Rags And Again Rags:

From Stray Dog to World War I Hero Grant Hayter-Menzies, 2015-11-01 On the streets of Paris one day in July 1918 an American doughboy Sgt Jimmy Donovan befriended a stray dog that he named Rags No longer an unwanted street mutt Rags became the mascot to the entire First Division of the American Expeditionary Force and a friend to the American troops who had crossed the Atlantic to fight Rags was more than a scruffy face and a wagging tail however The little terrier mix was with the division at the crucial battle of Soissons at the Saint Mihiel offensive and finally in the blood and mud bath of the Meuse Argonne during which he and his guardian were wounded Despite being surrounded by distraction and danger Rags learned to carry messages through gunfire locate broken communications wire for the Signal Corps to repair and alert soldiers to incoming shells saving the lives of hundreds of American soldiers Through it all he brought inspiration to men with little to hope for especially in the bitter last days of the war From Stray Dog to World War I Hero covers Rags s entire life story from the bomb filled years of war through his secret journey to the United States that began his second life one just as filled with drama and heartache In years of peace Rags served as a reminder to human survivors of what held men together when pushed past their limits by the horrors of battle Watch a book trailer No Regrets Jerry E.

Fisher, 2009-06-17 Whether you are a martial artist a historian an avid reader of biographies or just looking for a humorous interesting read Fisher s work offers a true look at the life and times of a an American martial artist Born in the middle of the Great Depression his recollections of life and experiences wrapped around a lifelong love of combat and martial arts training is truly fascinating The work is peppered with many amusing anecdotes and memories and a view of American life in that wonderful period of the late 20th century in America His colorful life ranged across the United States and to many foreign countries as he pursued his passion for martial arts and brought him into contact with many interesting characters some of them quite well known to most readers At the time of this writing he continues to teach and practice at his school in the mountain ski resort town of Big Bear Lake California Many well known martial artists visit him frequently He offers training in self defense mixed martial arts for present day UFC and WEC fighters as well as boxing kick boxing and the traditional martial arts Settle in for an unusual experience as Fisher shares his life and stories with you Read about The making of the Karate Kid from the man who was the Tournament Consultant responsible for creating the tournament scenes for the film The formation of the TPA the Tournament Promoters Association The adventures of the first American martial artist in mainland China in 1975 The experience of the saving of the half American Vietnamese orphans during the fall of Saigon The producer of many years of Ed Parker s Internationals Dozens of hilarious inside stories including many famous martial artists
