitude and survival On a December night in 1938 a ten year old girl named Lore is put on the Kindertransport a train carrying hundreds of Jewish children out of Austria to safety from Hitler's increasingly alarming oppression Temporarily housed at the Dover Court Camp on England's east coast Lore will find herself living in other people's houses for the next seven years the Orthodox Levines the Hoopers the working class Grimsleys and the wealthy Miss Douglas and Mrs Dillon Charged with the task of asking the English people to get her parents out of Austria Lore discovers in herself an impassioned writer In letters to potential sponsors she details the horrors happening back at home in those to her parents she notes the mannerisms and reactions of the new families around her as she valiantly tries to master their language And the closer the world comes to a new war the more resolute Lore becomes to survive As powerful now as when it was first released fifty years ago Other People's Houses is a poignant tale about the creation of a new life in the face of hopelessness and fear a hallmark of the postwar immigration experience Other People's Houses Abbi Waxman, 2018-04-03 Abbi Waxman is both irreverent and thoughtful 1 New York Times bestselling author Emily Giffin The author of The Garden of Small Beginnings returns with a hilarious and poignant new novel about four families their neighborhood carpool and the affair that changes everything At any given moment in other people's houses you can find repressed hopes and dreams moments of unexpected joy someone making love on the floor to a man who is most definitely not her husband record scratch As the longtime local carpool mom Frances Bloom is sometimes an unwilling witness to her neighbors private lives She knows her cousin is hiding her desire for another baby from her spouse Bill Horton's wife is mysteriously missing and now this After the shock of seeing Anne Porter in all her extramarital glory Frances vows to stay in her own lane But that's a notion easier said than done when Anne's husband throws her out a couple of days later The repercussions of the affair reverberate through the four carpool families and Frances finds herself navigating a moral minefield that could make or break a marriage Other People's Houses Lore Segal, 1986 In and Out of Each Other's Bodies Maurice Bloch, 2015-11-17 What is human sociality How are universals such as truth and doubt variously demonstrated and negotiated in different cultures This book offers an accessible introduction to these and other fundamental human questions Bloch shows that the social consists of two very different things One is a matter of continual adjustments between individuals who read each other's minds and thus as in sex and birth go in and out of each other's minds and bodies
The other is a time defying system of roles and groups Interaction at this level is created by ritual and is unique to humans What is referred to by the word religion is a part of this but it is not separate The study of religion as such is therefore theoretically misleading A second major theme is the way truth is established in different cultures Bloch s arguments go against recent approaches in anthropology which have sought to relativize ideas of the social and religion Hearings

United States. Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs,1969 I Am Alive Kettly Mars,2022-09-08 I Am Alive Je suis vivant is celebrated Haitian author Kettly Mars s latest novel telling the story of a bourgeois Caribbean family as it wrestles with issues of mental illness unconventional sexuality and the difficulty of returning home and rediscovery following the devastating 2010 earthquake Mars herself a survivor of the disaster has crafted a complex at times disorienting but ultimately enthralling and powerfully evocative work of literature that adds to her reputation as one of the leading voices of the francophone world When the mental health facility where he has been living for decades is severely damaged Alexandre Bernier must return home to Fleur de Ch ne His sister Maryl ne has also come home leaving behind a flourishing career as a painter in Brussels and begins to explore her sexuality with her artist s model Norah who poses for her in secret These homecomings are both a lift and a burden to the family matriarch liane a steadfast and resourceful widow Over the course of the novel past and present blend together as each character has an opportunity to narrate the story from their own perspective In the end it is the resilience of the Haitian people that allows them to navigate the seismic shifts in their family and in the land Public Service Magazine ,1923 Public Service Management ,1923

Ingessana Marian Charles Jedrej,2023-09-20 Ingessana presents the results of field research carried out in the Ingessana Hills area of Sudan between the White and the Blue Niles among a people who maintain a proud tradition of cultural independence The book examines the religious institutions of the Ingessana people attempting to understand how their history and development has been affected by interaction with powerful neighbours such as the Islamic Sudanese Nilotics and Ethiopian groups The Ingessana have always sought to define this engagement in their own terms and in such a way as to preserve their distinctive identity The analysis shows how the Ingessana have created a unique religious tradition as part of a wider culture of resistance An Abstract of the Doctrine of Jesus-Christ John Baptist Weston,1718

Southeast Asian Energy Transitions Mattijs Smits,2016-03-03 Addressing the apparent tensions between modernity and sustainability in Southeast Asia this book offers novel insights into the global challenge of moving towards a low carbon energy system With an original and accessible take on social theory related to energy transitions modernity and sustainability Mattijs Smits argues for a reinvigorated geography of energy He also challenges universalistic and linear assumptions about energy transitions and makes the case for energy trajectories stressing embeddedness contingency and connections between scales Contemporary and historical empirical examples from Southeast Asia primarily Thailand and Laos are drawn upon to show the importance of scale at regional national local and household levels The transitions in the national power sectors here have been intimately related to discourses of modernity and state formation since the colonial era More recently plans for international cooperation and discourses of regional power trade have taken centre stage Local energy trajectories are understood to be part of these transitions but also as embedded in local social political and spatial relations Examining how energy practices go hand in hand with the dissemination of different technologies this work shows the complexities of achieving sustainability in the context of rapidly changing energy modernities in Southeast Asia Jewish Women Writers in Britain Nadia Valman,2014-12-01 The extraordinary range of responses to Jewish culture and history in the work of these writers will appeal to literary scholars and readers interested in Jewish women s history The Wiley Blackwell Handbook of Judgment and Decision Making, 2 Volume Set Gideon Keren,George Wu,2016-02-16 A comprehensive up to date examination of the most important theory concepts methodological approaches and applications in the burgeoning field of judgment and decision making JDM Emphasizes the growth of JDM applications with chapters devoted to medical decision making decision making and the law consumer behavior and more Addresses controversial topics from multiple perspectives such as choice from description versus choice from experience and contrasts between empirical methodologies employed in behavioral economics and psychology Brings together a multi disciplinary group of contributors from across the social sciences including psychology economics marketing finance public policy sociology and philosophy 2 Volumes Humanistica Lovaniensia Gilbert Tournoy,1974-02-15 Volume 24 Someone To Lend a Helping Hand D. Shenk,2014-04-08 By providing descriptions of the experiences of thirty rural Minnesota women often in their own words this timely and topical book examines the expectations beliefs and values of the women as they grow old in rural America A lifecourse perspective fosters a better understanding of the aging process in terms of an individual s life experiences within the context of a cultural environment To show how various elements shaped the women s lives in later years and to give the fullest possible descriptions the study combines both qualitative and quantitative research of the rural elderly in Minnesota Through their stories the women stress the cultural familial and personal issues that continue to be important to them as they age They explore the elements of continuity as well as those of change as a part of the lifecourse Also detailed are their insights and experiences concerning interactions with different formal and informal support networks as well as the more general topics Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare United States.
