Peter Walker Minimalist Gardens:

Peter Walker Peter Walker, Leah Levy, 1997 The work of an acclaimed landscape architect is celebrated in this vibrant book Known particularly for his brilliant collaborations with Frank Gehry Arata Isozaki Helmut Jahn Ricardo Legorreta and other eminent architects Walker's decades of teaching and practice place him in the forefront of landscape artists working in the modernist tradition

Peter Walker and Partners: Nasher Sculpture Center Garden Jane Amidon, 2006-07-06 One of America's leading landscape architects Peter Walker has created a variety of significant landscapes worldwide including joint projects with architects I M Pei Norman Foster and Renzo Piano Walker's broad field of practice includes urban design and planning and the creation of landscapes ranging in size from parks and university campuses to corporate headquarters plazas and private gardens Peter Walker and Partners Nasher Sculpture Center Garden focuses on his garden in Dallas Texas a set of outdoor galleries showcasing the Nasher collection of modern and contemporary sculpture A museum without a roof the garden with its subtle balance of art and nature is also a serene urban park whose beauty perfectly complements Renzo Piano's design for the center Peter Walker's informative sketches drawings and plans along with photographs of the final design reveal the delicate balance between art culture and context at the heart of the Nasher Foundation Sculpture Garden Source Books in Landscape Architecture produced in collaboration with the Knowlton School of Architecture at Ohio State University provide detailed documentation of important new projects

The Meaning of Gardens Mark Francis, Randolph T. Hester (Jr.), 1990 maps out how the garden is perceived designed used and valued

Environmentalism in Landscape Architecture Michel Conan, 2000 The papers presented in this volume range from proposals for new design approaches historical analysis of the relationship between the practice of landscape architecture and environmentalism to the theories of early practitioners of landscape architecture imbued by an environmentalist outlook The issues above are addressed through topics as eclectic as the design of American zoos the establishment of the Tennessee Valley Authority road design and maintenance in Texas and criticism of relationships between the words and works of select landscape architects This volume provides a fresh approach to encounters between environmentalism and landscape architecture by reframing the issues through self reflection instead of strategic debate

Peter Walker Peter Walker, Linda L. Jewell, 1990

"Patricia Johanson and the Re-Invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010" Xin Wu, 2017-07-05 Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 more years career of Patricia Johanson an important artist in the second half of the twentieth century Examining the artist's search for an art of the real as a member of the post World War II New York art world and how such pursuit has led her from painting and sculpture to public garden and environmental art Xin Wu argues for the significance of the process of art creation challenging the centrality of art objects This book is an insightful study to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist It therefore converses with art historians and critics alike as well as advanced readers of twentieth century art Following Johanson's artistic development from its formation in the 1960s American art scene to the very present day across the fields of art architecture garden civil engineering and environmental aesthetics it investigates the process of creation in a transdisciplinary perspective and reveals a view of art as a domain of exploration of key issues for the contemporary world The artist's concept of nature is highlighted and particular impacts of Chinese aesthetics and thought unveiled Based on extensive analysis of unpublished private archives Xin Wu offers us the first ever comprehensive scholarly interpretation of Patricia Johanson's oeuvre including drawings paintings sculptures installations garden proposals and built and unbuilt projects in the United States Brazil Kenya and Korea

Refining Nature Scott Jennings Melbourne, 2022-03-21 Peter Walker born in 1932 is one of the most seminal and prolific figures in contemporary landscape design both as a teacher and as practitioner His career now spans six decades Amongst his best known works are Nasher Sculpture Garden in Dallas Novartis Campus in Basel and the September 11 Memorial in New York His generous landscapes are characterized by minimalist forms these spaces are classical but also entirely modern Scott Melbourne's review looks at this unique oeuvre in retrospective and pays close attention to how Walker's urban squares and parks have fared over time He studies the main design features and provides a comparative analysis of their effects In the second and updated edition of this book foreword and bibliography were revised and a subject index was added

Patricia Johanson and the Re-invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010 Xin Wu, 2013 Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 year career of American painter and environmental artist Patricia Johanson Exploring the artist's search for an art of the real as a member of the postwar New York art world it demonstrates that visual translation cannot be understood solely through the works of art instead attention must be paid to the process of creation This book is an insightful attempt to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist

New Landscape Design Robert Holden, 2003 In addition the book provides the reader with insight into many of the other concerns facing landscape architects such as the image and the function of urban spaces ecological survival sustainability native people and their settlements environmental education and the role and nature of human settlement Detailed technical information presented in accessible format with full color illustrations Careful examination of past designs provides unique resource for landscape architects to learn and improve their own work Clear focus on modern examples helps architects meet uniquely modern challenges such as urban sprawl and environmental concerns

The Making of Place John Dixon

Hunt,2015-11-15 Gardening is rich in tradition and many gardens are explicitly designed to refer to or honor the past But garden design is also rich in innovation and in The Making of Place John Dixon Hunt explores the wide varieties of approaches aesthetics and achievements in garden design throughout the world today The gardens Hunt explores offer surprising new ideas about how we can carve out a space for respite in nature Taking readers to gardens public and private busy and hidden away to botanical gardens small parks university campuses and vernacular gardens Hunt showcases the differences between cultures and countries around the globe including the United States United Kingdom France Germany China and Australia Richly illustrated The Making of Place is sure to enchant and inspire even the most modest of home gardeners

The Language of Landscape Anne Whiston Spirn,1998-01-01 This eloquent and powerful book combines poetry and pragmatism to teach the language of landscape Anne Whiston Spirn author of the award winning The Granite Garden Urban Nature and Human Design argues that the language of landscape exists with its own syntax grammar and metaphors and that we imperil ourselves by failing to learn to read and speak this language To understand the meanings of landscape our habitat is to see the world differently and to enable ourselves to avoid profound aesthetic and environmental mistakes Offering examples that range across thousands of years and five continents Spirn examines urban rural and natural landscapes She discusses the thought of renowned landscape authors Thomas Jefferson Frank Lloyd Wright Frederick Law Olmsted Lawrence Halprin and of less well known pioneers including Australian architect Glenn Murcutt and Danish landscape artist C Th S rensen She discusses instances of great landscape designers using landscape fluently masterfully and sometimes cynically And in a probing analysis of the many meanings of landscape Spirn shows how one person s ideal landscape may be another s nightmare how Utopian landscapes can be dark There is danger when we lose the connection between a place and our understanding of it Spirn warns and she calls for change in the way we shape our environment based on the notions of nature as a set of ideas and landscape as the expression of action and ideas in place

Greater Perfections John Dixon Hunt,2000 Greater Perfections explores the meanings of garden and its relationship to other interventions into the natural world But above all it offers a new and challenging account of the role of representation in garden art Journal

Foundations of Landscape Architecture Norman Booth,2011-11-15 A visually engaging introduction to landscape architectural design Landscape architectural design seeks to create environments that accommodate users varying lifestyles and needs incorporate cultural heritage promote sustainability and integrate functional requirements for optimal enjoyment Foundations of Landscape Architecture introduces the foundational concepts needed to effectively integrate space and form in landscape design With over five hundred hand rendered and digital drawings as well as photographs Foundations of Landscape Architecture illustrates the importance of spatial language It introduces concepts typologies and rudimentary principles of form and space Including designs for projects such as parks campuses and memorials this text provides the core concepts necessary for designers to shape functional landscapes Additionally chapters
