Guns, Gangsters and the Reduction of the Iverales rates — these are the same that have gone big in the United States.

17,000 guns captured and surrendered is a massive number indeed which has struck the attention of the world that is preoccupied with terrorism.

So too with gangsterism since it is a risk to take a stroll in Central Park or Rock Creek Park even in the daytime.

And the move to dismantle the hold of the oligarchs on our economy and thus our society and government — starting out with the Lopezco Iverales.

So we must continue the raids on the NPA warehouses for the explosives and arms we know they have.
and the heroin laboratories.

in captivity and emerged with a much lower death rate than most other Allied personnel captured in the Pacific In part Urwin says the answer lies in the Wake Islanders establishment of life saving communities that kept their dignity intact Their mutual help networks encouraged those who faltered under physical and psychological torture including what is today called water boarding The book notes that the Japanese camp official responsible for that war crime was sentenced to life imprisonment by an American military tribunal Most Wake Islanders spent the war at two camps just outside Shanghai one of the few places where Japanese authorities permitted the Red Cross to aid prisoners of war The author also calls attention to the generosity of civilians in Shanghai including Swiss diplomats and the American and British residents of the fabled International Settlement who provided food and clothing to the prisoners In addition some guards proved to be less vicious than those stationed at other POW camps and occasionally went out of their way to aid inmates As the first historical work to fully explore the captivity of Wake Island s defenders the book offers information not found in other World War II histories
