Rejected Of Men:

Divine Election Eduardo J. Echeverria, 2016-09-14 This dogmatic study addresses two perennial questions First how do we reconcile God's sovereignty with human freedom not just in general but particularly with respect to the Church's full understanding of God's plan of salvation as a work of grace Second and equally crucial is the question of how we reconcile God's universal salvific will with the mystery of predestination election and reprobation The author of this study does theology within the normative tradition of confessional Catholicism and thus in the light of Catholic teaching But this study is also an ecumenical work indeed a work in receptive ecumenism and hence he listens attentively to the reflections and arguments not only of his fellow Catholic theologians Matthias Joseph Scheeben and Hans Urs von Balthasar but also theologians of the Evangelical and Reformed traditions John Calvin Herman Bavinck Karl Barth and G C Berkouwer This book concludes with a Catholic synthesis regarding the doctrine of divine election in dogmatic and ecumenical perspective A

The British Empire and the First World War Ashley Jackson, 2017-06-26 The British Empire played a crucial part in the First World War supplying hundreds of thousands of soldiers and labourers as well as a range of essential resources from foodstuffs to minerals mules and munitions In turn many imperial territories were deeply affected by wartime phenomena such as inflation food shortages combat and the presence of large numbers of foreign troops This collection offers a comprehensive selection of essays illuminating the extent of the Empire s war contribution and experience and the richness of scholarly research on the subject Whether supporting British military operations aiding the British imperial economy or experiencing significant wartime effects on the home fronts of the Empire the war had a profound impact on the colonies and their people The chapters in this volume were originally published in Australian Historical Studies The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History First World War Studies or The Round Table The Commonwealth Journal of International Affairs Medical Services, General History Sir William Grant MacPherson,1921 Report ,1952

Justification: A Guide for the Perplexed Alan J. Spence,2012-01-26 This title provides an upper level introduction to the doctrine of justification which triggered the Reformation and is still high up on the agenda in Ecumenical dialogue The core of the book is an historical survey of the doctrine of justification as it has developed within the Western church a somewhat simplified version of McGrath s Justitia Dei but with a more outspoken assessment of the various moves that are taken at various stages in the discussion Attention will be paid to the context or prevailing world view in which such a doctrine is deemed significant Although the focus is on a number of principal theologians there are some reference to their peers or followers Only at the end the Pauline texts are examined The conclusion considers what part a doctrine of justification can have within a modern worldview in which the concept of divine judgement has generally been marginalised Continuum s Guides for the Perplexed are clear concise and accessible introductions to thinkers writers and subjects that students and readers can find especially challenging or indeed downright bewildering Concentrating specifically on what it is that makes the subject difficult to grasp these books explain and explore key themes and ideas guiding the reader towards a thorough understanding of demanding material The Children of Lincoln William D. Green,2018-10-23 How white advocates of emancipation abandoned African American causes in the dark days of Reconstruction told through the stories of four Minnesotans White people Frederick Douglass said in a speech in 1876 were the children of Lincoln while black people were at best his stepchildren Emancipation became the law of the land and white champions of African Americans in the state were suddenly turning to other causes regardless of the worsening circumstances of black Minnesotans Through four of these children of Lincoln in Minnesota William D Green s book brings to light a little known but critical chapter in the state s history as it intersects with the broader account of race in America In a narrative spanning the years of the Civil War and Reconstruction the lives of these four Minnesotans mark the era s most significant moments in the state the Midwest and the nation for the Republican Party the Baptist church women s suffrage and Native Americans Morton Wilkinson the state s first Republican senator Daniel Merrill a St Paul business leader who helped launch the first Black Baptist church Sarah Burger

Stearns founder and first president of the Minnesota Woman Suffragist Association and Thomas Montgomery an immigrant farmer who served in the Colored Regiments in the Civil War each played a part in securing the rights of African Americans and each abandoned the fight as the forces of hatred and prejudice increasingly threatened those hard won rights Moving from early St Paul and Fort Snelling to the Civil War and beyond The Children of Lincoln reveals a pattern of racial paternalism describing how even enlightened white Northerners fatigued with the Negro Problem would come to embrace policies that reinforced a notion of black inferiority Together their lives so differently and deeply connected with nineteenth century race relations create a telling portrait of Minnesota as a microcosm of America during the tumultuous years of Reconstruction
