World Order Transition and the Atlantic Area Fulvio Attinà, 2021-01-20. This book examines the current phase of world order transition in the Atlantic area focusing on Europe and Northern America, Asia and Africa. In particular, it describes four processes of world order transition: namely, the decreasing American leadership, the rising power of China, the receding effectiveness of economy and security world policies and the continued but inadequate operation of the world policy making institutions. Part one of the book presents perspectives on world order transition developed by political science schools: i.e. the world hegemony and the power transition school and by the experts of complexity theory, a newcomer in social sciences. These theories are best suited to explain the order transition and to supply consistent complementary data and insights on the juncture of the four processes pushing for the creation of the new world order. Part two looks into the impact of order transition on the Atlantic area. The authors focus on the existing tensions and the potentials for change that affect the long time relations between the USA, the European countries and Canada. At the same time, the interference of China into the politics and economy of Europe is analyzed in particular through a case study of the relations between China and the Baltic states.

The Strategy of World Order: Toward a theory of war prevention Richard A. Falk, Saul H. Mendlovitz, 1966. In China the Emperor is Chinese and all his subjects are Chinese too. In his beautiful porcelain palace his most precious treasure was a nightingale who sang in a sweet ravishing voice.

Rethinking Regionalism Fredrik Söderbaum, 2017-10-25. Since the late 1980s there has been a global upsurge of various forms of regionalist projects. The widening and deepening of the European Union (EU) is the most prominent example, but there has also been a revitalization or expansion of many other regionalist projects as well, such as the African Union (AU), the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN), the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) and the Southern Common Market (Mercosur). More or less every government in the world is engaged in regionalism, which also involves a rich variety of business and civil society actors resulting in a multitude of regional processes in most fields of contemporary politics. In this new text, Fredrik Söderbaum draws on decades of scholarship to provide a major reassessment of regionalism and to address questions about its origins, logic and consequences. By examining regionalism from historical, spatial, comparative and global perspectives, Rethinking Regionalism transcends the deep intellectual and disciplinary rivalries that have limited our knowledge about the subject.

This broad ranging approach enables new and challenging answers to emerge as to why and how regionalism evolves and consolidates how it can be compared and what its ongoing significance is for a host of issues within global politics from security and trade to development and the environment Retaining a balanced and authoritative style throughout this text will be welcomed for its uniquely comprehensive examination of regionalism in the contemporary global age The Strategy of World Order: E: Arms Control and Disarmament in International Law Richard A. Falk, Saul H. Mendlovitz, 1966 In China the Emperor is Chinese and all his subjects are Chinese too In his beautiful porcelain palace his most precious treasure was a nightingale who sang in a sweet ravishing voice
