back in print with new maps photos details and afterword Christine Jerome walked into the Adirondack Museum in Blue Mountain Lake NY and promptly fell in love with a 9 foot 10 pound canoe named the Sairy Gamp More than a century before in 1883 the Sairy Gamp had been paddled and portaged through the Adirondacks by a sixty one year old writer named George Washington Sears his pen name was Nessmuk The more Jerome learned about Sears the more she wanted to follow his route despite her lack of camping or canoeing experience In August 1990 she embarked in a 9 foot canoe made of Kevlar and with her husband John accompanying her in a slightly larger boat set off to retrace Sears s journey An Adirondack Passage is part social history part natural history part biography of Sears and part chronicle of a voyage Summer turns to fall while the Jeromes make their way north through sunshine and storms down cottage lined lakes and lonely wild streams Gusting winds bully their light canoes and by mid September the days are colder and shorter but the longer they paddle the more attached they become to the beauty around them Canada geese fly overhead monarch butterflies flutter southward and on the larger lakes young loons gather for their first migration to the sea Along the way the author pauses to tell us what

Sears saw when he passed by and what happened to his favorite haunts in the ensuing century As the history of the region unfolds we meet hermits and millionaires hunting guides and society women hotelkeepers and dime novel writers and one lost dancing bear Christine Jerome has given us a memorable wilderness experience that readers who have never lifted a paddle will find fascinating and invigorating This new release from Breakaway Books is the third edition revised and updated with extra photos maps and a new afterword PRAISE FOR AN ADIRONDACK PASSAGE A fine piece of work and a great delight John McPhee An enchanting record of a canoe trip The New Yorker A writer of fine and watertight prose An Adirondack Passage is uncategorizable at once history naturalism sociology and a love story but unfailingly graceful Boston Globe Personal witty and thoughtful one of the best introductions to the area ever produced Audubon As refreshing a break from the busyness of life as I've come across in awhile Newsday The writing is a constant pleasure Jerome has a style that suits her subject quiet and gentle as a paddle in still water She delivers her lore with wit and whimsy with fine descriptions and without shrill preaching or righteous posturing Smithsonian The closest thing to a national nonfiction best seller that the region has seen in ages and deservedly so Adirondack Life A captivating account She takes us into a world of hermits and millionaires of wild streams and glorious mountain scenery Publishers Weekly A delightful tale An informative readable adventure whose history and environmental lessons are taught well Library Journal
