The Way of Herodotus Justin Marozzi, 2008-12-09 An intriguing travel history exploring and evoking the world of Herodotus with abundant commentary on the legacy and spirit of the father of history and the literary art he created

Cairo Andrew Beattie, 2005 Cairo is The largest metropolis in Africa since the Middle Ages it was in Ibn Battutah's words the mother of cities With a present day population of around eighteen million this sprawling metropolis is home to one thousand new migrants every day drawn to the seething intensity of a modern cosmopolitan capital that blends together the cultures of the Middle East and Europe The fabled city on the banks of the River Nile once home to pharaohs and emperors now forms a focal point of the Islamic faith and of the Arab world Andrew Beattie explores the turbulent past and vibrant present of this city where the enduring legacies of the ancient Egyptians the early Coptic Church British colonial rule and the modernist zeal of the post independence era have all left their mark Nomads Anthony Sattin, 2022-09-20 Sattin is a terrific storyteller David Farley New York Times The remarkable story of how nomads have fostered and refreshed civilization throughout our history Moving across millennia Nomads explores the transformative and often bloody relationship between settled and mobile societies Often overlooked in history the story of the umbilical connections between these two very different ways of living presents a radical new view of human civilization From the Neolithic revolution to the twenty first century via the rise and fall of the Roman Empire the great nomadic empires of the Arabs and Mongols the Mughals and the development of the Silk Road nomads have been a perpetual counterbalance to the empires created by the power of human cities Exploring the evolutionary biology and psychology of restlessness that makes us human Anthony Sattin s sweeping history charts the power of nomadism from before the Bible to its decline in the present day Connecting us to mythology and the records of antiquity Nomads explains why we leave home and why we like to return again This is the history of civilization as told through its outsiders

The Young T. E. Lawrence Anthony Sattin,2015-01-26 An intimate biography of the years that turned T E Lawrence into Lawrence of Arabia Lawrence of Arabia s heroism during the Arab revolt and his disgust at the subsequent betrayal of the Arabs in the postwar negotiations have become the stuff of legend But T E Lawrence s adventures in the Levant began long before the outbreak of war This intimate biography is the first to focus on Lawrence in his twenties the untold story of the awkward archaeologist from Oxford who on first visiting The East fell in love with Arab culture and found his life s mission Few people realize that Lawrence s classic autobiography Seven Pillars of Wisdom was not the first book to carry that iconic title Lawrence himself burned his original draft Anthony Sattin here uncovers the story Lawrence wanted to conceal the truth of his birth his tortuous relationship with a dominant mother his deep affection for an Arab boy and the personal reasons that drove him from student to spy Drawing on surviving letters diaries and accounts from close confidantes Sattin brings a biographer s eye for detail and a travel writer s verve to Lawrence s extraordinary journeys through the region with which his name is forever connected In a masterful parallel narrative The Young T E Lawrence charts the maturation of the man and the incipient countries he treasured both coming of age at a time when the world s foundations were coming undone

Needles from the Nile Chris Elliott,2022-04-15 In the hearts of London and New York stand their two oldest public monuments Cleopatra s Needles the last of a series of obelisks from Ancient Egypt to be moved abroad during a period of over two thousand years This book uses the Needles to examine how objects embody the cultures that create them and how the use value and meaning of these objects change as they are transferred between cultures by gift sale barter or theft It explores the way in which obelisks functioned as imperial trophies how their transfer was part of the complex political manoeuvring between European powers America the Ottoman Empire and the semi autonomous rulers of Egypt and how their acquisition reflected the relative power of these parties In contrast it also examines the crucial role that private individuals and finance played in the acquisition and transport of the obelisks and how popular understanding of them and of the culture they came from often differed from those of social and professional elites It also relates the Needles to contemporary debates about the ownership of cultural artefacts the legacy of colonial history and the nature of reception as the process of understanding and valuing the past and its surviving material and immaterial culture

Two Months on the Nile Stephen Boys Smith,2025-06-26 British Consul with a long standing interest in archaeology Thomas Sandwith s account of his two months travelling in Egypt provides a valuable new primary source on a dynamic period in Egyptian history In January 1893 he began a diary in which he recorded his journey on the Nile aboard a dahabiya Possessing a keen interest in antiquities and experience in acquiring them during his consular career he recounts visiting newly discovered archaeological sites and meetings with Egyptologists providing a unique snapshot of the golden age of Egyptology His astute descriptions of his journey from Cairo to Aswan and back give a vivid new perspective on the growth of European tourism in British occupied Egypt and early Egyptian industry Sandwiched decades long interest in archaeology and familiarity with the Levant mean this diary until now on the long hand pages as he wrote them on the boat is thus unique among contemporary travel accounts It is a valuable primary source for scholars interested in the history of the British in the Middle East the history of travel in the Middle East and the history of archaeology and Egyptology The Great Explorers

Robin Hanbury-Tenison, 2018-10-16 Penetrating biographies written by a group of distinguished travel writers broadcasters and historians reveal the lives motives and passions of forty major explorers in history It has always been mankind's gift or curse to be inquisitive and through the ages people have been driven to explore the limits of the worlds known to them and beyond Here are the stories of forty of the world's greatest explorers from Europe America Asia and Australia These are men and women who changed our perception of the world through their courageous adventures Organized thematically the book opens with the oceanic journeys of five hundred years ago when the great era of recorded exploration began The following sections look at The Land Rivers Polar Ice Deserts Life on Earth and New Frontiers Many of these explorers recounted their journeys in vivid firsthand accounts others were superb artists or photographers The book features quotes from their journals and reports and it is illustrated with paintings photographs engravings and maps so that we can experience their adventures through their own eyes and in their own words Featured explorers include Christopher Columbus Vasco da Gama James Cook Lewis and Clark Richard Burton Samuel de Champlain David Livingstone Roald Amundsen Gertrude Bell Alexander von Humboldt Yuri Gagarin and Jacques Yves Cousteau Egyptomania Goes to the Movies Matthew Coniam, 2017-07-21

Egyptomania the West's obsession with the strange and magnificent world of Ancient Egypt has for centuries been reflected in architecture literature and the performing arts But the discovery of Tutankhamen's tomb in 1922 by a sensation hungry world newly united by mass media created a wave of fascination unlike anything before They called it Tutmania and its influence was felt everywhere from fashion to home decor to popular music and notably in the new medium of film This study traces the origins of 20th century cinema's obsession with Ancient Egypt through previous eras and relates its recurring themes and ideas to the historical reality of the land of the Pharaohs Museums, Transculturality, and the Nation-State Susanne Leeb, Nina Samuel, 2022-03-07 While the nation state gave rise to the advent of museums its influence in times of transculturality and post decolonial studies appears to have vanished But is this really the case With case studies from various geo and sociopolitical contexts from around the globe the contributors investigate which roles the nation state continues to play in museums collections and heritage They answer the question to which degree the nation state still determines practices of collection and circulation and its amount of power to shape contemporary narratives The volume thus examines the contradictions at play when the necessary claim for transculturality meets the institutions of the nation state
