Peter Weiss In Exile A Critical Study Of His Works:

Peter Weiss in Exile Roger Ellis,1987-01 This is the first critical study in English of the works of the late Peter Weiss generally regarded as the most important political dramatist since the death of Bertolt Brecht An Introduction to the Works of Peter Weiss Olaf Berwald,2003 Discusses Weiss s plays fiction autobiography and non fiction prose Pp 22 25 illuminate Die Ermittlung an oratorio based on Weiss s 1964 attendance at the Frankfurt war crimes trial He used actual documents both aesthetically and politically 18 of the defendants appear with their real names either defending themselves with the jargon of doing their duty or totally denying their guilt Among the charges against these Nazis were conducting medical experiments torture and murder Ch 7 pp 107 129 elucidates Weiss s three volume novel Die sthetik des Widerstands about resistance to Nazism in thought and action The characters in the novel are based on members of the Rote Kapelle resistance group Politics and creative thinking art are shown as complementary not contradictory A Study Guide for Peter Weiss's "Marat / Sade" Gale, Cengage Learning, A Study Guide for Peter Weiss s Marat Sade excerpted from Gale s acclaimed Drama For Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Drama For Students for all of your research needs Peter Weiss in Exile Roger Ellis,1987 Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge,Benn E. Williams,2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context Holocaust Drama Gene A. Plunka,2009-04-02 The Holocaust the systematic attempted destruction of European Jewry and other threats to the Third Reich from 1933 to 1945 has been portrayed in fiction film memoirs and poetry Gene Plunka s study will add to this chronicle with an examination of the theatre of the Holocaust Including thorough critical analyses of more than thirty plays this book explores the seminal twentieth century Holocaust dramas from the United States Europe and Israel Biographical information about the playwrights production histories of the plays and pertinent historical information are provided placing the plays in their historical and cultural contexts Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Imagining the Age of Goethe in German Literature, 1970-2010 John David Pizer,2011 This is the first book length study devoted to modern German author as character fiction set in the Age of Goethe It shows for the first time in a sustained manner the powerful hold the Goethezeit continues to exercise on the imagination of many of Germany's leading writers This inner German dialogue across the ages provides an important corrective to the dominant critical view that contemporary German language literature is composed primarily under the sign of both globalization and the influence of mass American culture Book cover To Have or Have Not James Fisher, 2011-10-14 In a rapidly changing world the ways in which economic forces affect both personal and global change can be difficult to track particularly in the arts This collection of twenty new essays explores both obscure and famous plays dealing with economic issues Beginning with the Industrial Revolution the text moves from Marx's theories to Wall Street speculation nineteenth century immigration issues the excesses of the Gilded Age and the 1920s the Great Depression World War II and millennial economic challenges

Rethinking Peter Weiss Jost Hermand, Marc Silberman, 2000 Weiss's substantial oeuvre has become a casualty of the cold war's end the collapse of socialism and the beginning of a new millennium as one would call it This strikes us a valid reason to reconsider Peter Weiss to face the challenge of rethinking the work of a writer and artist who was a committed socialist and utopian thinker at a time when these very categories have been fundamentally called into question

Historical Dictionary of Postwar German Literature William Grange, 2009-07-09 Some authors strongly criticized attempts to rebuild a German literary culture in the aftermath of World War II while others actively committed themselves to dealing with the German past There are writers in Austria and Switzerland that find other contradictions of contemporary life troubling while some find them funny or even worth celebrating German postwar literature has in the minds of some observers developed a kind of split personality In view of the traumatic monstrosities of the previous century that development may seem logical to some The Historical Dictionary of Postwar German Literature is devoted to modern literature produced in the German language whether from Germany Austria Switzerland or writers using German in other countries This volume covers an extensive period of time beginning in 1945 at what was called zero hour for German literature and proceeds into the 21st century concluding in 2008 This is done through a list of acronyms and abbreviations a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on writers such as Nobel Prize winners Heinrich Böll Günter Grass Elias Canetti Elfriede Jelinek and W G Sebald There are also entries on individual works genres movements literary styles and forms The Mother in the Work and Life of Peter Weiss Åsa Eldh, 1990 Although the main focus of this study is on the mother figure it offers an exhaustive examination of Peter Weiss's oeuvre including his less known early Swedish works It is unique in that the author who is a native of Sweden bases her analysis on firsthand information which she obtained from personal interviews conducted in Sweden with Weiss's sister his widow his first wife and his daughter Reference Guide to Holocaust Literature Thomas Riggs, 2002 Covering the entire spectrum of the literature of the Holocaust era from the beginnings of Nazism through the concentration camp experience survivor syndrome and second generation response this detailed survey includes entries on more than 200 authors and 300 works Author entries include detailed biographical information as well as expert analytical interpretation Work entries discuss each work in detail and include a critical essay written by an expert in the field Value added features include chronologies further reading lists and nationality concentration camp and title indexes Cultural Disability Studies in Education David Bolt, 2018-07-06 Over the last few decades disability studies has emerged not only as a discipline in itself but also as a catalyst for cultural disability studies and Disability Studies in Education In this book the three areas become united in a new field that recognises education as a discourse between tutors and students who explore representations of disability on the levels of everything from academic disciplines and knowledge to language and theory from received understandings and social attitudes to narrative and characterisation Moving from late nineteenth to early twenty first century representations this book combines disability studies with aesthetics film studies Holocaust studies gender studies happiness studies popular music studies humour studies and media studies In so doing it encourages discussion around representations of disability in drama novels films autobiography short stories music videos sitcoms and advertising campaigns Discussions are underpinned by the tripartite model of disability and so disrupt one dimensional representations Cultural Disability Studies in Education encourages educators and students to engage with disability as an isolating hurtful and joyful experience that merits multiple levels of representation and offers true potential for a non normative social aesthetic It will be required reading for all scholars and students of disability studies cultural disability studies Disability Studies in Education sociology and cultural studies East, West, and Others Arlene Akiko Teraoka, 1996-01-01 East West and Others is the first work to examine the Third World in German literature from World War II to the present Arlene A Teraoka investigates how prominent post World War II East and West German authors have portrayed the Third World She discusses the persistent stereotypes of race culture and sexuality in texts by authors whose careers were shaped by concerns with Third World politics Those writers include Anna Seghers Peter Weiss Hans Magnus Enzensberger and Heiner Müller East Germans Claus Hammel and Peter Hacks and the documentary West German writers Max von der Grün Günter Wallraff and Paul Geiersbach Teraoka demonstrates the continuing German need to construct a postwar identity freed from the fascist past and the conflicts and clichés that inevitably mar this dream of the self Whether authors project a champion of humanity who upholds Enlightenment ideals or a fragmented European protagonist paralyzed by guilt all negotiate between the forces of rationality and prejudice universality and difference solidarity and helplessness The German-speaking Countries of Europe Margrit Beran Krewson, 1989 Performing the testimonial Amanda Stuart Fisher, 2020-08-04 Providing one of the first critically sustained engagements with the new forms of verbatim and testimonial theatre that emerged in the late 1990s and early 2000s this book examines what distinguishes verbatim theatre from the more established documentary theatre traditions developed initially by Peter Weiss Bertolt Brecht and Erwin Piscator Examining a wide range of verbatim and testimonial plays from around the world this book looks beyond the discourses of the real that have tended to dominate scholarship in this area and instead argues that this kind of theatre engages in acts of truth telling Through its analysis of a range of international plays from UK Germany America Australia and South Africa the book explores theatre's dramaturgical interrogation of testimony and how the act of witnessing itself is reconfigured when relocated outside of the psychoanalytic frame and positioned as contributing to a decolonisation of testimony Peter Weiss' "Divina Commedia"-Projekt (1964-1969) Yannick Müllender, 2007 Critical Survey of Drama: Giangiorgio Trissino - Arnold Zweig, Essays Carl Edmund Rollyson, Frank Northen Magill, 2003 Combines updates and expands two earlier Salem Press reference sets Critical survey of drama Rev ed English language series published in 1994 and Critical survey of drama Foreign language series published in 1986 This new 8 vol set contains 602 essays of which 538 discuss individual dramatists and 64 cover broad overview topics The dramatist profiles contain more than 310 photographs and drawings Aspects of Post-war German and Japanese Drama (1945-1970) Hiroko Harada, 2000 Against the background of post war literary developments in Germany and Japan this study compares several representative dramas These playwrights attempt to come to terms with military defeat betrayal by leaders wartime atrocities holocaust blindness passivity guilt collective and individual responsibility
