Dialectics of Faith-Culture Integration Michael Muonwe, 2014-02-21 This book navigates the contours of cultural and theological hermeneutics in order to critique affirm as well as reconceptualise the vital underpinnings and subtleties of faith culture intercourse and reciprocation It questions claims to effective inculturation by theologians and church authorities even as it acknowledges the inevitability of the tension between inculturation process and syncretic formations It is an irresistible asset for teachers and students of theology cultural and religious studies for pastors and missionaries and for all Christians in need of finding Christian beliefs and practices more meaningful to them in their daily lives The hope is that it challenges the straitjacketed conceptual and pastoral frameworks that have often characterised the church's evangelisation initiatives and assists in making Christian faith a concrete and living possession of every age and culture Michael Muonwe is a priest of the Catholic diocese of Awka Nigeria He holds Licentiate and Doctorate in Theology and Religious Studies from the Catholic University of Leuven Belgium He obtained Bachelors in Philosophy from Bigard Memorial Seminary Enugu Nigeria Michael also holds Diplomas in Mass Communication and Education He has authored a number of articles and is an editor of a book His major research interest is the often convoluted relationship and interplay between religion and the contemporary culture His research on the relationship between Christianity feminism and culture will soon be published in two volumes On the present book Prof Annemie Dillen of the Catholic University of Leuven affirms This is a must read book for local church leaders theologians and everyone involved in pastoral work It challenges the reader to give up a longing for security and finding answers in fixed rules or the so called universal truths and invites him or her to an in depth study of cultural practices and beliefs The overview of the discussions on inculturation and the reality or sometime maybe phantom of syncretism is very illuminating and thought provoking Thomas F Magill asserts A timely and well balanced study of the theology of inculturation as understood in the Roman Catholic tradition offering new and fresh insights situated in the cusp between the Benedict XVI's emphasis on the relationship between faith and reason and the problem of relativism and Francis I's desire for a poor church for the poor T F Magill L S S Ph D parish priest of the Diocese of Motherwell formerly a Lecturer in New Testament Studies at the University of Glasgow

Indigenous Religion and Cultural Performance in the New Maya World Garrett W. Cook, Thomas A. Offit, 2013-06-15 Based on more than thirty years of ethnographic fieldwork in Highland Guatemala this study of Maya diviners shamans ritual dancers and religious brotherhoods describes the radical changes in traditional Maya religious practice wrought by economic globalization and political turmoil Focusing on the primary participants in the annual festival in the K'iche' Maya village of Santiago Momostenango the authors show how older religious traditionalists and the new generation of cultural activist religious practitioners interact within a single local community and how their competing agendas for adapting Maya religiosity to a new and continually changing political economy are perpetuating and changing Maya religious traditions

Play and Power in Religion André Droogers, 2011-11-30 At a religion's margins a counterpoint can be found for its power center In a creative manner relatively free from clerical control religious virtuosos take new initiatives there Inspired by their experience with the sacred they explore their liberty to play with meanings images and practices Yet the eventual success of such an innovation calls for organization and thus for the exercise of power Accordingly new movements slow down into institutions till a new virtuoso brings the cycle to a fresh start Over the last thirty years Andr Droogers has extensively published on the relation between religion power and play In this collection of essays the most relevant articles are reprinted For this volume Droogers wrote an autobiographical introduction showing how the contingencies of a career may nevertheless lead to a more or less consistent approach In Part I of the book articles are included that represent the basic ideas of Droogers approach with an emphasis on margin inversion ritual and meaning making In part II some of his articles on syncretism and Pentecostalism illustrate his views Part III contains articles that apply the play and power perspective to methodological issues in the study of religion

The Embattled but Empowered Community Wilma Wells Davies, 2010-04-27 The global phenomenon of Pentecostal growth continues to interest scholars particularly its local manifestations Although previous explanations may have noted the connections between the cultural substrata and local Pentecostal practices this book concentrates on seeking out the connections Using both extensive field research and reflection on Latin American scholarship the author proposes that a major link exists at the level of worldview assumptions particularly in understandings of spiritual power The book concludes with a reflection on the implications a conversion based on the search for spiritual power has for the future of the evangelical church in Latin America

Playful Religion A. F. Droogers, 2006 Playful Religion explores the concept of play as it appears within the rituals and practices of various religions from around the world such as Latin American Pentecostalism and the African religion of Candomblé. Despite the seriousness of the issues religion generally deals with this book demonstrates that the idea of play is an essential part of religious life across cultures and throughout history. Making use of case studies that focus on contemporary religious choices, religious syncretism and the fate of religion in Western Europe Playful Religion is an in depth look at the changing and highly imaginative face of global religion.

Religious Diversity in Post-Soviet Society Ingo W Schröder, Dr Milda Ališauskiene, 2013-06-28 Since the end of state repression against religion two major processes have taken place in the formerly socialist countries: historically dominant churches strive to reassert their position in society while new religious groups and ideas from various parts of the world are proliferating. This generates pluralism of religious communities and individual religious attitudes. Religious Diversity in Post Soviet Society presents the first collection of ethnographies of this new religious diversity for Lithuania, a country that has a long history of a dominant Catholic Church. The authors reveal how Catholicism has become increasingly diversified and other religions: Charismatic Protestantism, Baltic Paganism, Eastern religions and other alternative spiritualities are claiming their space in the religious field.

Farhadian, 2014-03-06 The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion offers a comprehensive exploration of the dynamics of religious conversion which for centuries has profoundly shaped societies, cultures and individuals throughout the world. Scholars from a wide array of religions and disciplines interpret both the varieties of conversion experiences and the processes that inform this personal and communal phenomenon. The thirty two innovative essays provide overviews of the history of particular religions including Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Sikhism, Islam, Christianity, Judaism, indigenous religions and new religious movements.
