Yale French Studies, 1992      Cubism and Futurism R. Bruce Elder, 2018-06-30 Cubism and futurism were closely related movements that vied with each other in the economy of renown Perception dynamism and the dynamism of perception these were the issues that passed back and forth between the two Cubism and Futurism Spiritual Machines and the Cinematic Effect shows how movement became in the traditional visual arts a central factor with the advent of the cinema gone were the days when an artwork strived merely to lift experience out the realm of change and flow The cinema at this time was understood as an electric art akin to X rays coloured light and sonic energy In this book celebrated filmmaker and author Bruce Elder connects the dynamism that the cinema made an essential feature of the new artwork to the new science of electromagnetism Cubism is a movement on the cusp of the transition from the Cartesian world of standardized Cartesian coordinates and interchangeable machine parts to a Galvanic world of continuities and flows In contrast futurism embraced completely the emerging electromagnetic view of reality Cubism and Futurism examines the similarity and differences between the two movements engagement with the new science of energy and shows that the notion of energy made central to the new artwork by the cinema assumed a spiritual dimension as the cinema itself came to be seen as a pneumatic machine      Disarming Intelligence Zakir Paul, 2024-08-13 A critical account of the idea of intelligence in modern French literature and thought In the late nineteenth century psychologists and philosophers became intensely interested in the possibility of quantifying measuring and evaluating intelligence and using it to separate and compare individuals Disarming Intelligence analyzes how this polyvalent term was consolidated and contested in competing discourses from fin de siècle psychology and philosophy to literature criticism and cultural polemics around the First World War Zakir Paul examines how Marcel Proust Henri Bergson Paul Valéry and the critics of the influential Nouvelle revue française registered negotiated and subtly countered the ways intelligence was invoked across the political and aesthetic spectrum For these writers intelligence fluctuates between an individual sovereign faculty for analyzing the world and something collective accidental and contingent Disarming Intelligence shows how literary and critical styles questioned suspended and reimagined what intelligence could be by bringing elements of uncertainty and potentiality into its horizon The book also explores interwar political tensions from the extreme right to Walter Benjamin's engaged essays on contemporary French writers Finally a brief coda recasts current debates about artificial intelligence by comparing them to these earlier crises of intelligence By drawing together and untangling competing conceptions of intelligence Disarming Intelligence exposes its mercurial but influential and urgent role in literary and cultural politics      Committing the Future to Memory Sarah Clift, 2013-11-11 Whereas historical determinacy conceives the past as a complex and unstable network of causalities this book asks how history can be related to a more radical future To pose that question it does not reject determinacy outright but rather seeks to explore how it works In examining what it means to be determined by history it also asks what kind of openings there might be in our encounters with history for interruptions re readings and re writings Engaging texts spanning multiple genres and several centuries from John Locke to Maurice Blanchot from Hegel to Benjamin Clift looks at experiences of time that exceed the historical narration of experiences said to have occurred in time She focuses on the co existence of multiple temporalities and opens up the quintessentially modern notion of historical succession to other possibilities The alternatives she draws out include the mediations of language and narration temporal leaps oscillations and blockages and the role played by contingency in representation She argues that such alternatives compel us to reassess the ways we understand history and identity in a traumatic or indeed in a post traumatic age A Companion to Jean-Luc Godard Tom Conley,T. Jefferson

Kline,2014-04-17 This compendium of original essays offers invaluable insights into the life and works of one of the most important and influential directors in the history of cinema exploring his major films philosophy politics and connections to other critics and directors Presents a compendium of original essays offering invaluable insights into the life and works of one of the most important and influential filmmakers in the history of cinema Features contributions from an international cast of major film theorists and critics Provides readers with both an in depth reading of Godard s major films and a sense of his evolution from the New Wave to his later political periods Brings fresh insights into the great director s biography including reflections on his personal philosophy politics and connections to other critics and filmmakers Explores many of the 80 features Godard made in nearly 60 years and includes coverage of his recent work in video Symbolism, Its Origins and Its Consequences Rosina Neginsky,2010-08-11 The notion of the symbol is at the root of the Symbolist movement but this symbol is different from the way it was used and understood in the Middle Ages and Renaissance In the Symbolist movement a symbol is not an allegory The Belgian writer Maurice Maeterlinck defined its essence in an article that appeared on April 24 1887 in L Art moderne He wrote that the notion of a symbol in the Symbolist movement is the opposite of the notion of the symbol in classical usage instead of going from the abstract to the concrete Venus incarnated in the statue represents love it goes from the concrete to the abstract from what is seen heard felt tasted and sensed to the evocation of the idea This volume attempts to give a glimpse into the power of the Symbolist movement and the nature of its fundamental and interdisciplinary role in the evolution of art and literature of the twentieth century It records the studies of a group of scholars who met and discussed these topics together for the first time in 2009 While illuminating the specificity of Symbolism in art architecture and literature in different European countries these articles also demonstrate the crucial role of French Symbolism in the development of the international Symbolist movement The authors hope that an expanding group a society of Art Literature and Music in Symbolism and Decadence ALMSD born out of the first meeting will continue to further this discussion at future conferences and in the printed conference proceedings Fashioned Texts and Painted

Books Erin E. Edgington,2017-10-01 Fashioned Texts and Painted Books examines the folding fan s multiple roles in fin de si cle and early twentieth century French literature Focusing on the fan s identity as a symbol of feminine sexuality as a collectible art object and especially as an alternative book form well suited to the reception of poetic texts the study highlights the fan's suitability as a substrate for verse deriving from its myriad associations with coquetry and sex flight air and breath Close readings of Stéphane Mallarmé's ventails of the 1880s and 1890s and Paul Claudel's Cent phrases pour ventails 1927 consider both text and paratext as they underscore the significant visual interest of this poetry Works in prose and in verse by Octave Uzanne Guy de Maupassant and Marcel Proust along with fan leaves by Edgar Degas douard Manet Berthe Morisot and Paul Gauguin serve as points of comparison that deepen our understanding of the complex interplay of text and image that characterizes this occasional subgenre Through its interrogation of the correspondences between form and content in fan poetry this study demonstrates that the fan was in addition to being a ubiquitous fashion accessory a significant literary and art historical object straddling the boundary between East and West past and present and high and low art

Voice Lessons Katherine Bergeron, 2010-01-20 Language education politics and music come together in Katherine Bergeron's Voice Lessons a study of the French m lodie in the Belle Epoque Close readings of songs by Fauré Debussy and Ravel along with poems sound recordings and other historical documents seek to uncover the cultural meanings of this art why it emerged why it mattered and why it eventually disappeared

Modernism and Authority Charles Palermo, 2015-10-13 Modernism and Authority presents a provocative new take on the early paintings of Pablo Picasso and the writings of Guillaume Apollinaire Charles Palermo argues that references to theology and traditional Christian iconography in the works of Picasso and Apollinaire are not mere symbolic gestures rather they are complex responses to the symbolist art and poetry of figures important to them including Paul Gauguin Charles Morice and Santiago Rusiñol The young Picasso and his contemporaries experienced the challenges of modernity as an attempt to reflect on the lost relation to authority For the symbolists art held authority by revealing something compelling something to which audiences must respond lest they lose claim to their own moral authority Instead of the total transformation of the reader or viewer that symbolist creators envision Picasso and Apollinaire imagine a divided self responding only partially or ambivalently to the work of art's call Navigating these problems of symbolist art and poetry entails considering the nature of the work of art and of one's response to it the modern subject's place in history and the relevance of historical truth to our methodological choices in the present

Material Inscriptions Andrzej Warminski, 2016-06-30 This book focuses on the practice and pedagogical value of rhetorical reading Its readings follow an itinerary from poetic texts such as those by Wordsworth and Keats through theoretical or philosophical texts by Descartes and Nietzsche to narrative

Titanic Light Ortwin de Graef, 1995-01-01 Titanic Light concentrates on de Man's increased interest during the 1960s in Romantic and post Romantic literature and criticism De Graef follows in detail de Man's strong readings of the works of Holderlin Rousseau and Wordsworth He connects de Man's interpretations of these and other writers with his earlier critical works and his later deconstructive writings In addition de Graef places de Man's essays from the 1960s some later collected in the influential

volume Blindness and Insight in the context of the critical debates of that era debate s about structuralism Marxism phenomenology American New Criticism and other critical schools      When Women Held the Dragon's Tongue Hermann Rebel,2010-02-01 Peasants tell tales one prominent cultural historian tells us Robert Darnton Scholars must then determine and analyze what it is they are saying and whether or not to incorporate such tellings into their histories and ethnographies Challenging the dominant culturalist approach associated with Clifford Geertz and Marshall Sahlins among others this book presents a critical rethinking of the philosophical anthropologies found in specific histories and ethnographies and thereby bridges the current gap between approaches to studies of peasant society and popular culture In challenging the methodology and theoretical frameworks currently used by social scientists interested in aspects of popular culture the author suggests a common discursive ground can be found in an historical anthropology that recognizes how myths fairytales and histories speak to a universal need for imagining oneself in different timescapes and for linking one s local world with a known larger world      Tigersprung Ulrich Lehmann,2000 The history of modernity written as a philosophy if fashion set in the cultural framework of Paris      The Fate of Carmen Evelyn Gould,1996-10-17 The ongoing proliferation of new versions of Carmen presents an ideal opportunity to study both the cultural power and renewability of certain literary texts and the relationship between literature and the performing arts Since its introduction in Prosper M rim e s 1845 novella the Carmen character has been the subject of countless portrayals from Bizet s 1874 opera to various dramatic dance and musical renditions to films by such directors as Peter Brook Jean Luc Godard Francesco Rosi and Carlos Saura In this book the author studies competing representations of Carmen as either dangerous femme fatale liberated woman or vanguard warrior in the battle between the sexes The author locates the impetus for the continual renewal of this modern myth in the cultural ideal of Bohemia tracing the history of this ideal from nineteenth century Paris to the European Union of today Back cover
