The Heritage of Soviet Oriental Studies Michael Kemper, Stephan Conermann, 2011-02 The Western field of oriental studies and orientalism criticised by Edward Said among others for encouraging the orient to be viewed in a particular way has a counterpart in Russia and the Soviet Union This book examines this Russian Soviet intellectual tradition of oriental scholarship covering Islamic history and Muslim literatures of the USSR republics of Central Asia and the Caucasus

Manuscripta Orientalia, 1999 Ways of Knowing Muslim Cultures and Societies, 2018-12-24 This volume showcases a variety of innovative approaches to the study of Muslim societies and cultures inspired by and honouring Gudrun Krämer and her role in transforming the landscape of Islamic Studies With contributions from scholars from around the world the articles cover an extraordinarily wide geographical scope across a broad timeline with transdisciplinary perspectives and a historically informed focus on contemporary phenomena The wide ranging subjects covered include among others a men in headscarves campaign in Iran an Islamic call in radio programme in Mombassa a refugee related court case in Germany the Arab revolutions and aftermath from various theoretical perspectives Ottoman family photos Qur'an translation in South Asia and words that can't be read Soviet Orientalism and the Creation of Central Asian Nations Alfrid K.

Bustanov, 2014-11-20 Orientalism the idea that the standpoint of Western writers on the East greatly affected what they wrote about the East the Other applied also in Russia and the Soviet Union where the study of the many exotic peoples incorporated into the Russian Empire often in quite late imperial times became a major academic industry where as in the West the standpoint of writers greatly affected what they wrote Russian Soviet orientalism had a particularly important impact in Central Asia where in early Soviet times new republics later states were created often based on the distorted perceptions of scholars in St Petersburg and Moscow and often cutting across previously existing political and cultural boundaries The book explores how the Soviet orientalism academic industry influenced the creation of Central Asian nations It discusses the content of oriental sources and discourses considers the differences between scholars working in St Petersburg and Moscow and those working more locally in Central Asia providing a rich picture of academic politics and shows how academic cultural classification cemented political boundaries often in unhelpful ways Russia's Turn to Persia

Denis V. Volkov, 2018-08-16 Draws on recently declassified and unpublished sources to provide an original and in depth analysis of Russian and Soviet Iranian studies Among Arabic Manuscripts I.Y. Kratchkovsky, 2016-05-09 I.Y. Kratchkovsky Ignatii Iul'ianovich Krachkovskii was an iconic scholar and Among Arabic Manuscripts Memories of Libraries and Men gives us a good indication of what made him so outstanding Hugely influential in its time especially in Eastern Europe it inspired several now noted Arabists to start their studies in this field It is beautifully written and with the rising relevance of Arab Russian relations has new historical importance A memoir of a life in Orientalism this autobiographic text is the result of strong will and endurance and of total dedication to Arabic literature and language It tells of Kratchkovsky's enormous achievements in the field in a very personal manner and in an easily accessible form The present publication is the English translation of the first 1953 Brill edition accomplished by Tatiana Minorsky d 1987 with a new introduction by Michael Kemper     Reassessing Orientalism Michael Kemper,Artemy M. Kalinovsky,2015-02-11 Orientalism as a concept was first applied to Western colonial views of the East Subsequently different types of orientalism were discovered but the premise was that these took their lead from Western style orientalism applying it in different circumstances This book on the other hand argues that the diffusion of interpretations and techniques in orientalism was not uni directional and that the different orientologies Western Soviet and oriental orientologies were interlocked in such a way that a change in any one of them affected the others that the different orientologies did not develop in isolation from each other and that importantly those being orientalisised were active not passive players in shaping how the views of themselves were developed     Rocznik orientalistyczny ,2005     Peterburgskoe vostokovedenie ,2023     Heishuicheng manuscripts collected in the St. Petersburg Branch of the Institute of Oriental Studies of the Russian Academy of Sciences ,1996
