Phenomenology and Beyond: The Self and Its Language H.A. Durfee, David F.T. Rodier, 2012-12-06 It has been a constant intention of the series of AMERICAN UNIVERSITY PUBLICATIONS IN PHILOSOPHY to present to the philosophical reader books which probed the frontiers of contemporary philosophy That intention remains true of the following volume which offers an international dialogue regarding the phenomenological program and succeeding movements Early in this Series we tried as well to initiate philosophical discussion across serious boundaries and barriers which have characterized contemporary reflection That theme also continued in the original essays presented herein With the publication of this fifth volume in the Series we have crossed something of a minor milestone in our endeavor and are appreciative of the kind welcome with which we have been received by the readers We wish to thank sincerely the contributors to this volume for their helpful and willing cooperation We also wish to thank Ms Irmgard Scherer for her translation of Professor Apel's paper as well as Professor Apel himself for reviewing this translation We are also pleased to thank the Office of the Dean of the College Of Arts And Sciences and especially Dean Betty T Bennett for a grant for typing as well as Ms Mary H Wason for her fine typing skills and her kind cooperation

Phenomenology and Beyond H. A. Durfee, David F T Rodier, 1989-10-31
Constructing the Self in a Mediated World Debra Grodin, Thomas R. Lindlof, 1996-01-18 In today's media saturated world identities are no longer built solely within the close knit communities of family neighborhood school and work Today media are part of our world and therefore play an important role in the formulations of our identities or constructions of self In a truly postmodern mode Constructing the Self in a Mediated World not only brings together the usually segregated areas of interpersonal and mass communication but also incorporates works from scholars in sociology psychology and women's studies as well Each essay examines our understanding of self in a different context of mediated culture within a specific framework of interpretive theories such as critical theory social constructionist theory and feminism This volume provides insights into issues of self and identity in contemporary mediated culture Designed for advanced students and experienced researchers in communication both media and interpersonal sociology psychology and women's studies Constructing the Self in a Mediated World raises important questions and contributes greatly to its field Radical Philosophy, 2002 A

Companion to Hegel Stephen Houlgate, Michael Baur, 2015-12-21 This companion provides original scholarly and cutting edge essays that cover the whole range of Hegel's mature thought and his lasting influence A comprehensive guide to one of the most important modern philosophers Essays are written in an accessible manner and draw on the most up to date Hegel research Contributions are drawn from across the world and from a wide variety of philosophical approaches and traditions Examines Hegel's influence on a range of thinkers from Kierkegaard and Marx to Heidegger Adorno and Derrida Begins with a chronology of Hegel's life and work and is then split into sections covering topics such as Philosophy of Nature Aesthetics and Philosophy of Religion

highly acclaimed book includes a substantial new introduction by the author which situates the book within current feminist debates In Beyond Accommodation Drucilla Cornell offers a highly original vision of what feminist theory can give contemporary women She challenges essentialist and naturalist accounts of feminine sexuality arguing that any attempt to affirm woman's value and difference by either emphasizing her maternal role or repudiating the feminine only entraps women once again in a container that curtails feminine sexual difference legitimates the masculine fantasy of woman and reinstates rather than dismantles the gender hierarchy In response to these movements Beyond Accommodation strives to broaden the scope of feminist theory by articulating a platform under the concept of relative universalism which proposes the idea that women are not a unified and homogenous group although they are positioned as women in patriarchy Cornell's theory allows for differences in women's situations without giving up on the idea that women are fighting a common phenomenon called patriarchy

Existentialia, 2003 Levinas and the Philosophy of Religion Jeffrey L. Kosky, 2001-07-12

Levinas and the Philosophy of Religion Jeffrey L Kosky Reveals the interplay of phenomenology and religion in Levinas's thought Kosky examines Levinas's thought from the perspective of the philosophy of religion and he does so in a way that is attentive to the philosophical nuances of Levinas's argument an insightful well written and carefully documented study that uniquely illuminates Levinas's work John D Caputo For readers who suspect there is no place for religion and morality in postmodern philosophy Jeffrey L Kosky suggests otherwise in this skillful interpretation of the ethical and religious dimensions of Emmanuel Levinas's thought Placing Levinas in relation to Hegel and Nietzsche Husserl and Heidegger Derrida and Marion Kosky develops religious themes found in Levinas's work and offers a way to think and speak about ethics and morality within the horizons of contemporary philosophy of religion Kosky embraces the entire scope of Levinas's writings from Totality and Infinity to Otherwise than Being contrasting Levinas's early religious and moral thought with that of his later works while exploring the nature of phenomenological reduction the relation of religion and philosophy the question of whether Levinas can be considered a Jewish thinker and the religious and theological import of Levinas's phenomenology Kosky stresses that Levinas is first and foremost a phenomenologist and that the relationship between religion and philosophy in his ethics should cast doubt on the assumption that a natural or inevitable link exists between deconstruction and atheism Jeffrey L Kosky is translator of On Descartes Metaphysical Prism The Constitution and the Limits of Onto theology in Cartesian Thought by Jean Luc Marion He has taught at Williams College Indiana Series in the Philosophy of Religion Merold Westphal general editor May 2001 272 pages 6 1 8 x 9 1 4 bibl index append cloth 0 253 33925 1 39 95 s 30 50

Reading Derrida and Ricoeur Eftichis Pirovolakis, 2010-02-16 Written in the aftermath of the deaths of the French philosophers Jacques Derrida 1930 2004 and Paul Ricoeur 1913 2005 this book is an important and innovative study of the contentious relation between deconstruction and hermeneutics Offering close readings of Derrida's and Ricoeur's writings on phenomenology psychoanalysis structuralist linguistics and Levinasian ethics Eftichis Pirovolakis introduces the motif of improbable encounters and explicates why the two thinkers may be said to be simultaneously close to each other and separated by an unbridgeable abyss Pirovolakis complicates any facile distinction between these movements which are two of the most influential streams of continental thought and questions a certain pathos with respect to the distance separating them Pirovolakis also translates Derrida's brief tribute to Ricoeur The Word Giving Naming Calling which appears here in English for the first time The book is essential reading for anyone immersed in continental philosophy or literary theory Wittgenstein and Hegel Jakub Mácha, Alexander Berg, 2019-06-17 This book brings together for the first time two philosophers from different traditions and different centuries While Wittgenstein was a focal point of 20th century analytic philosophy it was Hegel's philosophy that brought the essential discourses of the 19th century together and developed into the continental tradition in 20th century This now outdated conflict took for granted Hegel's and Wittgenstein's opposing positions and is being replaced by a continuous progression and differentiation of several authors' schools and philosophical traditions The development is already evident in the tendency to identify a progression from a Kantian to a Hegelian phase of analytical philosophy as well as in the extension of right and left Hegelian approaches by modern and postmodern concepts Assessing the difference between Wittgenstein and Hegel can outline intersections of contemporary thinking From Ecclesiastes to Simone Weil Ernest Rubinstein, 2014-08-06 From Ecclesiastes to Simone Weil Varieties of Philosophical Spirituality reads major philosophers from the Western philosophical canon and beyond for the spirituality implicit in their metaphysics epistemology ethics aesthetics and logic Its aim is to revive for the modern reader the spiritual import of philosophy as an area of inquiry and study Spirituality is understood as a lived orientation towards the sacred The sacred is characterized as the source of all being and human wellbeing Philosophy is presented as an avenue of approach to the sacred alternative to the western religious traditions Philosophers treated include Plato Descartes Spinoza Kant Hegel Kierkegaard Emerson William James Bertrand Russell and Simone Weil Otherwise Than Being or Beyond Essence E. Levinas, 2013-03-09 I REDUCTION TO RESPONSIBLE SUBJECTIVITY Absolute self responsibility and not the satisfaction of wants of human nature is Husserl argued in the Crisis the telos of theoretical culture which is determinative of Western spirituality phenomenology was founded in order to restore this basis and this moral grandeur to the scientific enterprise The recovery of the meaning of Being and even the possibility of raising again the question of its meaning requires according to Heidegger authenticity which is defined by answerability it is not first an intellectual but an existential resolution that of setting out to answer for one's very being being on one's own But the inquiries launched by phenomenology and existential philosophy no longer present themselves first as a promotion of responsibility Phenomenology was inaugurated with the cry of signs Husserl elaborated in the Logical Investigations the theory of meaning led back to constitutive intentions of consciousness It is not in pure acts of subjectivity but in the operations of structures that contemporary philosophy seeks the intelligibility of significant systems

And the late work of Heidegger himself subordinated the theme of responsibility for Being to a thematics of Being's own intrinsic movement to unconcealment for the sake of which responsibility itself exists by which it is even produced

Ethical Materialities in Art and Moving Images Silke Panse, 2024-12-26 Starting from the premise that after modernism and postmodernism in the Anthropocene an artwork cannot rest upon its separation from the planet this volume develops new ethical practice and thought with respect to art philosophy and moving images Practitioners and theorists examine how the relations between the ethical and the material figure in a context in which a dearth of ethical practice and thought has caused the materialities of the Anthropocene and the climate catastrophe Ethics are generally regarded as constituted through immaterial relations guided by moral imperatives By contrast this volume argues that the singular ethicalities that are manifested in a work cannot be captured by abstract ethics The explorations of the ethical here are not prescriptive but creative Through artistic and philosophical thought and practice the contributions move beyond the division between an active practice of ethics and a contemplative theory of aesthetics They ask what ethicalities and materialities are at play in the relations between the artist the art their worlds and the planet after new materialism and posthumanism Rather than transcending the ethical through the material or the material through the ethical the contributions articulate the singular relations between them and consider the inter and intra active ethical and material relations of art and images in biodiverse environments They suggest that to bring out the ethical dimensions of the material and the material dimension of the ethical without identifying one with the other is a responsibility of art and images

Beyond Postprocess and Postmodernism Theresa Jarnagi Enos, Keith D. Miller, Jill McCracken, 2003-01-30 Annotation Volume illuminates many of the tensions present in the field of rhetoric and composition studies explaining the scope and role of rhetoric in contemporary scholarship For scholars and other individuals interested in rhetoric and composition studies P

The Intersubjectivity of Embodiment,

Phenomenological Approaches to Popular Culture Michael Thomas Carroll, Eddie Tafoya, 2000 Within popular culture studies one finds discussions about quantitative sociology Marxism psychoanalysis myth criticism feminism and semiotics but hardly a word on the usefulness of phenomenology the branch of philosophy concerned with human experience In spite of this omission there is a close relationship between the aims of phenomenology and the aims of popular culture studies for both movements have attempted to redirect academic study toward everyday lived experience The fifteen essays in this volume demonstrate the way in which phenomenological approaches can illuminate popular culture studies and in so doing they take on the entire range of popular culture

Hegel and the Art of Negation Andrew W. Hass, 2013-11-12 Why is the philosopher Hegel returning as a potent force in contemporary thinking Why after a long period when Hegel and his dialectics of history have seemed less compelling than they were for previous generations of philosophers is study of Hegel again becoming important Fashionable contemporary theorists like Francis Fukuyama and Slavoj Žižek as well as radical theologians like Thomas Altizer have all recently been influenced by Hegel the philosopher whose philosophy now seems somehow perennial or to borrow an idea from Nietzsche eternally returning Exploring this revival via the notion of negation in Hegelian thought and relating such negativity to sophisticated ideas about art and artistic creation Andrew W Hass argues that the notion of Hegelian negation moves us into an expansive territory where art religion and philosophy may all be radically conceived and broken open into new forms of philosophical expression The implications of such a revived Hegelian philosophy are the author argues vast and current Hegel thereby becomes the philosopher par excellence who can address vital issues in politics economics war and violence leading to a new form of globalised ethics Hass makes a bold and original contribution to religion philosophy art and the history of ideas     Hegel's Encyclopedia of the Philosophical Sciences Sebastian Stein,Joshua Wretzel,2021-09-16 This book gives unprecedented insight into the fullest articulation of Hegel's philosophical system his Encyclopedia     Beyond the Psychoanalytic Dyad John P. Muller,2014-01-14 In this original work of psychoanalytic theory John Muller explores the formative power of signs and their impact on the mind the body and subjectivity giving special attention to work of the French psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan and the American philosopher Charles Sanders Peirce Muller explores how Lacan's way of understanding experience through three dimensions the real the imaginary and the symbolic can be useful both for thinking about cultural phenomena and for understanding the complexities involved in treating psychotic patients and develops Lacan's perspective gradually presenting it as distinctive approaches to data from a variety of sources
