use in Operations JUST CAUSE and DESERT STORM to the advent of the GWOT The paper s analytical framework examines each era of LRS units in terms of doctrine organization training materiel leadership and personnel In doing so the author makes a strong case for continuing the LRS capability in the Army s force structure The variety of environments and enemies likely to be faced by the military in the GWOT continues to demand the unique human intelligence abilities of trained and organized LRS units As the Army leads the Armed Forces of the United States in combating terrorists where they live the lessons found in this survey remain timely and relevant Eyes Behind the Lines James F. Reflections Revisited Reuben H. Siverling,2017-01-09 As described by Reverend J Lowell Harrup pastor of Northland Cathedral Kansas City Missouri This book focuses on army rangers in particular the Fourth Infantry Divisions LRRPs or the rangers of the Seventy Fifth Regiment the official as well as the spiritual successor to the fabled Merrills Marauders the long range deep penetration units of World War II Their stories need to be told not for individual aggrandizement though they certainly earned that but so their history will be more than a political polemic The Vietnam conflict was terrible but our troops carried on the tradition of our military from the beginning of this nation I have come to know many of them including a number of highly decorated heroes of that conflict Among those I put in that category is Reuben Siverling a close friend and Christian brother whose story is in this book These stories are not enhanced they need no enhancement They are in fact the attempt to reduce in words the experiences that were lived in units of time distorted by the surreality of war extreme environments separation from families and constant death and dying all around The complete story of each cannot be told books are not big enough But these are told so that history will stand unrevised Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2000

Phantom Warriors Gary Linderer,2000 True story of Long Range reconnaissance Patrols in Vietnam American Book Publishing Record ,2000-07 War Paint Bill Goshen,2007-12-18 The men who served with in the 1st Infantry Division with F company 52nd Infantry LRP later redesignated as Company I 75th Infantry Ranger engaged in some of the fiercest bloodiest fighting during the Vietnam War suffering a greater relative aggregate of casualties than any other LRRP

LRP Ranger company Their base was Lai Khe within hailing distance of the Vietcong central headquarters a mile inside Cambodia with its vast stockpiles of weapons and thousands of transient VC and NVA soldiers Recondo qualified Bill Goshen was there and has written the first account of these battle hardened soldiers As the eyes and ears of the Big Red One the 1st Infantry these hunter killer teams of only six men inserted deep inside enemy territory had to survive by their wits or suffer the deadly consequences Goshen himself barely escaped with his life in a virtual suicide mission that destroyed half his team His gripping narrative recaptures the raw courage and sacrifice of American soldiers fighting a savage war of survival men of all colors from all walks of life warriors bonded by triumph and tragedy by life and death They served proudly in Vietnam and their stories need to be told     Inside the LRRPs Col. Michael Lee Lanning, 2011-07-20 Vietnam was a different kind of war calling for a different kind of soldier The LRRPs Long Range Reconnaissance Patrols were that new breed of fighting man They operated in six man teams deep within enemy territory and were the eyes and ears of the units they served This is their story of perseverance under extreme hardship and uncommon bravery and how they carried out the war's most hazardous missions
