My Travels by Canoe William V. McNaul, 2005-10-07 The story begins with the author as a child getting an unwitting education in the ways of moving water by playing in the creek that flowed by his boyhood home. The McNaul residence was located between a railroad embankment and a highway which were confining borders for a kid growing up. Finally, aging and being permitted beyond these barriers lead to the discovery of canoeing. The first trials and errors of boating and a slow advance to different types of canoe trips are covered in the text. Then a birthday gift of a Pennsylvania stream map changed the author's canoe plans to give them some direction and a goal to complete all of the canoeable waterways in the state was formed. At first, the aim to do all of the creeks was not too seriously taken, but as the blue lines on the map were filled in, this indicated that it could be achieved. The pursuit of a lot of little creeks and unrecorded ones finally led to completion of the goal over thirty-three years of paddling. The struggle to complete the most difficult creek was a high point in the game, and a ten-yard escape from going over a thirty-foot waterfall was an event the author would never forget. The adventures of the course taken on tide waters in swamps, through industrial zones, of hazards encountered, wildlife, and severe weather conditions are spread throughout the writing. Memories of the twenty-two canoes and kayaks used, and of the large ships that his canoe had been up close to on the Delaware River and Lake Erie are mentioned for the record. The voyagers who traveled with the author on unknown creeks and on week-long river journeys brought life to the activities of the day. Some of the many interesting people met along the highway of water are included in the writings. In the end, the author reviews some of the good and bad practices of canoe sport with the hopes of improving establishment thinking throughout the canoe/kayak fraternity. William V. Manual of Online Search Strategies C.J. Armstrong, J.A. Large, 2018-12-20 Published in 1992, like the first, this second edition is not intended as an introductory textbook, command-driven Boolean searching. It is targeted at online searchers who already have some knowledge of command languages and may be proficient searchers on databases in one or two subject areas but when required to venture into new and less familiar territory still need guidance. It is also offered to end users who possess the subject expertise but lack of information retrieval know-how. The Manual is offered as a guide to database selection and a navigational aid through the twists and turns of the retrieval maze; at least some of the dead ends and backtracking may thereby be avoided. This volume, written by experts in their various fields, deals with the subject coverage and record structures of specific databases, offers comparisons between databases context indexing procedures updating policies etc discusses the choice between online and CD ROM sources and between hosts if online is selected and illustrates strategies with numerous search extracts A manual of Grecian and Roman antiquities Ernst Friedrich Bojesen,1871 Mechanic's and Student's Guide in the Designing and Construction of General Gearing as Eccentrics, Screws, Toothed Wheels, Etc Francis Herbert Joynson,1868 House documents ,1891
