Phenomenology And Deconstruction Vol 4 Solitude:

Phenomenology and Deconstruction, Volume Four Robert Denoon Cumming,1991 Cumming also shows that conversion is not merely a personal predisposition of Sartre's further manifest in his later conversions to Heidegger and to a version of Marxism Conversion is also philosophical preoccupation illustrated by the conversion to the imaginary whereby Sartre explains how he himself as well as Genet and Flaubert became writers Finally Cumming details how Husserl's phenomenological method contributed both to the shaping of Sartre's style as a literary writer and to his theory of style

Phenomenology or Deconstruction? Christopher Watkin,2009-03-03 Phenomenology or Deconstruction challenges traditional understandings of the relationship between phenomenology and deconstruction through new readings of the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty Paul Ricur and Jean Luc Nancy A constant dialogue with Jacques Derrida's engagement with phenomenological themes provides the impetus to establishing a new understanding of being and presence that exposes significant blindspots inherent in traditional readings of both phenomenology and deconstruction In reproducing neither a stock phenomenological reaction to deconstruction nor the routine deconstructive reading of phenomenology Christopher Watkin provides a fresh assessment of the possibilities for the future of phenomenology along with a new reading of the deconstructive legacy Through detailed studies of the philosophy of Merleau Ponty Ricur and Nancy he shows how a phenomenological tradition much wider and richer than Husserlian or Heideggerean thought alone can take account of Derrida's critique of ontology and yet still hold a commitment to the ontological This new reading of being and presence fundamentally re draws our understanding of the relation of deconstruction and phenomenology and provides the first sustained discussion of the possibilities and problems for any future deconstructive phenomenology

Phenomenology and Deconstruction, Volume Three Robert Denoon Cumming,1991 Cumming also shows that conversion is not merely a personal predisposition of Sartre's further manifest in his later conversions to Heidegger and to a version of Marxism Conversion is also philosophical preoccupation illustrated by the conversion to the imaginary whereby Sartre explains how he himself as well as Genet and Flaubert became writers Finally Cumming details how Husserl's phenomenological method contributed both to the shaping of Sartre's style as a literary writer and to his theory of style

Transversal Rationality and Intercultural Texts Hwa Yol Jung,2011-07-26 Winner of the 2012 Edward Goodwin Ballard Prize sponsored by the Center for Advanced Research in Phenomenology Transversality is the keyword that permeates the spirit of these thirteen essays spanning almost half a century from 1965 to 2009 The essays are exploratory and experimental in nature and are meant to be a transversal linkage between phenomenology and East Asian philosophy Transversality is the concept that dispels all ethnocentrism including Eurocentrism In the globalizing world of multiculturalism Eurocentric universalism falls far short of being universal but simply parochial at the expense of the non Western world Transversality is intercultural interspecific interdisciplinary and intersensorial Transversal Rationality and Intercultural Texts means to transform the very way of philosophizing itself by infusing or hybridizing multiple traditions in the history of the world Like no other scholar Jung bridges the gap between Asian and Western cultures What is traditionally called comparative philosophy is not just a neglected branch of philosophy it is poised to radically transform the very conception of philosophy itself Heidegger and the Human Ingo Farin, Jeff Malpas, 2022-10-01 The human being stands at the center of the humanities and social sciences In an age that some have dubbed the Anthropocene this book addresses Heidegger's conception of the human being and its role in the world Contributors discuss how Heidegger envisages and interprets the human being and what we can learn from his thought Pluralistic in outlook this volume covers a broad range of divergent views on Heidegger and his complex conception of the human A short introductory chapter orients the reader to the significance of the question of the human in Heidegger's works its topicality and its relevance for interpreting Heidegger's oeuvre Chapters are divided into three thematic groups anthropology and philosophy human being otherness and world and life identity and finitude This organization facilitates discussions of the systematic interconnection between Heidegger's philosophy and his critical thoughts on anthropology and humanism as well as his relation to contemporary philosophers and their views on the subject Various problems in Heidegger's concept of the human are addressed and moral dimensions and practical imperatives implicit in Heidegger explored in discussions about intersectionality and oppression the frailty of the human and the embeddedness of the human being in nature society and history Canadian Philosophical Reviews ,2003 Comptes Rendus Philosophiques ,2003

Phenomenology and Deconstruction, Volume One Robert Denoon Cumming, 1991 Cumming also shows that conversion is not merely a personal predisposition of Sartre's further manifest in his later conversions to Heidegger and to a version of Marxism Conversion is also philosophical preoccupation illustrated by the conversion to the imaginary whereby Sartre explains how he himself as well as Genet and Flaubert became writers Finally Cumming details how Husserl's phenomenological method contributed both to the shaping of Sartre's style as a literary writer and to his theory of style
