Reinvigorating Faith In Communities:

Reinvigorating Faith in Communities Amy L. Sherman, 2002 This volume collects several of Amy Sherman's published and unpublished reflections on faith based welfare reform Part One establishes why public policy makers should care about the faith community including both a discussion of the specific contributions religious institutions are making to solve social problems and an analysis of how religious institutions are strengthening society's moral and cultural fiber Part Two describes models of faith in action giving a human face to the issue while reminding readers that the policy debate over faith based organizations is about improving service to the needy Later sections specifically address government faith collaboration highlighting general principles and specific lessons learned from a variety of efforts in the last five years concluding with specific recommendations for unleashing the power of faith based organizations

Faith-based Social Services Stephanie C. Boddie, Ram A. Cnaan, 2006 The Charitable Choice provision and the Bush Administration's National Faith Based Initiative have broadened the scope of social services delivered through faith based organizations There are expectations that these faith based social service providers will be more effective but how should that effectiveness be measured Faith Based Social Services Measures Assessments and Effectiveness explains the nature and quality of religion based social service delivery while serving as a point of reference for future research and work This unique source tackles the important complex issue of measuring the effectiveness of faith based social services in comparison to secular services while providing analysis of the latest available studies pressing management and policy challenges facing nonprofit organizations today To Transform a City Eric Swanson, Sam Williams, 2010 To Transform a City is a valuable guide for those who dream big about the spiritual and social changes possible for the cities and towns that surround their churches Two visionary leaders examine the foundations history theology and practical methods of community transformation Faith-based Organizations (FBOS) and Community Crime Control Initiatives Shani P. Gray, 2005 Winning Grants to Strengthen Your Ministry Joy Skjegstad, 2007-05-28 Ministry leaders possess the compassion creativity and knowledge about community needs that grant funders appreciate Yet ministry groups are often less experienced than other types of nonprofit organizations in discerning which funding to seek understanding how to build relationships with funders and putting together proposals This book offers a pathway to strengthening new and existing ministries Joy Skjegstad is an experienced grant proposal writer who has successfully raised money for a variety of nonprofits over the past 20 years including a number of ministry organizations She shows how fundraising can be an integral part of ministry forcing us into deeper conversation with God expanding our relationships with others and building both our faith and our discipline Providing detailed guidance on the practical aspects of seeking grants from foundation and corporate funders Skjegstad describes approaches for researching potential funders developing a case statement putting together an effective grant proposal and following up with grant makers She explains the types of grants available and how to determine which are a good fit with your ministry For faith based ministries faith is the groundwork for fundraising the most important thing to consider while developing fundraising values and strategies Skjegstad helps faith communities identify their own cultural beliefs follow spiritual disciplines and cultivate generous hearts as they work toward integrating their faith and their fundraising Street Saints Barbara J. Elliott, 2004-09 Based on eight years of hands on experience and more than 300 interviews Street Saints is both a book of motivational stories about unsung heroes and a sociological study of the faith factor documenting faith based programs that are treating social maladies in America This book takes readers on a tour of communities and institutions in America where faith based initiatives are making a difference It offers inspiration role models and guidelines for people who would like to give back to their own communities Transformation and Development of Human Society: Robert Munthali, 2014-10-31 In this book the promovendus investigates the critical role a preacher and his her homilies have in bringing transformation development and healing in the human society The investigation shows how a preacher has been sidelined on issues of progress when from time immemorial he she has been a critical and pivotal component in the phenomenon The study is an attempt to reclaim a preachers role in bringing progress and healing in underdeveloped communities through homilies particularly in Venda rural South Africa This book proposes a preacher as the transformer developer and healer of the people Emerging Voices, Urgent Choices, 2006-02-01 The strength of U S Hispanic churches is an untold story documented in Emerging Voices Urgent Choices Essays on Latino a Religious Leadership In this pioneering volume experts from various disciplines examine the remarkable contribution of Hispanic churches to U S society and the challenges their leaders face in serving the country's growing Latino population Chapters analyze success stories in Latino a ministry specific issues for Catholic leadership and Protestant denominations and the political and community serving activities of diverse congregations Together the essays demonstrate how Hispanic churches of every denomination are generating social capital in neglected communities The book updates previous research on religion that largely ignores U S Latino as and adds a new dimension to Latino Studies scholarship by recognizing the important role that religion plays in Hispanic life Contributors are Rebecca Burwell Jackson W Carroll Kenneth G Davis Gast n Espinosa Mary L Gautier Mark M Gray Andrew Hern ndez Edwin I Hern ndez Philip E Lampe Adair Lummis Melissa D Mauldin Milagros Pe a Marciana Popescu Juan Carlos Rivera and Amy L Sherman Encyclopedia of Social Work ,1965 Transforming Faith Communities Michael Ian Bochenski,2017-09-28 Transforming Faith Communities draws upon a model for the church that combines congregationalism with a constructive approach to church state relationships within a vision for a renewed Christendom commended as a viable option for Christian mission in the twenty first century world Michael Ian Bochenski uses two movements to make his case sixteenth century Anabaptism and late twentieth century Latin American liberation theology Each movement is held up as a mirror to the other in a vision for the transformation of church and society that resonates powerfully with contemporary culture Outlining the development of radical religious communities Bochenski examines some of the factors that create world affirming Christian faith communities and explores many examples of effective and constructive engagement with church and society across the centuries Congregational Music, Conflict and Community Jonathan Dueck,2017-04-28 Congregational Music Conflict and Community is the first study of the music of the contemporary worship wars conflicts over church music that continue to animate and divide Protestants today to be based on long term in person observation and interviews It tells the story of the musical lives of three Canadian Mennonite congregations who sang together despite their musical differences at the height of these debates in the late 1990s and early 2000s Mennonites are among the most music centered Christian groups in North America and each congregation felt deeply about the music they chose as their own The congregations studied span the spectrum from traditional to blended to contemporary worship styles and from evangelical to liberal Protestant theologies At their core the book argues worship wars are not fought in order to please congregants musical tastes nor to satisfy the theological principles held by a denomination Instead the relationships and meanings shaped through individuals experiences singing in the particular ways afforded by each style of worship are most profoundly at stake in the worship wars As such this book will be of keen interest to scholars working across the fields of religious studies and ethnomusicology The Grace of Playing Courtney T. Goto,2016-02-10 Believers and teachers of faith regularly know the in breaking of God s Spirit in their midst when revelatory experiencing unexpectedly shifts habits of thinking feeling and doing toward more life giving ways of being and becoming When the moment is right Spirit breathes new life into dry bones Though religious educators have much practical wisdom about facilitating learning that is creative and transformative sharper concepts cases and theory can help them do it more critically and assist learners to practice openness to wonder surprise and authenticity The Grace of Playing explains how we can create the conditions for revelatory experiencing by understanding it in light of playing The notion of playing as if can be powerfully reclaimed from ecclesial ambivalence casual speech and commercial interests that often lead playing to be associated with childishness frivolity or entertainment This book theorizes adults playing for the sake of faith drawing on D W Winnicott's psychoanalytic theory a revision of Jurgen Moltmann's theology of play biblical texts medieval devotional practices as well as art and aesthetics that help local faith communities engage in theological reflection

Communal forms of playing in at God's new creation provide insights into pedagogies in which learners are creating and are created anew Faith in Action Richard L. Wood, 2002-09-15 Over the past fifteen years associations throughout the U S have organized citizens around issues of equality and social justice often through local churches But in contrast to President Bush's vision of faith based activism in which groups deliver social services to the needy these associations do something greater Drawing on institutions of faith they reshape public policies that neglect the disadvantaged To find out how this faith based form of community organizing succeeds Richard L Wood spent several years working with two local groups in Oakland California the faith based Pacific Institute for Community Organization and the race based Center for Third World Organizing Comparing their activist techniques and achievements Wood argues that the alternative cultures and strategies of these two groups give them radically different access to community ties and social capital Creative and insightful Faith in Action shows how community activism and religious organizations can help build a more just and democratic future for all Americans

Human Development and Faith (Second Edition) Felicity B. Kelcourse, 2015-07-28 This book now in its second edition brings together the best available understandings of human development from a multidisciplinary perspective Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of context and life cycle development Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind body family community and soul at every stage of development It addresses two central questions What are the good enough conditions of parenting family and community in each phase of life from birth to death which support growth and development What gives life adequate meaning as development proceeds If human development describes the normative and hoped for passages of life then faith provides the necessary component of meaning Throughout the various perspectives offered in this volume is the premise that faith is that quality of living that makes it possible to fully live The Journal of Pastoral Theology called the first edition of Human Development and Faith an excellent text for pastoral theology courses because it fulfills its ambitious goal of bringing a holistic faith perspective to the usual topics of development This second edition includes a new chapter on infancy updates reflecting our growing awareness of cultural diversity and a new preface Community Building in the Twenty-first Century Stanley Hyland (Ph. D.), 2005

Community has long been a critical concept for social scientists and never more so amid the growing economic inequity natural and human disasters and warfare of the opening years of the twenty first century In this volume leading scholar activists develop a conceptual framework for both the theory and practice of building communities Rethinking the very concept in light of technological change and globalization they examine local responses to worldwide trends study the ways that communities generate and use resources and evaluate existing theories and approaches to community building to determine the best strategies for fostering community strength and vitality Their work with groups ranging from refugees religious charities and poor urban neighborhoods to tribal peoples international corporations and public health agencies demonstrates that local communities contain the seeds for a more desirable future and suggests how we may encourage those seeds to grow

The Millennial Narrative Jaco J. Hamman, 2019-02-05 A good education will land you a good job Be an entrepreneur Start something in a garage or dorm room and even Jesus saves are narratives that collapsed for the millennial generation born 1982 2002 These narratives amongst many similar social and religious ones have lost their meaning and power as millennials question all authorities and struggle to flourish in a world come of age With their needs for community and success a strong spirituality and believing that their gifts should be recognized and can make a difference millennials increasingly find meaning and purpose outside the church As they face economic uncertainty reduced career prospects unceasing change as well as civic global and ecological uncertainties however a large number of millennials are overwhelmed with feelings of anxiety and depression Caught between hope and fear millennials leave the church with their values of personal transformation purpose community spirituality social transformation and ecological awareness Ironically the church often holds the same values The Millennial Narrative is written for pastoral leaders who want to welcome millennials both inside and outside their congregation The book draws on the wisdom of the prophetic Book of Joel as a narrative worth living into Drawing on Joel s three chapters The Millennial Narrative empowers pastoral leaders to Facilitate the work of mourning Millennials are facing Envision a spiritual community that can welcome millennials Introduce a compassionate God that restores and indwells as the Spirit Reflect on God s judgment through the lens of accountability and Support and encourage millennials to be a blessing to others In addition pastoral leaders will receive a sermon outline and material for adult education

Faith, Hope, Love, and Justice Anselm K. Min, 2018-03-28 Faith hope and love traditionally called theological virtues are central to Christianity This book renews faith hope and love in the context of the many contemporary challenges in many unique ways It is an ecumenical collection of papers equally divided between Catholic and Protestant positions that seek to radically renew the classical doctrine of faith hope and love and argues for their essential connection to the praxis of justice It contains eight different approaches each represented by a distinguished theologian and addressing different aspects of the issues and followed by insightful and critical responses It does not merely seek to renew the theological virtues but to also reconstruct them in the demanding context of justice and the contemporary world nor is it simply a treatise on justice but a theoretical and practical reflection on justice as vital expressions of faith in God hope in God and love of God A non dogmatic and non ideological approach it accommodates both conservative and liberal positions and avoids the separation of the theological virtues from the demands of the contemporary world as well as the separation of justice talk from the theological context of faith hope and love It seeks above all to renew not merely repeat the classical doctrine of faith hope and love in the contemporary context of the urgency of justice and to do so ecumenically comprehensively and from a variety of perspectives and aspects Faith in the Face of Militarization Jude Lal Fernando,2021-04-05 What does believing mean in the face of empire and militarization These essays articulate the critical and liberating consciousness shared by oppressed peoples across the world arising from a faith in the God of the oppressed expressed in radically diverse ways and resisting the imperialist deities of materialism read economic growth racism and militarization that falsely appear as the saviors of humanity The authors confront these false gods which form the modern empire worshiped by the most dominant militarized states in the world and followed by their allied states even in the midst of a worldwide pandemic Out of the eleven articles two are written by critical political analysts with an anti colonial lens while recognizing the importance of faith in resistance The rest are written by theologians who critically reflect on their faith within the context of empire and militarization in their societies Militarization is among the most brutal forms of oppression on the resisting peoples The theologies that have emerged from critical reflections on their collective experiences are grounded on a material spirituality as opposed to materialistic racist and militaristic godlessness This collection has emerged out of creative and transformative practices in Africa Asia Latin America the Pacific and the US The essays are divided it into four sections in recognizing some of the key features of material spirituality indigenous feminist and interreligious voices and horizontal solidarity With contributions from Michael Lujan Bevacqua Wati Longchar Nidia Arrobo Rodas Rasika Sharmen Pieris Lilian Cheelo Siwila Young Bock Kim Dan Gonzales Ortega Erin Shea Martin Mark Braverman Joshua Samuel Phil Miller A Life of Meaning Rabbi Dana Evan Kaplan, PhD,2017-11-28 Reform Judaism is constantly evolving as we continue to seek a faith that is in harmony with our beliefs and experiences This volume offers readers a thought provoking collection of essays by rabbis cantors and other scholars who differ sometimes passionately over religious practice experience and belief Its goal is to situate Judaism in a contemporary context and it is uniquely suited for community discussion as well as study groups
