Rage, Power, and Aggression Robert A. Glick, Steven P. Roose, Steven T. Roose, 1993-01-01 Rage aggression and the will to power are significant human characteristics that have been relatively neglected in psychoanalytic literature In the past rage has been viewed as a response to threat or frustration aggression as an instinctual drive and the will to power as causing destructive and maladaptive behavior In this volume the authors probe these dimensions of human experience to show how they serve adaptive needs assuage anxiety protect against threat and foster maturation Florence 98,
