The Symbolism of the Stupa Adrian Snodgrass, 1992-01-01 In his preface to The Symbolism of the Stupa Prof Craig Reynolds writes The stupa is a symbolic form that pullulates throughout South Southeast and East Asia In its Indian manifestations it is an extreme case in terms of architectural function it has no useable has a basic simplicity In this state of the art study Adrian Snodgrass reads the stupa as a cultural artifact The monument concretizes metaphysical principles and generates multivalent meanings in ways that can be articulated with literary texts and other architectural forms This study analyses a pattern of interrelated meanings generated by the form of the stupa It does so by reference to myth to ritual and to doctrine viewing the architectural form from within the conceptual framework of the tradition to which it belongs This approach involves questions of aim and methodology A deeper understanding of a symbol is gained by studying the grid or net formed by its symbolic homologues The pattern of meaning that emerges from the juxtaposition of cognate symbols does not exhaust the significance of the symbol which is ultimately beyond worlds but it reinforces its intimations indicating a logical cohesion and integrity which in itself is an intimation of the all pervasiveness of Principle It is precisely this pattern of inter reflection or symbols that this study attempts to delineate By bringing together cognate symbols in apposition it attempts to mark out the field of symbolic interactions which the stupa generates The Symbolism of the Stupa Adrian Snodgrass,2018-05-31 A close analysis of the architecture of the stupa a Buddhist symbolic form that is found throughout South Southeast and East Asia The author who trained as an architect examines both the physical and metaphysical levels of these buildings which derive their meaning and significance from Buddhist and Brahmanist influences
