Dialogically Speaking Kenneth Paul Kramer,2011-01-01

What makes us authentically human According to Maurice Friedman world renowned Martin Buber scholar translator and biographer it is genuine dialogue When there s a willingness for dialogue Friedman says then one must navigate moment by moment It s a listening process Friedman addresses our humanity in ever unique ways through his dialogue with philosophy literature religion and psychotherapy At least two things make this book new Friedman presents his wide ranging thought directly in five original essays forming an intertextual compass which is then elaborated upon by colleagues familiar with his work Second a special feature of this book is found at the end of each part which invites readers to engage with questions drawn from and pointing toward Friedman s writing The book s intended audience includes teachers scholars and students interested in dialogical approaches to any of the human sciences In a time when we are in danger of losing our human birthright Friedman s interdisciplinary insights point us again to the touch of the other

Learning Through Dialogue Kenneth Paul Kramer, 2013-04-08 Educational practice today often fails to make the crucial distinction between learning as an accumulation of information and learning as a dialogical interaction that elicits one s personal response to the material Learning Through Dialogue offers an alternative approach to teaching and learning which utilizes Martin Buber s dialogical principles turning toward addressing affirmatively listening attentively and responding responsibly The book first presents Buber s educational theory and method and second presents specific examples of how Buber s dialogical philosophy can be applied in the classroom Rather than imposing one s own views this approach enables teachers and students to develop course content in uniquely appropriate ways If you are a teacher a student an educator at any level or anyone interested in furthering his or her ability to engage more meaningfully with the educational process this book will challenge you with fresh perspectives developed during the 20th century In this volume some aspects of this international history are examined Coming from six different Western countries each of the contributors has a record in the historiography of psychology and profound knowledge of psychology of religion Their approaches combine elements from the history of mentalities the social history of science and biographical studies The volume contains in depth treatments of such topics as the growth of the field as reflected in university politics developments within international organizations and the personal involvement of contributors to the field A wealth of information is provided on the background of the work of well known psychologists of religion like James Henry Leuba Oskar Pfister Gordon Allport Werner Gruehn Antoine Vergote and others      Understanding authentic religious development facilitates development towards the goals of authentic human growth This study attempts to investigate the validity of this reciprocal relationship as it applies to human and religious growth A dialogue is constructed between the views of four Christian thinkers Kierkegaard Barth Bultmann and Tillich on the dynamics of the Christian faith experience and four psychological theorists Allport Fromm Maslow and Frankl on the dynamics of human growth
