Philip Guston A New Alphabet The Late Transition:

Philip Guston Philip Guston, Joanna Weber, 2000 Philip Guston Craig Burnett, 2014-02-28 An illustrated examination of Philip Guston's comic and complex painting The Studio Throughout his career Philip Guston's work metamorphosed from figural to abstract and back to figural In the 1950s Guston 1913 1980 produced a body of shimmering abstract paintings that made him along with Willem de Kooning Jackson Pollock and Franz Kline an influential abstract expressionist of the gestural tendency In the late 1960s with works like The Studio came his most radical shift Drawing from the imagery of his early murals and from elements in his later drawings ignoring the prevailing coolness of Minimalism and antiform abstraction Guston invented for these late works a cast of cartoon like characters to articulate a vision that was at once comic crude and complex In The Studio Guston offers a darkly comic portrait of the artist as a hooded Ku Klux Klansman painting a self portrait In this concise and generously illustrated book Craig Burnett examines The Studio in detail He describes the historical and personal motivations for Guston's return to figuration and the mostly negative critical reaction to the work from Hilton Kramer and others He looks closely at the structure of The Studio and at the influence of Piero della Francesca Manet and Krazy Kat among others and he considers the importance of the column of smoke in the painting as a compositional device and as a ghost of abstraction and metaphysics The Studio signals not only Guston's own artistic evolution but a broader shift from the medium centric and teleological claim of modernism to the discursive carnivalesque and mucky world of postmodernism Philip Guston Philip Guston, 2010-12-15 This is the premier collection of dialogues talks and writings by Philip Guston 1913 1980 one of the most intellectually adventurous and poetically gifted of modern painters Over the course of his life Guston's wide reading in literature and philosophy deepened his commitment to his art from his early Abstract Expressionist paintings to his later gritty intense figurative works This collection with many pieces appearing in print for the first time lets us hear Guston's voice as the artist delivers a lecture on Renaissance painting instructs students in a classroom setting and discusses such artists and writers as Piero della Francesca de Chirico Picasso Kafka Beckett and Gogol Imagining Jewish Art Aaron Rosen, 2017-07-05 Short listed for the Art and Christian Enquiry Mercers International Book Award 2009 a book which makes an outstanding contribution to the dialogue between religious faith and the visual arts What does modern Jewish art look like Where many scholars critics and curators have gone searching for the essence of Jewish art in Biblical illustrations and other traditional subjects Rosen sets out to discover Jewishness in unlikely places How he asks have modern Jewish painters explored their Jewish identity using an artistic past which is by and large non Jewish In this new book we encounter some of the great works of Western art history through Jewish eyes We see Matthias Grunewald's Isenheim Altarpiece re imagined by Marc Chagall 1887 1985 traces of Paolo Uccello and Piero della Francesca in Philip Guston 1913 1980 and images by Diego Velazquez and Paul Cezanne studiously reworked by R B Kitaj 1932 2007 This highly comparative study draws on theological philosophical and literary sources from

Franz Rosenzweig to Franz Kafka and Philip Roth Rosen deepens our understanding not only of Chagall Guston and Kitaj but also of how art might serve as a key resource for rethinking such fundamental Jewish concepts as family tradition and homeland

Each One Another Rachel Haidu, 2023-07-28 A consideration of how contemporary art can offer a deeper understanding of selfhood With Each One Another Rachel Haidu argues that contemporary art can teach us how to understand ourselves as selves how we come to feel oneness to sense our own interiority and to shift between the roles that connect us to strangers those close to us and past and future generations Haidu looks to intergenerational pairings of artists to consider how three aesthetic vehicles shape in painting characters in film and video and roles in dance allow us to grasp selfhood Better understandings of our selves she argues complement our thinking about identity and subjecthood She shows how Philip Guston's figurative works explore shapes descriptive capacities and their ability to investigate history while Amy Sillman's paintings allow us to rethink expressivity and oneness Analyzing a 2004 video by James Coleman Haidu explores how we enter characters through their interior monologues and she also looks at how a 2011 film by Steve McQueen positions a protagonist's refusal to speak as an argument for our right to silence In addition Haidu examines how Anne Teresa de Keersmaecker's distribution of roles across dancers invites us to appreciate formal structures that separate us from one another while Yvonne Rainer's choreography shows how such formal structures also bring us together Through these examples Each One Another reveals how artworks allow us to understand oneness interiority and how we become fluid agents in the world and it invites us to examine critically and forgivingly our attachments to selfhood
