Reinventing Richard Nixon Daniel E. Frick,2008 Examining Nixon s autobiographies and political memorabilia Frick offers far reaching perceptions not only of the man but of Nixon s version of himself contrasted with those who would interpret him differently He cites reinventions of Nixon from the late 1980s particularly the museum at the Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace to demonstrate the resilience of certain national mythic narratives in the face of liberal critiques And he recounts how celebrants at Nixon s state funeral at which Bob Dole s eulogy depicted a God fearing American hero attempted to bury the sources of our divisions over him rendering in some minds the judgment of redeemed statesman to erase his status as disgraced president With dozens of illustrations Nixon posing with Elvis the National Archives most requested photo Nixonian cultural artifacts classic editorial cartoons no other book collects in one place such varied images of Nixon from so many diverse media These reinforce Frick s probing analysis to help us understand why we disagree about Nixon and why it matters how we resolve our disagreements BOOK JACKET Girl, Ultra-Processed Amara Sage,2025-01-14 A searing look at diet culture and all its ugly consequences from the talented writer of Influential Girls like Sydney don t get rejected because girls like Sydney aren t real when I m Sydney my body doesn t matter I m wearing hers Saffron Saldana can t stop comparing herself to the other women in her life and she only feels good when she is catfishing boys online She welcomes in the New Year wishing she was as desirable as her best friend Poppy or as confident as her SlimIt coach mother But when Saffron takes on an alter ego Sydney an impossibly beautiful AI generated Instagram model she finds she has control over how others perceive her for the first time in a long time and she likes the power Pretending to be Sydney seems like a bit of harmless fun but suddenly Saffron finds she is in too deep with no idea how to stop what she has set in motion Girl Ultra Processed explores what it is like to be a teenage girl in our current body obsessed world while juggling family drama friend dynamics dating betrayals and major life changes REINVENT Mike Kinch,2014-04 Reinvent is all about personal transformation encouraging you to mature in life from wherever you are at to be everything you can be to do everything you can do for the first twenty of his adult years Mike was a confirmed agnostic however in the last twenty plus he has transformed into a mature Christian Each chapter embraces a life principle challenging you to change a particular aspect of your life filled with illustrations from his personal journey Packed with wisdom to become a better person to facilitate your achieving your destiny in life to leave a legacy for generations to come Reinvented Lives Charles Handy,Elizabeth Handy,2011-03-31 Twenty eight women ranging from Anita Roddick and Prue Leith to less well known names write their own personal stories which are accompanied by Elizabeth Handy s black and white photographs and an introductory essay by Charles Handy This generation of women is entering the sixties more healthy more educated and more energetic than most of their mothers The subjects in this book provide the models for what has become for the first time a new age for many women Released from most of the cares and responsibilities that accompany midlife for women they are free to reinvent themselves to give more time to their career or calling or to luxuriate in the serenity and friendships that few had time for in the past Some enter new relationships some start new careers or go back to study some find that their work is only now reaching its peak Many have survived traumas and tragedies but the past is just the prologue as one of them explains Reinventing Mum Caroline Plaisted,2000 Hannah is 15 and her mother has fallen apart since her father left her for a younger woman Sally Billy her brother isn t much help when it comes to supporting their mother either Slowly her mother stops crying and starts to rebuild her life Mum's the Word Sue Kedgley,Susan Jane Kedgley,1996 Account of New Zealand motherhood over the past century Back cover This Road Will Take Us Closer to

Chinese Language and Culture Education Chunyan Zhang, 2024-04-02 Against the background of the Australian government's strategic plan to promote Asian languages in schools this book is an innovative autoethnographic inquiry into what actually occurs in the implementation of a Chinese language and culture program in an Australian context Drawing on eight years of socio cultural and educational fieldwork in a primary school Chunyan Zhang examines complex fluid and heterogeneous daily teaching practices and the ways in which ideas of China are assembled presented and performed She asks the following questions What is China Where does Taiwan fit into the China depicted in a multicultural globalised classroom Can Chinese communism or Chairman Mao be avoided in teaching English speaking learners What kind of China is brought in here while what kind of China is being silenced and othered Through the partial connection between method assemblage and Daoist concepts Zhang develops a water like pedagogy in teaching She uses the knowledge flow model to examine the imbalanced knowledge flow within teacher student interactions From finding China as a hybrid assemblage to proposing China as method Zhang's investigation makes an important contribution to the sociology of Chinese language education This book is an essential and rich content resource for primary and secondary teacher education and research teacher candidates and educators in Chinese as a second language education

Fiction, Film, and Indian Popular Cinema Florian Stadler, 2013-10-30 This book analyses the novels of Salman Rushdie and their stylistic conventions in the context of Indian popular cinema and its role in the elaboration of the author's arguments about post independence postcolonial India Focusing on different genres of Indian popular cinema such as the Social Mythological and Historical Stadler examines how Rushdie's writing foregrounds the epic the mythic the tragic and the comic linking them in storylines narrated in cinematic parameters The book shows that Indian popular cinema's syncretism becomes an aesthetic marker in Rushdie's fiction that allows him to elaborate on the multiplicity of Indian identity both on the subcontinent and abroad and illustrates how Rushdie uses Indian popular cinema in his narratives to express an aesthetics of hybridity and a particular conceptualization of culture with which India has become identified in a global context Also highlighted are Rushdie's uses of cinema to inflect his reading of India as a pluralist nation and of the hybrid space occupied by the Indian diaspora across the world The book connects Rushdie's storylines with modes of cinematic representation to explore questions about the role place and space of the individual in relation to a fast changing social economic and political space in India and the wider world
