Phillip Island Murder:

The Phillip Island Murder Vikki Petraitis, Paul Daley, 2018-09-01 The discovery of the body of Beth Barnard in her Phillip Island farmhouse in 1986 began a homicide investigation that rocked a peaceful community. It also created an enduring mystery for no one was ever brought to trial for her brutal death and the main suspect disappeared never to be seen again. Beth Barnard, a popular and attractive 23-year-old, had been having an affair with a local married man. On the night of her brutal murder, a car belonging to Vivienne Cameron, wife of Beth's lover, was found abandoned near the bridge that connects the famous tourist island to the mainland. No trace of Vivienne was ever found, and her disappearance has never been adequately explained. Nevertheless, a Coroner's Court found that Vivienne had killed her rival, then jumped to her death into the waters of Westernport Bay. The case was closed but not forgotten. Ever since their first edition of The Phillip Island Murder in 1993, Vikki Petraitis and Paul Daley have been regularly contacted by people wanting to know more. People who like the authors let the case get under their skin. More than three decades later, the mystery, rumours, and armchair solutions continue. The Mysterious Phillip Island Murder, 2014 When 23-year-old Beth Barnard was discovered brutally murdered in a farmhouse in Phillip Island in 1986, her murder sparked an investigation that has haunted locals ever since. Her throat was cut, and she had a huge letter 'A' carved into her chest. On the same night that Beth died, another local woman, Vivienne Cameron, vanished off the face of the earth. A police investigation revealed that Beth had been having an affair with Vivienne's husband. What really happened that night remains one of Victoria's most baffling murder mysteries. Welcome to Crime Shots! 4 short, sharp true crime stories from Australia's past and present. The Frankston Serial Killer Vikki Petraitis, 2012-01-17 True crime account of the Australian serial killer Paul Denyer. The Frankston Murders Vikki Petraitis, 2018-09-01 Twenty-five years ago, serial killer Paul Denyer terrorised the bayside suburb of Frankston. Twenty-five years later, the trauma of his seven-week killing spree still haunts the community. The spate of murders in 1993 touched many more lives than just the three victims. All of Melbourne was gripped with fear as Frankston and surrounding suburbs were flooded with police hunting the serial killer of three young women. It began on June 11 when Elizabeth Stevens was murdered on her way home from the library. On July 8, Debbie Fream, who'd left her 12-day-old baby with a friend while she dashed out for milk, was abducted and killed. Three weeks later, Year 12 student Natalie Russell was brutally murdered on her way home from school. When Paul Denyer, an odd young man, was arrested the day after Natalie's body was found, the police and public were shocked by his lack of emotion. Denyer, who was only 21 years old, spoke of the three young women with contempt as he described their final moments. Their deaths had simply fuelled his bloodlust. Eleven years later, just as the public's memory of the Frankston murders began to fade, convicted serial killer Paul Denyer made front-page news with his quest to become a woman. The Frankston Murders 25 years on, details the shocking crimes and explores the lingering effects of what Denyer did. Now 25 years old, Debbie Fream's son Jake speaks for the first time about the loss of his mother. And Carmel and Brian

Russell share their dream for Denyer's ongoing incarceration as the killer of their child will be eligible to apply for parole for the first time in 2023

Inside the Law Vikki Petraitis, 2019-07-15 Vikki Petraitis took to writing true crime because unlike crime fiction it was so raw and it told the story of real people real grief real loss real horror A school teacher by day Vikki had no idea that writing one book about one unsolved murder would give her a second career that has run alongside her chosen profession for 25 years She has researched investigated and written about real Australian crimes from the well known to the obscure and interviewed countless police crime scene professionals victims survivors and families She did ride alongs with members of Victoria Police so she could learn about their most memorable cases and found herself right there with them when a serial killer's third victim was found Vikki spent time with the dog squad learning how the four legged police officers are trained to work with their two legged partners And she's become biographer to two well known former cops and to one of the many victims of institutional child abuse Her career as a true crime writer has resulted in 13 books and counting with subjects and titles as diverse as The Frankston Serial Killer Crime Scene Investigations Forensics Cops Once a Copper Brian the Skull Murphy and the one that started it all The Phillip Island Murder Inside the Law is Vikki's life in crime a collection of her favourite personally influential most memorable stories with a fresh narrative thread of the why when and how she came to write them
