Philosophical Imaginary

Mary D. Sheriff

Philosophical Imaginary:

The Philosophical Imaginary Michèle Le Doeuff, 1989 The Philosophical Imaginary teaches us how to read philosophy afresh Focusing on central but often undiscussed images Le Doeuff's patient perspicacious and always brilliant readings show us how to uncover the political unconscious at work in great philosophy Le Doeuff's contribution to philosophy and feminism is unequalled This book is a classic

The Philosophical Imaginary Michèle Le Doeuff, 1989 The Analytic Imaginary Marguerite La Caze, 2002 Noting the marked tendency of analytic philosophy to be unselfconscious about the use of figurative language and the levels at which it works La Caze shows how analytic images can work to limit debates and exclude differing approaches including feminist ones

Sexual Subversions Elizabeth Grosz, 2020-09-02 Sexual Subversions introduces the works of three well known if not well read French feminists Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray and Mieke Le Doeuff It provides a map of an area where there are few detailed discussion of the achievements of these difficult yet immensely rewarding writers In doing so this overview raises issues of general relevance to feminist research it participates in debates around the nature of feminist theory the relations feminist intellectuals have to male dominated knowledges and the strategies appropriate for developing non patriarchal autonomous or woman centred knowledges No book in French feminism would be complete without including the contributions of Kristeva and Irigaray The inclusion of Le Doeuff's work which brings a different perspective to bear on the question of sexual difference provides a counterbalance to literary appropriations of French feminism by Anglo American readerships Kristeva Irigaray and Le Doeuff are the focal points of this study precisely because each highlights the differences of the others revealing the frameworks to which the others are committed Nevertheless while these writers do not present a common political or theoretical position or form a school each addresses the question of women's autonomy from male definition affirms the sexual specificity of women seeks out a femininity women can use to question the patriarchal norms and ideals of femininity and rejects the preordained positions patriarchy allots to women

The Exceptional Woman Mary D. Sheriff, 1997-10-24 Elisabeth Vigée Lebrun 1755 1842 was an enormously successful painter a favorite portraitist of Marie Antoinette and one of the few women accepted into the Royal Academy of Painting and Sculpture In her role as an artist she was simultaneously flattered as a charming woman and vilified as monstrously unfeminine In the Exceptional Woman Mary D Sheriff uses Vigée Lebrun's career to explore the contradictory position of woman artist in the moral philosophical professional and medical debates about women in eighteenth century France Central to Sheriff's analysis is one key question given the cultural norms and social attitudes that regulated a woman's activities how could Vigée Lebrun conceive of herself as an artist and indeed become a successful one in old regime France Paying particular attention to painted and textual self portraits Sheriff shows how Vigée Lebrun's images and memoirs undermined the assumptions about woman and the strictures imposed on women Engaging ancien regime philosophy as well as modern feminism psychoanalysis literary theory and art criticism Sheriff's interpretations of Vigée Lebrun's paintings challenge us to rethink the work of this controversial woman artist Literature and Theology Dr Heather Walton, 2013-06-28 This book explores current trends in the interdisciplinary study of literature and theology an area of academic activity that has developed dramatically in the past twenty years The field of study originated from the impetus to embrace the richness of imaginative resources in theological reflection and was stimulated by the re emergence of the sacred in contemporary theory Since the mid 90s critical theory has undergone a number of significant transformations theology has become a subject of public concern and the boundaries between sacred and cultural texts have become increasingly unstable This book brings together the work of leading scholars in the field with that of emerging voices Offering an important resource for the growing number of postgraduate courses exploring the relation between religion and culture in the contemporary context this book delineates current trends in interdisciplinary debate as well as tracing emerging configurations Rethinking Art and Visual Culture Asbjørn Skarsvåg Grønstad, 2020-10-29 This is the first book to offer a systematic account of the concept of opacity in the aesthetic field Engaging with works by Ernie Gehr John Akomfrah Matt Saunders David Lynch Trevor Paglen Zach Blas and Low the study considers the cultural epistemological and ethical values of images and sounds that are fuzzy indeterminate distorted degraded or otherwise indistinct Rethinking Art and Visual Culture shows how opaque forms of art address problems of mediation knowledge and information It also intervenes in current debates about new systems of visibility and surveillance by explaining how indefinite art provides a critique of the positivist drive behind these regimes A timely contribution to media theory cinema studies American studies and aesthetics the book presents a novel and extensive analysis of the politics of transparency Emerging Aesthetic Imaginaries Lene M. Johannessen, Mark Ledbetter, 2018-12-31 Emerging Aesthetic Imaginaries considers aesthetic imaginaries as they constitute and are constituted by and in our shared realities With contributions from twelve scholars working in the fields of literary studies visual studies anthropology cultural studies and digital culture this book takes a multidisciplinary approach to aesthetic imaginaries which tests the conceptual potential from an array of perspectives and methodologies It probes into the continuous creation and re creation of figures for the future that invariably nod to their pasts whether with a spirit of respect disgust hope or play It is particularly in the intersections between ideas and formations of shared realities and what Ranjan Ghosh has called entangled figurations that the full and intricate promise of the aesthetic imaginary as analytic and conceptual prism comes into its own As the chapters in this collection demonstrate knots of various aesthetic imaginaries disseminate and manifest variously across place and time to weave and interweave again and to offer themselves in each instance as contours so far of cultural and aesthetic histories Data Loam Johnny Golding, Martin Reinhart, Mattia Paganelli, 2020-12-16 As a reaction to the dominant effect and interpretive authority of the digital Data Loam combines radical approaches based on positions taken in the international practice of contemporary art Previously insistence on indexicality and the instrumental reduction of knowledge Instead a new metric that requires play curiosity experiment and risk As an urgent response to the continually growing flood of information that libraries search engines and cultural institutions are exposed to the authors develop approaches that suggest and permit sensual logic causal permeability and new forms of man machine interaction Data Loam focuses on the future of knowledge systems in texts about artificial intelligence cybernetics and cryptoeconomics as a means of counteracting end of the world fears Philosophy and the Maternal Body Michelle Boulous Walker,2002-01-22 Philosophy and the Maternal Body gives a new voice to the mother and the maternal body which have often been viewed as silent within philosophy Michelle Boulous Walker clearly shows how some male theorists have appropriated maternity and suggests new ways of articulating the maternal body and women s experience of pregnancy and motherhood The Routledge Companion to Feminist Philosophy Ann Garry,Serene J. Baiasu,G. Bird,A. Moore,2012-02-07 Responding to growing interest in the Kantian tradition and in issues concerning space and time this volume offers an insightful and original contribution to the literature by bringing together analytical and phenomenological approaches in a productive exchange on topical issues such as action perception the body and cognition and its limits Love and Vulnerability Pelagia Goulimari,2021-05-15 Love and Vulnerability Thinking with Pamela Sue

Anderson developed out of the desire for dialogue with the late feminist philosopher Pamela Sue Anderson's extraordinary previously unpublished last work on love and vulnerability. The collection publishes this work for the first time with a diverse multidisciplinary international range of contributors responding to it to Anderson's oeuvre as a whole and to her life and death. Anderson's path-breaking work includes A Feminist Philosophy of Religion 1998 and Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion: Reason, Love, and Epistemic Locatedness 2012. Her last work critiques then attempts to rebuild concepts of love and vulnerability. Reason, critical self-reflexivity, emotion, intuition, and imagination, myth and narrative all have a role to play. Social justice, friendship, conversation, dialogue, collective work are central to her thinking. Contributors trace the emergence of Anderson's late thinking, extend her conversations with the history of philosophy and contemporary voices such as hooks and Butler, and bring her work into contact with debates in theology, Continental and analytic philosophy, feminist, queer, and transgender theory, postcolonial theory, African American studies. Discussions engage with the Me Too movement and sexual violence, climate change, sweatshops, neoliberalism, death and dying, and the nature of the human. Originally published as a special issue of the journal Angelaki, this large wide-ranging collection featuring a number of distinguished contributors makes a significant contribution to the burgeoning interdisciplinary research on interpersonal relations, sympathy and empathy, affect and emotion.

Explorations in Contemporary Continental Philosophy of Religion, 2021-10-25 This book is an exploration of the content and dimensions of contemporary Continental philosophy of religion. It is also a showcase of the work of some of the philosophers who are by their scholarship filling out the meaning of the term Continental philosophy of religion.

Social Theory Peter Beilharz, 2020-07-22 An alluvial goldfield of social theorists' nuggets lying around all over the place. Bob Connell: Who's who in the social theory zoo. This book introduces some of the leading social theorists in short, lively entries by leading Australian scholars. Social Theory covers thinkers from Althusser to Williams, by locals from Alexander to Yeatman. Ordering Emotions in Europe, 1100-1800 Susan Broomhall, 2015-09-01 Ordering Emotions in Europe, 1100-1800 investigates how emotions were conceptualised and practised in the medieval and early modern period as they ordered systems of thought and practice from philosophy and theology, music and literature to science and medicine. Analysing discursive, psychic and bodily dimensions of emotions as they were experienced, performed and narrated, authors explore how emotions were understood to interact with more abstract intellectual capacities in producing systems of thought and how these key frameworks of the medieval and early modern period were enacted by individuals as social and emotional practices, acts and experiences of everyday life. Contributors are Han Baltussen, Susan Broomhall, Louis C Charland, Louise D Arcens, Rapha le Garrod, Yasmin Haskell, Danijela Kambaskovic, Clare Monagle, Juanita Feros Ruys, Fran ois Soyer, Robert Weston, Carol J Williams, R S White, and

Spencer E Young The Other Helen Fielding, Gabrielle Hiltmann, Dorothea Olkowski, Anne Reichold, 2007-04-25 The western philosophical tradition has only recently explored alterity in particular the alterity of woman as the other of man This volume reflects on the ethical implications of this and on the need for a rethinking of the implicit structures of Western philosophy which exclude women as subjects who conceptualize the world and society Continental Philosophy David West, 2010-12-28 Previous ed published as An introduction to Continental philosophy 1996
